JOHN W. FORD

CONSERVATIVE PICNIC AT EUGENIA.

The County Conservative Picnic at Eugenia Park on Thursday, June 26, was a big success and largely attended in spite of the bad condition of the roads as a result of the heavy rains. The event was a most enjoyable one and gave Mr. Lucas substantial reason for confidence in the fidelity of almost lifelong supporters in his home constituency.

The Park place is a natural beauty spot, and the Hydro-Electric Commission has made it famous. The Beaver River has been dammed there, and a series of lake-formed quite as big as Toronto Bay and much more beautiful, with the natural vegetation of the park, and mixed hardwood foresting the glistening sheet of water as a jewel—which it certainly is in the economic sense. The old river course is over a limestone bed, and in the dam to the falls, a distance of a quarter of a mile. At the falls the scene is one of astonishing beauty and natural wonder. The river rushes over a sheer limestone ledge seventy feet in height into a round rock basin, and disappears in the distance which sinks away for a couple of miles into the deeper defiles of the park, and in the distance rises upon the hills of cultivator uplands that resemble in some way the northern valleys of the Exe in Devon. At the falls the Hydro Commission has enclosed a public park area and named the principal roadway Lucas avenue.

Nomination Meeting Beside the park gate, in the Orange Lodge, Mr. Lucas got his nomination on Thursday. His old supporters were beside him and renewed their obligations. J. R. Fawcett proposed him, and John Tucker, of St. Vincent, seconded the nomination, which was unanimous. Irwin Morrison, who was elected president of the Conservative Association of Centre Grey, is a warm supporter, and Mrs. Albert Miles, who was elected vice-president, told Mr. Lucas the women were with him. Mr. Lucas therefore felt in extra good spirits; but he also felt under the necessity of saying something to put himself and the government right with the farmers. He said it in half joke and whole earnestness, and Premier Hearst followed up the lead by expatiating upon the prodigious representation of agriculture in his government.

The chief point Premier Hearst attempted to score was against Hartley St. Dewart, whose election as Liberal leader he had taken for granted from the world that he had read on the train coming up. He came around it circumspcctly. He first warned the farmers against endangering their cooperative organizations by opening the door to politics. Then he warned of the wiles of partisans who wished to make use of the farmers' organizations, indicating Mr. Dewart as the man who even while he was speaking may have been chosen leader of the provincial Liberals, he said: "This gentleman was elected in Southwest Toronto by the opponents of temperance legislation. He is the avowed leader in the legislature of the anti-prohibition forces. This gentleman wants the U.F.O. and labor to help the Liberals defeat the government." It was about 3.30 when the real political meeting commenced. Premier Hearst, Hon. I. B. Lucas, Attorney General of Ontario, Hon. Dr. Cody, Minister of Education; Hon. Dr. Jamieson, Speaker of the Legislature; C. S. Cameron, M.P.P., Owen Sound; W. D. Cargill, M.P.P., South Bruce; and W. B. Allen, M.P.P., West Simcoe, were amongst the speakers. Mr. Morrison, Reeve of Osprey, was chairman of the meeting and introduced the speakers, the first of whom was the Hon. I. B. Lucas, representative of Centre Grey in the Legislature. Mr. Lucas said that considering the rain of the morning that there was a decidedly good sized crowd, in fact it looked to him like a great Conservative picnic party, all those present looking like good Tories. He did not speak at any length, but in the course of his remarks he made a flat denial of the rumors that have been spread about the country stating that he had said that the U.F.O. were Bolsheviks. He was very emphatic in his statement that he had never said anything that would lead anyone even with the wildest imagination to construe such a meaning. At the convention earlier in the day he had received the unanimous nomination of the Convention which was composed mostly of farmers. He announced that he was in the field. Safe, safe government was very necessary now and he looked to the rural constituencies to be the bulwark against Bolshevism. He was warmly applauded when he concluded.

Premier Hearst's address was eloquent. He reviewed the war record of his government and asked for support on that ground. His reception was a most hearty one and the crowd joined in ringing cheers, led by Mr. Jules Brazil, when he concluded. In his speech he eulogized the members of his Cabinet, claiming that it was the best that ever occupied the position in Ontario. He complimented the Conservatives in Centre Grey on having re-nominated Mr. Lucas, stating that they had done themselves honor by so doing. Hon. Dr. Jamieson was also the subject of a verbal tribute from his leader, and Mr. C. S. Cameron he characterized as the able and eloquent member for North Grey, and with three such as these it was no wonder, he said, that Grey County had retained three Conservative members. Whatever had been done by his government, had been done because of the fact that he had the backing of such fine types of men.

THRIFT STILL QUITE NECESSARY.

The need of continued thrift on the part of Canadians is set forth in the following, which is opening paragraph in the May Commercial Letter issued by the Canadian Bank of Commerce.—"The need for personal and community thrift is as great now as in the black days of 1913 when it was realized that the most stringent self-denial was requisite to enable us to meet the demands of the Government for more and yet more money with which to carry on the war. The great dread which hung over all a year ago has happily been removed, but we still have a duty to perform, and it is essential that it should be faced. It is necessary to carry on public works and that will aid production, such as roads and railways, on a considerable scale, in order to provide employment for the workers. We have also a heavy burden of interest imposed on us by the war, and we have great obligations to those who were maimed as well as to the dependents of those who laid down their lives for our security. These obligations can be met only by a continuance of self-denial on the part of every one in the Dominion."

The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Mainie Christopher, of Toronto. Her gown was of apple green with georgetta hat and glycerine feathers. Her corsage was America Beauty sweet peas. The groom was supported by the bride's brother, Mr. Daniel McCarthy. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a pearl and emerald brooch, and to the groomsman a pearl tie pin. During the signing of the Register, Mrs. M. Sullivan rendered the wedding music. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the bride's home, where a wedding breakfast was served to their relatives and friends, at which Rev. Father Flahaven proposed a toast to the bride and groom. A very enjoyable day was spent with games and music until the wee small hours of the morning. The bride and groom were the recipients of numerous gifts and cheques which show the high esteem in which they are held by their many friends.

GREAT DAY FOR CANADA.

Dominion Day, 1914, is the fifty-second and greatest anniversary of Confederation. Canada is partner in the sacrifices and partaker in the strength of the British Empire. Each Dominion Day since 1867 has found Britain threatened with possibility of danger from a hostile combination that had Russia or Germany for its centre. Britain is no longer menaced either by Germany, Russia or any other power. Britain is no longer dependent upon alliances of unfriendly nations. The British Empire is stronger and the Canadian nation is stronger than at any previous Dominion Day season in Canada's history.

You can add to this investment as often as you have $4.00, and in 1924 the Government will pay $5.00 for every War Savings Stamp you buy now for $4.00 odd. This is the biggest opportunity ever afforded to wage earners to become investors. Make Your Savings Serve You and Serve Your Country—Invest Them in War Savings Stamps.
