Post Pictures From the Trenches." Lieut. Stapley Rutledge, a neat volume of 159 pages, for 75 cents. How about a copy for a Christmas present or goodwill to a friend? For sale by R. L. Stephen, Turner's Drug Store and Standard office.

My friends, have you ever heard of the town of No-Good, on the banks of the River Slow, where the Some-Time or Other scents the air and the soft Go-Easies grow? It lies in the valley of What's-the-Use, in the province of Let-Her-Slide; it's the home of the reckless I-Don't-Care, where the Give-It-Ups abide. The town is as old as the human race and it grows with the flight of years; it is wrapped in the fog of the idlers' dreams; its streets are paved with discarded schemes and are sprinkled with useless tears.

Four weeks until Christmas.

Ebenezer Church, Euphrasia, will hold a Xmas tree on December 20th. Posters later.

MARKDALE TO HAVE MODERN OPTICAL PARL'R

Mr. J. H. Lucas, the well known optician of Markdale, and well known to most of this community, has returned home after attending two weeks' special optical course in Toronto. He has been successful in mastering the advanced course of the Canadian Ophthalmic College, under the tutelage of Mr. W. G. Mayhew, the well known optical instructor, and has been awarded the College graduate Diploma. Mr. Lucas explains that to keep thoroughly up-to-date in the optical profession constant study is necessary.

It is only in recent years that the business of Optics has developed scientifically to any great extent, but it is now making such rapid strides that men who have been practising glasses for years, find constant study necessary to keep with its advancement, and with the public demand more scientific service in the adjustion of their eyes. The old method of trying lenses in a frame until the patient thinks he sees better will no longer do. Scientific and exact examinations and tests are demanded and modern knowledge and equipment are necessary in each of the new methods.

Mr. Lucas has successfully completed the most advanced Optical Course possible to procure in Canada, and in addition he is having a special test Room constructed wherein his office it will be equipped with instruments of the latest and most approved designs. With this equipment and knowledge he is in a position to give the citizens of Markdale and vicinity an Optical Service unsurpassed anywhere outside the larger cities. We congratulate Mr. Lucas upon his enterprise and we believe he will be rewarded with the confidence and patronage of his fellow citizens.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

Miss Mamie McLoughry, Miss Hamilton and Miss Artley each gave interesting readings at Epworth League on Monday night. Miss Walton sang a solo.

The services in Methodist church next Sunday will take the character of National Thanksgiving for peace and victory as suggested by our Government. Sacrament at close of morning service.

A memorial service was held in the Ebenezer church for the late Neil Gibson Sunday last. He was nineteen, of Highland-Scotch parentage, born in Toronto and some seven years ago was adopted into the family of Mr. L. Boales, of Euphrasia. He was a faithful, hard-working lad, much respected by those who knew him. He fell a victim to pneumonia on October 29th, and was burried in Ebenezer cemetery on the following day.

DIED

AITKEN—At his home in Riceton, Sask., of influenza, on November 24, 1918, Mathew Aitken, aged 55 years.

THE LATE PTE. H. A. SEABROOK
Killed In Action

Mrs. Seabrook of Lavigne (on Creek, Algoma, received the sad news that her son, Pte. Hugh Allan Seabrook, aged 24 years, was killed in action on September 27th. He enlisted and went overseas with the 24th Batt. Pte. Seabrook was a brother of Lee Seabrook, who returned a year ago.

KILLED IN ACTION.

A letter from Mr. Abel Wright, of Saskatoon, formerly of Markdale, brought to us last week the sad news of the death of their second son Alex., who was killed in action on September 27. Mr. and Mrs. Wright have the deep sympathy of their numerous friends in this part.

MEMORIAL TO OUR HEROES.

We are pleased to publish the following suggestion regarding our "Soldier's Memorial," and remind the public that we are still open to receive and publish such. They are worthy who died for freedom's cause.

As we go to press, the following suggestion is to hand:

That a public drinking fountain be erected in a suitable place with an accommodation for horses and dogs as well.

At a meeting of the Markdale Dramatic Society last week it was suggested that a play be given at some future date—the proceeds of which will be contributed to the "Soldier's Memorial Fund."

In answer to the article in your last issue; wouldn't it be appropriate to buy the Markdale House site (if such can be done), and convert same into a most attractive little park with lawn, shade trees, flower beds, and a few suitable rest seats, and have erected on same property a fitting memorial to Markdale's brave heroes?

SOME FOWL!

The most valuable roosters ever brought to town, and possibly into the county are the S. C. White Leghorns and B. P. Rocks, imported by R. O. Whitby.

They all come from Champion laying stock that have won the egg laying contests from coast to coast.

They are attracting much attention as well they might, having cost Mr. Whitby as high as eleven dollars each.
