RIVERDALE

(Special to The Standard.) The compliments of the season to the editor staff and Riverdale readers.

Miss Olive Wiley, of Strongfield, Sask., is visiting at her parental home here.

Mr. E. Wiley, of Brookville training camp returned home last week, having received his honorable discharge from the military officials, of that district.

A largely attended meeting of the Riverdale and Ebenezer Ladies Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. J. Lee, on the 11th December.

Mrs. L. Gibson is visiting friends at Cataract.

Riverdale's proficient school teacher Miss L. Wiley, pleasantly entertained her pupils to a Merry Christmas tree jubilee on Friday afternoon.

A hyperbolic rumour to the effect that the Riverdale Jeweller had the flu we understand has been circulated remote from this vicinity by some hostile hoodlum of the Bolshevyk kind.

However, we are pleased to be in a position to state this report is entirely fictitious, and a reward of $25 is offered to anyone furnishing information such as will lead to the capture of the party who originated the jingoism.—J. Boyd.

Kimberley (Special to The Standard.) Mild weather—like spring. Mr. Dalton Ferguson has ploughed several acres during the past week.

Mr. T. B. Carruthers, of Spurling, Man., is visiting with his mother, Mrs. T. Carruthers, of our burg.

The Christmas Tree and entertainment in the Methodist church was a success financially and otherwise. Rev. Lane presided. At the close of program Santa Claus appeared in the person of Master Harold Wallace.

Mr. Ed. Pawcett, of East Mountain, sold a spring turkey to J. A. Stuart for which he received over eight dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ellis, of Colliwood, is spending the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ellis. Victor is principal of the technical school in that town; why not have one in Markdale?

Mr. Vernon Bishop, of the S. P. S., Toronto, is home for the Christmas holidays.

Walters Falls (Special to The Standard.) A few ladies of the Women's Institute packed a bale of 55 pairs of socks at Miss G. Gray's, to send to the Belgians.

The following ladies did the knitting: Mrs. J. Reid, 10 pairs; Mrs. A. Ferris, 9 pairs; Miss Oneale Cathrae, 2 pairs; Mrs. W. J. Cathrae, 4 pairs; Miss Lucy Delerage, 3 pairs; Mrs. William King, 4 pairs; Mrs. J. Bowler 1 pair; Miss Alice Ward, 2 pairs; Mrs. R. H. Olmstead, 2 pairs; Mrs. Miss Ethel Johnson, 7 pairs; Mrs. J. Speck, 1 pair; Mrs. T. G. Proulx, 1 pair; Mrs. G. Seabrook, 2 pairs; Mrs. S. Marshall, 5 pairs; Mr. King, 2 pairs; Miss G. Gray, 2 pairs; Miss N. Thom, 1 pair; Miss M. Atheson, 1 pair; Mrs. R. Brown, 1 pair; Mrs. A. Dixon, 1 pair; Mrs. George Reid, 1 pair.

The Directors of the Agricultural Society held their annual banquet arising from the ticket contest on Wednesday, December 18th, at the home of Mr. Arthur King. After the usual feast of goose and other good things, a splendid program was rendered of songs, duets, speeches, Mr. Sam Marshall, the President of the Society, acting as toast master. One special item of the programme was the presentation by Mr. Robt. Howey, to Thos. Findlay, Secretary of the Society, of a new hat, won by him for selling tickets. Mr. R. Howey, last year, sold 103 tickets, and at the annual meeting promised any member on the board this year a new hat that would sell more tickets than he sold last year, and the Secretary sold 110 tickets, so Mr. Howey put up the hat. Everybody enjoyed the evening and moved a vote of thanks for their hospitality to the Directors and their wives.

PRICEVILLE

(Special to The Standard.) A memorial service for the late Pte. Robert McLean was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, December 15th. Rev. J. A. Matheson, the pastor, conducting the service.

The seat capacity of the main floor was taxed to the limit and the gallery was also called into service.

The Presbyterian S. S. Anniversary as advertised, was held on Friday evening of last week. The several tables loaded with "toine ateing" as Paddy would say, were well patronized, and the ladies as usual certainly fed the multitude.

The load of presents on the Xmas tree were distributed to young and old in the audience and a carefully prepared program was well rendered.

The proceeds were over $86. Then in good time next morning horse and gasoline buggies, rolled into the premises with men and women from prosperous farms in the country and assisted by the village contingent, the men took down platforms, decorations and portable tables, while the ladies washed up the crockery and glass-ware, and last, but not least, they got a few brooms, swept up the usual debris of candies, nutshells and paper galore, and very soon had all the floors and woodwork spic and span, a good act very much appreciated by the caretaker, believe me.

The slump in the city market last week caused some of our buyers to bill out a car of stock until after the holidays.

Some of our citizens are in very poor health: Mr. D. McCormack is wearing away with old age and still confined to his room; Mrs. McDonald, Durham Road East is not so well as her friends and neighbors would desire; Mr. Alf Hinks went last week to Owen Sound hospital in order to undergo another operation; but Dr. Middlebrock decided that an operation would be unwise; Mr. Hinks has the sympathy of his friends and neighbors.

Rev. J. A. Matheson has accepted a call from the Presbyterian congregation at Mono Mills, Ont., and will preach his farewell sermon on the first Sunday in the New Year.

Miss Margaret Tryon, of Faculty of Education, is home for holidays.
