HOW TO FIGHT SPANISH INFLUENZA

BY DR. L. W. HOWERS. Avoid crowds, coughs and crows, but fear neither germs nor Germans! Keep the system in good order, take plenty of exercise in the fresh air and practice cleanliness.

FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard.)

At the report of peace, though premature, on Thursday last, this place in common with others celebrated the event with prolonged ringing of the church and school bells, blowing of horns and other manifestations of pent-up feelings.

Early on Monday morning when confirmed news came that the armistice was signed by humiliated Germany, citizens were roused by bugle notes and clanging bells and rejoicing began in every home.

At the proclamation of the Reeve, business was suspended and there was general good-will. A union praise and thanksgiving service was held in the Methodist church in the evening.

which was impressive. Mr. W. H. Bunt presided and a large choir led in the singing of a number of appropriate hymns.

Rev. Mr. Quinn read the Scripture lessons and prayer was offered by Mr. Frank Chard and Mr. Thos. Bentham, after which addresses were given by Reeve McKenzie and Revs. McVicar, Belfry and Quinn.

At the close the National Anthem was heartily sung and Mr. McVicar pronounced the benediction. After the meeting a large crowd assembled on the village square where another bonfire Kaiser Bill was again cremated, and the boys kept up the jubilation until near midnight.

Mrs. W. Miller is visiting her old home at Honeywood.

Gordon Blakely is home from spending the summer at Corbetton.

Mr. Eliza-Bentham and sister, Miss Stella, returned on Monday from the West where the former harvested and the latter spent the summer with relatives.

The funeral of the late Pte. Max Hannon, whose death we reported last week, took place from the home of his parents and was largely attended by sympathizing friends.

Beautiful floral tributes were given as follows: Mounted wreath each, the family and the I.O.F.; his wife, Spray, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong; wreath each, Mr. and Mrs. W. Buskin and the neighbors and spray each, from Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Harrison and sons, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hawkin and Mr. and Mrs. E. Collinson.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid here have since sent letters of condolence conveying the deep sympathy of the Society to the grief-stricken mother and young widow of the deceased. Condolence was also sent from the Society to Mrs. Alf. Thisthewate, recently bereft of her son.

Those here who knew young Dr. Boyle when he practised at Pricerville were sorry to learn last week of his death at Edmonton from pneumonia following influenza.

Mr. R. H. Goldhawk, of Seaford, formerly of this place, received word last week that his son, Trooper W. T. Goldhawk, had been gassed and wounded and was in No. 2 Australian Hospital in France.

Mr. D. Young, of this place, received the sad news last week of the death of his son Pte. Elmer R. Young, who succumbed to pneumonia in hospital in England.

The young man who was only 22 years of age, enlisted in the West last spring and went overseas three months ago.

Harold McLean, son of Mr. Archie McLean, of this place, and a former pupil in the High School here, is reported having joined the United States navy and is training there.

But we are pleased he will not have to fight the Germans.

Mrs. W. Wilcock received word some days ago that her son, Guineo Wm. Wilcock, who was home on leave last spring after three years with the artillery in France, had gone to Russia with an artillery draft from England.

but we are glad he will not likely have to do further fighting. His brother, Robt. of Buffalo, training in the United States army, will not likely have to go overseas. Their brother Dick, it will be remembered, gave his life in France.

Mrs. W. P. Crossier learned last week of the death at the front of her nephew, Pte. Roy Spiker, who succumbed to influenza.

Mr. Ernest Watson, son of Mr. Wm. Watson, formerly of Priceton township, has become an extensive farmer at Dauphin, Man., where he recently sold his half section farm for $22,000 and to enlarge his operations bought a full section, 60 acres, at $10,000.

Dauphin district was favored with a good crop this year. Mr. Watson's father, who also farms near Dauphin has succeeded in the West, and we are pleased to learn is now, in improved health.

Earle, one of his sons, is at the front.

Mr. Frank Chard, a well known resident of Artemesia and progressive farmer near this village, informs us that 34 years ago last Friday, he landed in this township finding sufficient snow on the ground to make good sleighing.

But afterwards it went out and a period of fine plowing weather followed. Mr. Chard came from England, but lived for a short time in Scarborough before settling here.

Watson-Grummet—The home of Mr. Robert Grummet, South Line East, was the scene of a happy event at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, November 6th, when his daughter, Violet A. was married to Mr. Robert E. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. H. Watson of Portlaw.

About thirty-five guests witnessed the ceremony.

The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and looked pretty in a dainty gown of white tulle and silk.

After congratulations and wedding feast an enjoyable evening was spent. An intended wedding trip was postponed on account of the prevailing influenza epidemic.

The bride received many beautiful wedding gifts, that of the groom being a handsome set of fur. The young couple will reside at Strigley and many friends wish them happiness and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cutting, of Markdale, are turning their attention to farming and will move soon to Mr. Jacob Parliament's farm on the 5th concession, Artemesia.

Mrs. Cutting is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loucks.

A year has gone since this village and community lost by death an esteemed and greatly beloved citizen in the person of Mr. M. K. Richardson, whose name is held in greenest memory.

Mr. Walter Loucks, with the Siberian Canadian Expeditionary Force, at Victoria, was recently appointed bayonet fighting instructor, but the victory now ours will relieve him from his post.
