To Mr. John Price, Berkeley.—

We, your neighbors and friends, gather here to do you honor as well as to welcome you back from the part you have played in the world's great war. We are glad to see you have returned safe to your home and friends. You are one of the many thousand soldiers of Canada that have brought luster and glory to the Dominion.

We ask you to accept this purse, as a small indication of our great indebtedness to you for the splendid sacrifice you were prepared to make for your King, your Country, and your home. May you long live to enjoy the freedom you have won.

Signed on behalf of your friends

At the Methodist Parsonage, November 27th, of Miss Bertha Mildred Snow, third eldest daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Hiram Snow, of Smithfield and Mr. Clarence Staples, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Staples of Markdale, Ont. The ceremony was at half past eight o'clock, and Rev.
G. W. McColl was the officiating clergyman. There were no attendants.
The bride wore a tailored suit, blue, color, a Georgette crepe blouse, and a black picture hat, with a band of ermine. After the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, only immediate members of both families being present. The table decorations were carried out in pink and white.
A number of useful and costly gifts were sent to the bride, among which were several cheques, cut glass, silverware, etc. She was a valued member of the Methodist Church choir, and the members of the church presented her with a beautiful serving tray, also Coalport china. Mr. and Mrs. Staples left on the mid-night train for Toronto, where they will take up residence. The bride's many friends will join in wishing her and her husband many years of happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee have the best wishes of a host of friends. They will take up their abode on Lee
homestead on the ninth line.

Rev. A. P. Stanley performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a lovely wedding dress of midnight blue taffeta with wide girdle with blue silk stretching and a collar of white ribbon. She also wore the groom's gift, a beautiful gold bracelet with cameo stone in pink gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee have the best
homestead on the ninth line.

They are happy because they are healthy. Life is still full of interest to them, and they are wide awake to new ideas.
