Farm Crop Queries

Conducted by Professor Henry G. Bell. The object of this department is to place at the service of our farm readers the advice of an acknowledged authority on all subjects pertaining to soils and crops.

Q.—Do you recommend putting lime rock on sandy soil for alfalfa? A.—How much to the acre? Do you put it on before you plow your land or drag it in?

Bedtime Stories

The Fairies and the Flowers. There was no place in the world where little Marian would rather be than in Aunt Lydia's garden.

The Bride's Chum.—You might arrange a kitchen shower with the luncheon at your home as follows: Paste pictures of household articles on corresponding cards and use these for your invitations.

YOUR PROBLEMS

BY MRS HELEN LEW. Mothers and daughters of all ages are cordially invited to write to this department. Inquiries only will be published with each question and its answer as a means of identification, but full name and address must be given in each letter.

For fasteners, use tiny baskets or toy cooling utensils and fill them with silver tinsel. Just before dessert is served, the guests may excuse herself and leave the room. Quickly discharging herself as she leaves, she should return, knock at the door and insist on delivering a message to the bride.

COMBINING FRUIT WITH POULTRY

Profits from land used for poultry can be increased by using the land as much as possible for the production of other crops. Red raspberries and blackberries can be raised on the range devoted to young chicks and the shade from these brambles will be good for the chicks and also afford some protection against the ravages of hawks.

MISCELLANEOUS

When I Come Home. When I come home, dear folks of mine, I'll drink a cup of olden wine and yet, however rich it be, no wine will taste so good to me as English air.

The Plain Truth about Shoe Prices

LEATHER is scarce and is growing scarcer. A large part of the available supply must be used for soldiers' boots. Importation has practically ceased and we are forced to depend upon the limited quantity of material produced in Canada.
