

NEWS FROM SURROUNDING TOWNSHIPS BY STAFF REPORTERS

RIVERDALE

(Special to The Standard.) Haying operations are in full swing. Mrs. D. Torrie, of Harkaway, was a pleasant caller in this vicinity on Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. E. Walker visited the latter's parental home at Dundalk recently. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burns, of Collins' Inlet, spent a few days at the latter's parental home here last week. Mr. D. Torrie, of Harkaway, was on a business trip to this vicinity on Friday. Pte. Ralph Johnston spent over the weekend with Faversham friends. Mr. and Mrs. G. Nesbitt and family accompanied by Misses Fanny and Margaret Cowan, visited friends in Meaford suburbs recently. Mr. E. Truman, of Toronto, is holidaying with friends in this vicinity. We are pleased to report that Mr. Emerson Richardson, who recently underwent an operation in Toronto for his knee, is progressing favorably and has returned home. Mrs. G. Burrell, of Markdale, spent a few days at her parental home here last week. Statute labor has been accomplished for 1919 in this locality, and our scientific pathmasters, Messrs. E. R. Kline, Clark, Thompson and Cutting have made a conspicuous improvement in the condition of the roads on Main Street and 2nd Ave. E. & W. In reference to the pleasant patriotic event recently held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Davidson, the names of the guests of honor, Ptes. Sam Cowan and Bert Merrifield, were regret to say, quite unintentionally suppressed. What is acknowledged by several of the pioneers of Grey County, to be the longest stalk of hay ever seen in this or any other locality north of Ohio, was discovered in Riverdale last week. The stalk measured over seven feet in length with a head of ten inches. We haven't heard anything about the big bumper crop at Wodehouse this season—did the twin calves eat it? A quiet wedding transpired at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wiley on Tuesday evening, July 8th, 1919, when their oldest daughter, Louise, was united in matrimony to Mr. Matthew Devitt, of Rocklyn, by the Rev. A. P. Stanley, of Markdale. The accomplished young bride, who had been professionally engaged in our public school for a number of years, is one of the most highly esteemed and popular young ladies of Riverdale, and we join in extending cordial congratulations and best wishes to the platonically young couple for a happy and prosperous future.

PRICEVILLE

(Special to The Standard.) Our village trustees are improving some of the streets with grader and also a good coat of gravel. We understand that The Standard Bank will put in a branch here right away. It will be located in the McArthur building opposite Hotel. This is what the people of the district have been wishing for—so now don't forget to support it. Professor Bert and Mrs. Ross, of the city, are holiday guests with Mr. and Mrs. D. McLachlan. Mrs. Gibson, of Toronto, is visiting her father, Dr. McIntyre. Louise Watson, teacher at Eugenia, is holidaying at home here with mother and other relatives. Real Estate Deal.—The Braithwaite house and lots on Durham St. was put up at auction last week, the bidding was brisk, but one of the Karstedt Bros. secured it. This is a nice property for a residence. A memorial service was held in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning for Pte. McIntosh, who was seriously wounded at the front and lay in the hospital many months and at last died at Liverpool, England, on his way home. There was no service in the Methodist Church last Sunday morning in order that the congregation might attend the memorial service in the other church. Mrs. Kate McDonald lost a valuable cow week before last. She slipped on the side hill and broke her thigh bone and had to be killed. From the quiet and apparently improved manners of the Riverdale scribe during the last year or so we thought perhaps he had smuggled into the U.F.O., but last week we noticed the old political bristles rise again—adverse ballot, eh?

CHERRY GROVE

(Special to The Standard.) County road work has been suspended until after haying. The majority of our citizens attended the celebration in Markdale on the 12th. Mrs. Walter Ricketts and children arrived from Hamilton recently, and are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. House. Mr. Ran. Bradey was on a business trip to Collingwood last week. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bradey, of Mimico, visited with the former's brother, Mr. Bert. Bradey, for a few days last week. Mrs. J. W. Bradey and daughter, Thelma, of Regina, who are on an extended visit with friends about Markdale and vicinity, spent a day or two at Mr. Bert Bradey's last week. The W. I. convened at the home of Mrs. Donnelly on the 8th inst. Miss Abercrombie, of Kimberley, gave an interesting talk on "Medical Inspection" and "First Aid" in public schools, which was enjoyed by all present. The Secretary gave a report of the receipts and expenditures in connection with the recent garden party, when it was found that the net proceeds were $40. It was decided that a letter of condolence be sent to Mrs. W. J. Ward, a sick member, on the recent death of her beloved mother, Mrs. Westwick, the August meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Bert Bradey. Cherry Grove baseball club evidently means business, as they may be observed practising occasionally. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bradey and Mr. W. B. Gregory motored in the latter's car to Mount Forest suburbs on Monday, where they spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fairbairn. Mr. G. W. Cooper, Mount Dennis, was in the burg last week on business. We are informed that the school

sunk, black circles and pale cheeks—I was restored to health by the Favorite Prescription of Dr. Pierce. So write many women changed too in looks, for after taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the skin becomes clear, the eyes brighter, the cheeks plump. Druggists sell it in tablets or liquid. It's a woman's best tonic, made from wild roots. HAMILTON, Ontario.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription helped me greatly at the turn of life. I commenced to have heat flashes and dizzy spells and became nervous and run-down. These conditions very quickly left me after I commenced with the 'Favorite Prescription.' I took several bottles of it and truly believe that I owe my good health of today to the medicine I took and the care exercised at that trying time."—Mrs. Rosanna Smith, 64 Bay Street, S.

board has engaged a teacher in the person of Miss R. G. Hutchinson, of Kimberley, who will enter on duty after summer holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Monte motored down from Owen Sound on Saturday and were guests of the latter's aunt, Mrs. Struthers, over Sunday.

IRISH LAKE

(Special to The Standard.) Dave Sydes and Will Wilson had a lively chase after a bunch of strayed yearlings the first of the week. Hither and thither over the highlands and lowlands of Old Glenelg, and after a day of fast driving and mental anxiety succeeded in rounding up their quarry about midnight at old Fardin's corner. To-night (Monday) we expect to give Arthur Connelly and his war bride a right royal reception, but the burning of their barn this morning dampens to some extent the former ardor of their well wishers. Messrs. T. Sullivan, P.C., of Toronto, and Bro. James L., were up for a few days last week. Tom returned to the city, but James remains for a few days. This community is stirred to its very depths, again, two more barns having been burned by Old Satan's best worker. It looks like a clean-up of the entire countryside. Every means at our command should be brought forth to bring the perpetrator to justice. The Irish Lake scribe's aunt, Mrs. Pedlar, of Toronto, called on us and spent last Thursday here.

Interesting old gentleman, who has been preaching fifty years and is one of seven brothers in the ministry. Reany—MacPhail—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McPhail near Ceylon, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday, July 9th, when their second daughter, Gertha, became the bride of Mr. Meridith Reany of Port Elgin. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, wearing a satin charmeuse dress and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations and took her place beside the groom while the wedding music was being played by Mr. Bob Black, cousin of the bride. The marriage was performed by Rev. J. A. Matheson, B. A., of Mono Mills, recently of Priceville. After the ceremony lunch was served to the immediate relatives who witnessed the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Reany left on the afternoon train for Belleville and Montreal, the bride wearing a navy French serge with Georgette blouse and Leghorn hat. Among the handsome gifts was a mink cape, the gift of the groom. On their return they will reside in Southampton, Ont. Many from here attended the Orangeville celebration at Markdale on the 12th. Several lodges passed through and favored us with stirring fife and drum music. Rev. A. McVicar was absent on Tuesday doing committee work in Orangeville Presbytery. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Holland leave this week to spend the school holidays in Toronto and nearby points. Mrs. Holland, sr., who has visited here, returns home with them. Miss Thayer, of Elmwood, visited her cousins, the Misses Karstedt, last week. Mrs. Jas. McBurney, nee Elsie Eardhouse and two children, of Edmononton, are visiting Mrs. F. G. THE WESTERN FAIR London, Ontario September 6th to 13th

The management of the Exhibition, London, Ontario, is to be congratulated on having secured for the Midway attraction this year the famous John J. This Exposition includes about thirty shows and rides, all of which are of the very best quality. They will require over fifteen hundred feet of frontage to accommodate their shows. This will be something new and different from anything ever presented to Western Fair visitors. The platform attractions will be of a very high order, consisting of Horse Acts, Trained Elephants, Trained Dogs, Monkeys and other animals, also some very high class platform acts, which will be announced later. Prize lists, entry forms and all information regarding the Exhibition furnished on application to the Secretary, A. M. Holland, 100 Queen St. W., London, Ontario.
