The Canadian Statesman says what few towns or villages can say when it states that, "Citizens of Boyman-

TEESWATER MAN FINED $1.00

Joseph Waddell, a native of Germany, was fined $1.00 for unpartial pro-German utterances at Tees-water. When solicited to buy Victory Bonds he admitted he had plenty of money but because he believed Britain started the war and now refused to stop fighting even when the Germans wanted to quit, he did not think much of the present Victory Loan.

CASUALTIES OF
EUROPEAN NATIONS.

The casualties of the European nations during the war are estimated as follows:—Germany, 6,000,000; Austria, 4,500,000; France, 4,000,000; Britain, 2,200,000; Roumania, 2,000,000; Bulgaria, 200,000. With unestimated casualties of Russia and others not included in the above list, the estimate of the total casualties of the war are 26,000,000 men.

America's casualties in the war made public up to the hour of cessation of hostilities, totaled 69,420. Of these 12,460 were killed in action.

Thousands more have been killed, wounded or captured, and it probably will be many weeks before the final list is compiled.

Here's a "different" War Book

NOT stories of gruesome happenings or hairbreadth escapes but the other, more human, side of it.

Step with the author into real heart-interest scenes in the little French villages behind the lines.
Talk through him with the peasants and with the German boy-prisoners.

See, through his eyes, what underlies the war. Read the best of the letters of a whole-hearted, manly boy, who gave his life for the "cause" from the Trenches and Alt Service Camps direct to his home in Fort William, Ontario.

For sale by R. L. Stephen, Turner's Drug Store and Standard office.

Memorial to
OUR HEROES.

With an Armistice signed and sufficient evidence to warrant that such will bring about the Conference where peace will be declared, it seems that it is fitting and proper that we should consider and make due preparation to erect in some prominent place a permanent memorial to the gallant sons of Markdale and district who have made, so willingly and so heroically, the supreme sacrifice.

The question that we put to our readers is: "What form shall this memorial take?" The two following suggestions have already been made, namely: a drinking fountain, or a monument with the Canadian holding aloft the Standard.

Suggestions will be gladly received and duly chronicled in this paper, without names. When it is deemed necessary to appoint a committee to decide, such will be done through the proper channels.

All suggestions should be addressed to The Standard, and marked "memorial."

J. J. RICHARDSON
MARDLADE

Thurburn Conn Minister

The distressing news of the death of the third son of the late Solomon Hill and Mrs. Hill reached Markdale on Tuesday morning, November 19th.

Gordon accompanied his father some twenty years ago to Saskatoon, when his father transferred his lumbering business to that thriving western town. Years of patient and industrious application resulted in Gordon becoming sole proprietor of this branch of the business, having purchased same from his father.

At the time of his death he owned a very extensive and prosperous timber business, including general lumberplanning and saw milling, and was at his spruce camp near Tisdale when he contracted the influenza. He was removed to the hospital at Melfort, Alta., where serious symptoms developed, to which he succumbed on Sunday morning last.

Deceased was only thirty-four years of age and had married a very bright and intelligent young lady but two months ago.

We may judge from his school career and his subsequent busi-nessabilities in the West, we may say without hesitation that another of Markdale's brightest sons that would have dole her credit in any part of the Dominion—has fallen just at a period when brain and energy are the greatest 'needs' of the hour.

The loss of two sons within the period of four weeks is a severity of the severest kind and will require the deepest and most painful sympathy that is within the power of this community to offer. Mrs. Hill and family we would reverently commend to the merciful protection of God.
