

FRENCH DISLodge ENEMY FROM THE HERMANN LINE

Germans Retreat Five Miles, the Infantry Being Covered in Withdrawal by Machine Gunners.

Paris, Oct. 27.—This evening Gen. Debeney's army, after three days and nights of uninterrupted fighting, dislodged the enemy from the Hermann line, pursuing him to the next line, five miles northward. The Germans know what is at stake and are fighting as they did in 1914. Their machine gunners are covering their infantry in retreat to-day and are dying at their posts rather than surrender.

Discussion of the armistice proposals has had no appreciable effect upon military operations on the French front, which are being prosecuted with a vigor that has not slackened since the offensive began on August 8. The enemy's resistance also has not weakened, although the three French armies operating between the Oise and the Aisne to continue their intense sustained effort for more than three months.

The defense the Germans are making does not appear like the last stand of an army in desperate straits, since they are able to force the French to wage winter fighting on successive lines of strongly fortified positions.

Again, to-day, the German lines appeared to be flinching at certain points, notably in front of the 1st army, Gen. Debeney's men having taken Courmoulin and La Ferrière, toward the north-east. There is nothing to indicate, however, that this is not only more of the will organized and successive retreatments of the enemy to another position prepared in advance.

Gen. Mangin's troops crossed the Serre east of Assis-sur-Serre without much opposition and penetrated the German trenches north of the river. On the other hand the army of Gen. Guillaumat, on the front eastward toward the Aisne, is encountering the strongest resistance from both the artillery and the infantry. The enemy counter-attacked vigorously south of Macquigny Farm this morning, but was repulsed.

BRITISH CAPTURE OVER 9,000 PRISONERS AND 150 GUNS IN 2 DAYS

Fifth and Fourth Armies Meet With Stiff Resistance—Several Additional Towns Occupied.

A despatch from London says: Nine thousand German prisoners and 150 guns have been captured by the British in their advance against the Germans, according to Field Marshal Haig's communication issued on Friday night.

South of Valenciennes the attack took the British forward more than 10 miles, thereby virtually eliminating the sharp salient which bulged into their territory with its great ring of fortifications. The assault, which was pressed vigorously on this sector on Thursday, was renewed on Friday morning with a dash. At the same time Gen. Haig's army drove forward north of Valenciennes and gained the entire railway line on the front between Le Quesnoy and Maing.

They captured Les Tallettes, east of Collemes, early, and after stiff fighting in which the Germans suffered heavy losses, reached La Queuilly.

There was very stiff fighting on both sides of Les Tallettes, toward La

GERMANS FIRE ON SICK CIVILIANS U.S. TROOPS GAIN ABOUT HALF-MILE

Pour Gas Shells into District Where Influenza is Prevalent. Take Several Woods in Local Attack—Artillery Active.

A despatch from the British Army in France says:—One of the most seriously distressing problems the British army has been compelled to meet is that of caring for and disposing of the large civilian population left in the wake of the German army, which is retreating from the region between the Oise and Tournai. More particularly is this true of the district over which we have been advancing since Wednesday morning.

The situation is especially serious at St. Amand, where there are more than 1,500 French people suffering from Spanish influenza and cannot be moved. On Wednesday night the town was bombarded by gas shells and a large number of the inhabitants were gassed in the cellars where they were being cared for.

In one narrow British sector 42,000 civilians must be fed, housed and at least partially clothed. Demand for the moment is really dependent on the British people. All these people are completely destitute and the Germans left them with just enough clothing to cover themselves—certainly insufficient for the cold, raw weather which is prevalent at this season.

The Americans on Thursday advanced about one kilometre on a three kilometre front, and the Bois Bultray, Belleu are within the American lines as also is a part of the Bois-de-Waville and Pignon-de-Traye.

The advance was made after brief artillery preparation. The enemy's response was principally with machine guns, but during the fighting he shelled the back areas and threw a few inch shells into Verdun.

The artillery on both sides was active over the entire American front on Thursday. The Germans were unusually nervous owing to the activity of the Americans on both sides of the Meuse.

WOMEN ELIGIBLE TO SIT IN BRITISH PARLIAMENT

A despatch from London says: The House of Commons has adopted a resolution in favor of women sitting in Parliament. The resolution was passed by a majority of 249.

GERMANS OFFER RESISTANCE TO FRENCH IN SERRE AND OISE VALLEYS

But Fresh Hun Divisions and New Field Fortifications Fail to Stop French Advance Toward Guise.

A despatch from the French Army in France says:—Gen. Debeney's attack between Mont D'Origny and the valley of the Serre is meeting with very stout resistance. The battle was raging again here on Friday morning, around Villers-le-See, which was recaptured by the French troops.

The Germans have brought up three fresh divisions to this sector in the past few days and appear determined to dispute possession of every foot of ground. They are particularly favored by the character of the terrain which is very broken, furnishing strong natural obstacles which the enemy has utilized to the utmost by adding field fortifications upon which they have been working the past four weeks.

The position Gen. Debeney's men are attacking from Ribecourt, south-east to the valley of the Serre, is called the Hermann position by the Germans. Considerable of its general characteristics has been learned from captured orders and the reports of aviators. This is not supposed to have the same strength as the Hindenburg line, but is sufficiently strong to permit of a stout defence. Behind this line, again, there is an extension of the Hindenburg position in front of Guise, to which the Germans no doubt will retire when the present battle is finished.

In spite of the formidable obstacles encountered and almost constant service in the fighting line for the past three months, the forces of General Debeney continue to forge ahead, and will soon have driven the enemy back upon the old battlefield of the retreat from Charleroi to make a stand around Guise, where the French held them up for a short time during their march to the Marne.
