

Every Wage Earner An Investor

Every wage earner can be an investor in gilt-edged securities bearing a high rate of interest without sacrifice or worry.

The plan is so simple and secure that it commends itself to everybody.

All of us spend a portion of our earnings thoughtlessly. It is human nature. Yet most of us would be glad if someone would take the money we fritter away and save it for us, because we find it difficult to save it ourselves.

Make your employer do it by means of War Savings Stamps. Say to him: "I want you to take five per cent. of the money in my pay-envelope each week, and buy me Thrift Stamps. Then with each $4.00 worth of Thrift Stamps buy me a War Savings Stamp. When you have bought each War Savings Stamp, put it in my envelope, for me doing that for a year."

That is all. Your mind is free. You will not miss that 75 cents or that dollar which you have hitherto squandered on trifles.

But at the end of the year you will have a little package of War Savings Stamps, each bearing the $5.00 mark, but which have cost you but a few cents over $1.00 each. These Canada will redeem in 1924.

In May W.S.S. Cost $4.04
In June W.S.S. Cost $4.06

War Savings Stamps can be bought at any bank or post office.

Presentation

There was a rousing presentation party at the home of Mr. James Dunbar on Friday evening of last week to welcome home and honor his gallant soldier son, Lauchie, who served over two and a half years. They were present from Owen Sound, Markdale, Ceylon, Durham, a few from Paris and the rank and file of the township. The weather proved favorably and one of the happiest gatherings to be conceived of took place. There was music galore, bagpipe, organ and violin. Reeve Nichol made an ideal chairman, and after getting the crowd in order called on Mr. Alf. O'Neil who read a most appropriate address, while Mr. George Black presented the hero of the evening with a generous purse of $94.

Lauchie has been in hot spots on a half battle line and made a splendid speech in reply. Excellent rousing patriotic addresses were given by Father Flahaven, T. H. Binne, A. McCaughey and John O'Neil. A very sweet duet was sung by Miss Deherly and Miss McMillan. Thos. McArthur of Ceylon gave a spirited recitation. There was feasting and fun, music and dancing, till the dawn broke.

Obituary

One of the most beloved and loved family where he died. Mr. Heighs was very much respected in the neighborhood in which he lived. In politics deceased was a lifelong Conservative. He married Kathrine Williamson, maiden name was Mary A. O'Brien, of this country with his parents in 1859 settled on a farm in St. Vincent opposite White's schoolhouse. 1855 was wedded to Wm. Smith, of Ohio, the union proving a most happy one and the home they formed on the west black line after their union was noted far and wide for its hospitality. Its neighborly helpfulness and a spirit of progressiveness. To them were born a family of two sons and six daughters as follows.—Ellen, (Mrs. Jos. McLeod,) Bay City, Mich.; Kate (Mrs. D. Sweeney, Traverston); Mary, (Mrs. Ed. Bannan,) Montana; Maggie (Mrs. M. J. Bolger) deceased; Will, Harry Edward and Lizzie, who passed away in the full vigor of youth. For some years she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. D. Sweeney, who has tenderly cared for her and was assisted for the past few months by Mrs. Brennan. The funeral took place on Thursday morning to St. John's, where Rev. Father Flahaven conducted a solemn Requiem Mass. Among those from a distance were Mr. M. J. Bolger (deceased), of Durham, and Mr. Elmer Sweeney, grandson, from Paris Junction.

Mysterious Fire

The fire-fund has again been busy in our midst. On Saturday morning Mr. John O'Neil's barn and stables were discovered completely enveloped in flames and no chance to save three valuable young horses, nor any of the machinery stored therein. Not an hour before being discovered, scores went home from the big Dunbar presentation. It certainly looks like the work of an incendiary. Mr. O'Neil and his young wife got a dreadful shock and the neighborhood is deeply stirred. He is one of our most progressive young farmers. Is gifted with mechanical skill and takes pride in his stock, buildings and farm work. Just a few hours before he made a remarkably eloquent speech at the gathering. Came home about two o'clock and everything was peaceful and quiet. He has a fire insurance, but his loss is heavy. The inconvenience of his loss is back the work of rebuilding well-nigh impossible. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the young couple. Four mysterious fires in our midst in a little over six months calls for quick action on the part of the authorities. There's an intense feeling running through the homes of the surrounding district.

DIED VERY SUDDENLY.

A groom was cast over the community when it became known that Mr. Thos. Heighs had died very suddenly at his home one and a half miles south of the village on Tuesday, May 13th, at noon. Deceased was in his usual health up until took place from acute indigestion. He was in his 77th year, being born in Hampshire, England, in 1841. Coming to this country with his parents in 1859 settled on a farm in St. Vincent opposite White's schoolhouse. In 1855 they removed to Holland township and settled on the farm where he died. Beyond reach of fire

PENNILESS, homeless, with his family almost stripped of clothing, upon the charity of the community for their immediate needs, forced to start all over again. All in one night!

He had gone to bed satisfied with his security and with the gratification of having a home of his own and a tidy little sum tucked away. Truly a man who was making his way in the world!

But, as in one flash, all went. The ravaging flames of a fire had swept it all away. The savings and work of a lifetime gone!

It is the tragic story of the man who does not believe in banking his savings. "It is safer where I can keep my eye on it," he is apt to remark, but when the big blow falls he realizes his folly, too late.

In the Bank of Toronto, money is absolutely safe. There it earns a fair rate of interest; there it is protected by all the resources of a strong national institution.

THE WESTERN FAIR
London, Ontario.

September 6th to 13th

The management of the Exhibition, London, Ontario, is to be congratulated on having secured for the Midway attraction this year the famous Johnny J. Jones Exposition which is, without doubt, the greatest array of all-star feature attractions that has ever been seen with any out-door Amusement-enterprise. This Exposition includes about thirty shows and rides, all of which are of the very best quality. They will require over fifteen hundred feet of frontage to accommodate their shows. This will be something new and different from anything ever presented to Western Fair visitors. The platform attractions will be of a very high order, consisting of Horse Acts, Trained Elephants, Trained Dogs, Monkeys and other animals, also some very high glass platform acts, which will be announced later.

Prize lists, entry forms and all information regarding the Exhibition furnished on application to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, General Offices, London, Ontario.
