

ARMISTICE WITH AUSTRIA SIGNED: BREAK UP OF DUAL MONARCHY

Germany's Last Prop Gone When Italian Commander Signs Armistice—Republic Proclaimed in Hungary—Austrian Government in Hands of National Assembly.

London, Nov. 3.—An armistice with Austria was signed this afternoon by General Diaz, the Italian Commander-in-Chief, according to an official announcement made here this evening. The text of the statement reads: "A telephone message has been received from the Prime Minister in Paris, saying that news has just come that Austria-Hungary, the last of Germany's props, has gone out of the way."

"The armistice was signed by General Diaz this afternoon, and will come into operation tomorrow at 3 o'clock. The terms will be published on Tuesday."

Paris, Nov. 3.—Official announcement of the signing of the Austrian armistice reached the Premier's office this afternoon at the apartment of Colonel House, President Wilson's special representative, this afternoon, and gave the greatest satisfaction. It was arranged that the conditions of the armistice would be made public shortly.

Vienna, Nov. 3.—The German War Office reiterates its announcement that all Austrian forces on the front have laid down their arms. Anti-German demonstrations are taking place in which both soldiers and civilians are participating.

Amsterdam, Nov. 3.—The German-Austrian State Council, according to a despatch from Vienna, has issued a proclamation to the soldiers at the front, saying that the government has been taken over by the National Assembly. The Assembly will immediately conclude peace and begin the orderly demobilization of the army, the proclamation declares.

Vienna, Nov. 3.—(Via London).—"In the Italian theatre of the war our troops have ceased hostilities on the basis of an armistice, which has been concluded," says the war communication issued today.

"The conditions of the armistice will be announced in a later communication."

Basle, Switzerland, Nov. 3.—During a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Hungarian National Council at Budapest yesterday Count Karolyi announced that King Charles had freed the Government from its oath of fidelity.

The Government has placed on its program the question whether Hungary shall in the future be a Republic or a Monarchy.

The Minister of War announces that an order would be given to all soldiers on the Hungarian front, including officers, to lay down their arms and to enter into negotiations with the enemy. If the enemy wish to occupy Hungary, the announcement added, a demand should be made that French or British troops be sent by preference.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Count Karolyi, after obtaining a release from his oath of fidelity to the Emperor, proclaimed a Republic in Hungary, according to a despatch to the Bund from Vienna, quoting the Viennese newspaper Die Zeit.

Stolen But Not Taken—Here is a pile of books stolen from the library of Montdidier and billed "For Berlin." The German getaway was too rapid to allow of the carrying of mere books, valuable though they may be. Buy a Victory Bond in gratitude that Canadian libraries have been spared such pillage.

TERMS OF ARMISTICE SIGNED BY ALL ALLIED NATIONS

Germany Knows the Terms Upon Which She May Have Immediate Peace and End of War.

Paris, Nov. 3.—At six o'clock to-day the final signature was attached to the armistice terms framed by the associated Governments, which must be accepted by the German Government if they wish hostilities to cease. It is an hour later the terms were on the wire en route to Berlin. A prompt answer is confidently expected. One of the terms is understood to require Germany to evacuate the banks of the Rhine and withdraw her troops twenty-five miles behind a line drawn from the Swiss frontier to the North Sea, including the Rhine, although its length on the left bank in Germany territory and all bridges and highroads, and to remain in occupation until the terms of peace are completely executed.

SERBIA FREED FROM THE FOE

First Serbian Army Enters Belgrade With Solemn Ceremony.

Paris, Nov. 3.—The French official dealing with the operations in the Eastern theatre said: "After the capture of Belgrade the Germans and Austrians, beaten, retreated to the north bank of the Danube. The Second Serbian Army has reached the Danube frontier. Serbia has almost in its entirety been freed from the enemy."

The battles which decided this great victory began on September 15. On the 24th the line of communication was captured on the 29th. The location of the Bulgarian forces was followed by capture, and on the 30th Belgrade came to an end.

"The fighting was continued by the defeated Austro-German troops. On October 12 the battle of Mair was fought by the route of four or five divisions and the capture of the great railway of communication of the Central Empire in the direction of Constantinople. On the 18th the Danube was reached, and the Danube was cut. Then came the last onslaught—Belgrade was taken by the First Serbian Army, to which was given the honor of entering the Capital. This victory was without equal in the fighting, marching without cease and without respite, always in contact with the enemy, when it held by the threat very often of being cut off and knowing no fatigue and no hunger. It pushed forward by will to conquer at any price."

"On their part the allied troops made their greatest effort to bring to a successful conclusion the task confided to them of crushing the common enemy."

The Serbian army has taken an oath of allegiance to the new constitution of the great Serbian Kingdom, according to a despatch received by the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Paris, Nov. 3.—For the last ten days submarine destruction has been practically all. There are still about fifteen U-boats out, including several of the cruiser type, but probably none is now in the Atlantic west of the Irish coast.

GERMANS HAVE LOST 2,500,000 THIS YEAR

A despatch from London says: German losses since Jan. 1 were semi-officially estimated on Thursday at 2,500,000, of which one million were permanent.

Of the 10,000 German guns operating July 15, the allies have captured a third.

VALENCIENNES IN BRITISH HANDS

Outskirts of "City of Lace" in Ruins, but Centre is Intact.

With the Allied Armies in France, Valenciennes was virtually freed this morning of German machine guns, who were left behind to fight the night, and to-day in the afternoon the consolidated British and Belgian forces, which had been in the vicinity of Valenciennes, moved forward and captured the town.

The fighting in Valenciennes throughout the night, the remainder about 20,000 were evacuated by the Germans during the past week, principally to Mons. A number of the recaptured villages and last night lost their lives as a result of a further enemy bombardment with high explosives and gas shells.

The correspondent entered the city this morning through the western gate. All the bridge across the Scheldt had been destroyed by the retreating Germans; the outskirts of the place were in ruins from the bombardment. The "City of Lace" which was expected might be found virtually intact, was a sad sight until the centre of the municipality was reached. Here practically no damage was done. The Grand Place, with the beautiful Hotel De Ville was intact, except for trifling marks from stray shells.

Little groups of civilians collected throughout the city, some viewing the damage helplessly, others trying to establish their German neighbors in the streets, with dead Germans unheeded beside them. Their joy at their deliverance was too great to take in the tragedy about them.

ALLIED ADVANCE CUTS OFF ONE OF MAIN LINES OF HUN RETREAT

Franco-Americans Take Thousands of Prisoners and Re-Occupy 50 Villages in Advance West of the Meuse.

With the French Army in France, Nov. 4.—The operations which the Franco-American forces are engaged in carrying out north of the Argonne Forest has now resulted in definitely closing the Steyap Gap, one of the main lines of retreat for the German southern armies.

The railroad from Mezieres to Montmedy also has been cut by the line of the allied guns, which means that there is no direct line of communication with Germany for the enemy troops in France west of the Meuse and that hereafter they must pass through Luxembourg and Belgium. Indications are that the Germans have accelerated their retreat toward the frontiers of those two countries since yesterday morning. Many of these roads of retreat have already been cut.

French troops attacked successfully again this morning on both wings of their battle front. They moved northward in conjunction with the American and British forces, and about nine miles from Sedan, bringing both wings within range of the allied shell fire.

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER OF TURKEY OPENS DARDANELLES TO ALLIES

Terms of Armistice Include Release of All Allied Prisoners—Entire Turkish Army Captured by British in Mesopotamia—British Fleet En Route to Black Sea to Engage German Naval Forces.

A despatch from London says:—reparation of allied Turkey on Thursday unconditionally surrendered to the allies. The armistice was signed by Admiral Calthorpe on behalf of the Entente at Mudros, on the Island of Lemnos.

"Gen. Townshend, the British commander, captured at Kut-el-Amara, was liberated several days ago by the British. Sir George Cave, the Home Secretary, announced in the House of Commons on Thursday, "in order to inform the British admiralty in connection with the Turkish Government asked that negotiations be opened immediately for an armistice."

"A reply was sent that if the Turkish Government sent fully accredited plenipotentiaries, Vice-Admiral Calthorpe, the British commander, empowered to inform them of the conditions upon which the allies would agree to stop hostilities, and could sign an armistice on these conditions, in their behalf."

The Turkish plenipotentiaries arrived at Mudros, Island of Lemnos, early this week and an armistice was signed by Admiral Calthorpe on behalf of the allied Government of Wellington on Thursday.

"It is impossible as yet to publish the full terms of the armistice, but they include (1) The free passage of the allied fleet through the Bosphorus to the Black Sea; (2) The occupation of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus necessary to secure the passage of the ships and (3) Immediate reparation of allied Turkey. The announcement that the armistice had been signed was received by the British admiralty with great satisfaction. The British fleet, which had been ordered to the Black Sea to engage the German naval forces, will pass through the Dardanelles already in its possession. The British admiralty officers to believe that the German fleet is not in a position to attack the British fleet in the Black Sea.

The German battle fleet, which was in the Mediterranean when the armistice was signed, has been ordered to return to the Baltic. The German battle fleet, which was in the Mediterranean when the armistice was signed, has been ordered to return to the Baltic.

The entire Turkish fleet has been captured. It was announced on Thursday that the British fleet, which had been ordered to the Black Sea to engage the German naval forces, will pass through the Dardanelles already in its possession.

FOUR WHEAT FLOUR SUBSTITUTES ALLOWED

A despatch from Ottawa says: An order on wheat flour just passed by the Canada Food Board defines the only four wheat flour substitutes as cat, barley, corn and rye flour. All consumers must now take one pound of substitutes to four pounds wheat flour.

The order allows anyone to have on hand 200 pounds of flour, or sufficient for present daily ordinary requirements, while any surplus wheat flour grown wheat has been ground by any person living more than five miles from a mill, or blended flour, may keep on hand 200 pounds of flour, or what is sufficient for 200 days.

Feeding milling wheat or its mixtures to live stock or poultry is forbidden, except where grown together.

ITALIANS CAPTURE 100,000 PRISONERS AND 2,000 GUNS

Trieste, Austria's Principal Seaport, Occupied by Italian Forces—Trent Also Has Been Captured.

Rome, Nov. 3.—Italy and Austria-Italy's victory in Northern Italy has been complete. The Italian War Office announced today: More than 100,000 prisoners and 2,000 guns have been taken.

Italian forces have landed at Trieste, the principal seaport of Austria-Hungary on the Adriatic, according to an official announcement made this evening by the Italian War Office, and the tri-color is flying from the castle and from the tower of San Giusto. Italian cavalry have entered Udine. The Austrians have also captured Trent, one of Austria's chief fortified towns in the Tyrol.

It was not Austria, who abandoned her fleet to the Jugo-Slavs, but the Jugo-Slavs, rising in revolt, who took possession of the Austro-Hungarian warships, according to the authoritative statement here.

As soon as this was done the Jugo-Slav leaders sent the following wireless message to President Wilson: "We have seized the whole Austro-Hungarian fleet, except the Viribus Libera."

FRENCH AND AMERICAN TROOPS CAPTURE NUMEROUS VILLAGES

After Artillery Preparation Allies Smashed Forward—3,000 Prisoners and Several Enemy Positions.

A despatch from the American Army Northwest of Verdun says:—The 1st American Army smashed forward for material gains along the front on Friday. In conjunction with the French army on its left the Americans resumed in force the operations begun September 26.

Preceded by the heaviest artillery preparation yet used by the Americans, the infantry went over the top at 3:30 o'clock Friday morning along the line. By 8 o'clock the French had taken Champigneulle, Georges, Landres-et-St. Georges, and the Lan D'Ifuy Farm and between 2,500 and 3,000 prisoners.

There was no opposition at the outset. This was carried out by a machine gun fire from 20 to 30 minutes, when it ceased off, and enabled the troops to advance without serious fighting.

Later stiff opposition developed in spirits and ready for a fight.
