The organization of the County of Grey for the new Victory Loan is practically complete. The Central office in Owen Sound has been open for over a week, and it is a very busy place. Mr. W. C. Macneill, of Toronto, is the County Organizer; Mr. R. Patterson, of Owen Sound, the County Secretary, and the staff of canvassers through the county being arranged. The campaign starts towards the end of the month.

Grey County is expected to provide the sum of $2,300,000 of the loan. In the last campaign $2,600,000 was raised; and it is believed that the full allotment for this year will be realized.

The following is the list of the canvassing districts, and the amount to be raised in each:

No. 1—Owen Sound and District, $1,300,000.

No. 2—Meaford and District, $225,000.

No. 3—Thornbury and District, $325,000.

No. 4—Dundalk and District, $300,000.

No. 5—Markdale and District, $175,000.

No. 6—Hanover and District, $75,000.

No. 7—Durham and District, $300,000.

No. 8—Chatsworth and District, $150,000.

No. 9—Flesherton and District, $90,000.

No. 10—Neustadt and District, $100,000.

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

Sergt. Wells, Whittaker and Pte. P. B. Lemire, ex-pupils of the High School, recently returned from the front, were given a plauding reception by the Literary Society of the school on Thursday afternoon last at which a goodly number of visitors were present. The President, Miss Eva Spencer, presided and a good programme was rendered consisting of choruses and recitations together with a piano solo by Master Kendall, and a violin solo by Miss Hulse.

Sergt. Whittaker spoke for half an hour, giving an interesting account of his experiences at the front.

Miss White, returned Missionary from China, gave a very interesting illustrated lecture at the Young People's meeting in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening of last week.

The funeral took place on Monday evening at the cemetery church on Thursday evening, but owing to the wet night the attendance was smaller than hoped for. A large number of citizens attended.

Prinical R. G. Holland met with double bereavement last week by the death of Toronto, of his youngest sister, Mrs. Hayes, aged 11 years, and her eldest daughter, aged 13 years.

Both succumbed to influenza, the mother suddenly a few hours after her daughter. Owing to the epidemic he could not go down which made the bereavement more trying. Two children are left and a very sad thing for the home is that the husband and father, Sergt. J. J. Hayes, is overseas in the service of his country.

After a brief attack of influenza which developed pneumonia, Mrs. R. Gibson passed away at her late home near Caledon on Sunday afternoon.

The remains were taken to Toronto on Monday for interment. The deceased, who was about 30 years of age, came from Toronto with her husband about five years ago. His numerous friends deeply sympathized with him in his great loss.

On Friday, October 19th, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnston, of Toronto, a son.

Owing to the influenza epidemic here have been ordered in the church services in the villages and townships to be withdrawn and the public and High School to be closed until further notice.

This village has fortunately so far escaped any severe case of the epidemic and no pneumonia has developed.

"Failing to secure a residence here, Mr. Dimick and children moved to Ceylon, Ontario.

Miss Maud Boyd, a young girl from Waterdown, her school having been closed by the epidemic.

Mr. George Cairns, of Penetanguishene, joined his family last week on their visit to W. P. Crossley, and all left for their home in Friday.

Mrs. Thurston is in Toronto visiting her son and wife who are ill with the prevalent epidemic.

Pte. Fred Karstedt arrived from Toronto on Saturday night, accompanied by his father. Though yet weak he is making splendid recovery and his friends hope to see him about again.

Rev. A. W. Sinclair, wife and son of Hornby Mills, visited his former parents here on Saturday.

Mr. W. W. Trimble visited his daughter at Thornton on Monday.

A death which was a great shock to the community was that of Mr. Ed. Djemian, of West Toronto, who died on Monday with heart failure from influenza with which he was seized only on Saturday.

The deceased, who was the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Djemian, was born here over thirty years ago and was an energetic business man, and a half year ago married to Miss Florence Toronto, with whom he was survived by him. Sincere sympathy is felt for

PUBLIC NOTICE

That owing to the spreading of the Spanish influenza throughout the Township of Euphrasia, all public schools and churches shall be closed and all public assemblies prohibited until opened and allowed by the local townships.
