LEAGUE OF NATIONS TO BE ESTABLISHED

Ratification by Three Chief Powers and Germany Will Suffice.

London, Sept. 14.—It is possible that the League of Nations may be established in accord with the requirements of the peace treaty in a fortnight's time. So says the lobby correspondent of the Daily News. Great Britain is waiting for action by her dominions before King George's assent to the ratification of the treaty is given. But the Canadian Parliament has now passed the necessary resolution to ratify, the Australian Parliament is about to take the matter up immediately, and South Africa and New Zealand have already acquiesced. The ratification debate in the French Chamber of Deputies is expected to end by the beginning of next week, after which the debate in the Senate will probably consume five or six days. In Italy the Parliamentary commission which has been examining the treaty has reported in its favor by a considerable majority, and ratification by Italy is expected without further delay. Thus ratification by three of the chief powers, Great Britain, France and Italy, is imminent, which, with the German ratification, will suffice to establish the League of Nations under the terms of the treaty.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT APPROVES PEACE TREATY

A despatch from Ottawa says:—The House of Commons has formally approved the terms of the treaty of peace between the Allied and associated powers and Germany and of the League of Nations covenant. The approval of both Houses of Parliament has thus now been given and the Government is in a position to advise the King to ratify the pact in the name of the Dominion.

KING APPEALS TO BRITISH EMPLOYERS

His Majesty's Plan to Secure Employment For Returned Soldiers.

London, Sept. 14.—A new plan to secure an absorption of the 100,000 still unemployed or disabled army, navy and air force men into the industrial ranks appears to-day in the shape of a royal proclamation, in which the King, holding it "a dear obligation upon all" to acknowledge the sacrifices of these men in securing a victorious peace, charges all employers of labor to bind themselves in high and solemn obligation to find employment for as many as possible.

The names of such employers shall be inscribed upon what shall be styled "The King's National Roll." The employer thus inscribed will be entitled to use on his correspondence an official device, "a seal of honor," indicating the share he has taken in the national obligation.

GIVES ORGAN RECITAL ON EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY

A despatch from Sandy, Bedfordshire, says:—Mrs. Mary Kemp, the oldest woman church organist in England, and probably in the world, celebrated her eightieth birthday by giving a recital in the parish church.

Her fingers are flexible, her eyesight marvellous, and she played the great masters with the vim of a woman half her age.

Her grandfather, Sam Taylor, the village saddler and harnessmaker, taught singing to the countryside, also the clarionet and 'cello. She was a favorite pupil of James Turle, late organist and choirmaster of Westminster Abbey.

CANADA WILL INVITE BELGIAN KING AND QUEEN

A despatch from Ottawa says:—The Canadian Government will extend an official invitation to the King and Queen of Belgium to visit Canada incident to their forthcoming visit to the United States.

DON'T LET GO.

A community without CO-OPERATION is like a boatman who has lost his oar. You can't imagine a more HELPLESS case. Unable to GET ANYWHERE, there is no COURSE but to DRIFT with the ebb and flow of circumstance. Once LOST, it is hard, indeed, to RECOVER the oar. But surely WE don't have to get into this DANGEROUS plight. It's our OWN fault if we DO. Co-operation, like rowing a boat, must be studied and learned. We would keep from DRIFTING through PRACTICE. The PRACTICED oarsman never lets go of the oar. And if we must practice CO-OPERATION. Let's GET into practice and KEEP in practice. Let us PULL TOGETHER in everything that means PROGRESS for our Home Town. It's a case of SINK or SWIM, TOGETHER."

EDMONTON GREETS ROYAL GUES

H.R.H. Laid Cornerstone of the G.W.V.A. Memorial Hall.

A despatch from Edmonton, Alta., says:—With cheering thousands out to welcome him in spite of the threatening weather and the streets still wet from an early morning rain, his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales arrived in Edmonton at 9 o'clock Friday morning. He was met on the C.P.R. station platform by Lieutenant-Governor Brett, Premier Charles Stewart, Major Joseph A. Clarke, Brig.-Gen. McDonald, G.O.C. this district, Chief Justice Harvey and Hon. Chas. Mitchell. After shaking hands with those on the platform, the Prince met Captain Scott, D.C.M., of the R.N.W.M.P., commanding the guard of honor supplied by the G.W.V.A. After inspecting the guard he shook hands with Captain Collins, President of the Edmonton Branch of the G.W.V.A., whose members were out fifteen hundred strong to welcome their former comrade-in-arms.

In the afternoon he laid the cornerstone of the G.W.V.A. Memorial Hall and presented medals to a number of veterans.

In the evening he attended a ball in the Parliament Buildings, given by the Lieutenant-Governor, for which more than 2,000 invitations were issued.

The "City of Edmonton" was first to greet the Prince when he opened his eyes Friday morning in the Lea district, 20 miles from Edmonton. Capt. Wilfrid May, D.F.C., rose from the stubble field and circled about the Royal train in his plane, "City of Edmonton." He flew very low for the first thousand yards, close to the train, rising only when he came to fences and trees. His clever expert handling of his plane was the talk of the train during the hour in which he escorted the Royal party into the Provincial Capital.

The cheerful hum of Captain May's propeller was the prelude to the great roar of welcome which went up from thousands of throats when the Royal party finally stepped into the City of Edmonton to receive the loyal greeting of the Edmonton people.

OIL TANKS ABLAZE AT LONG ISLAND

Twenty-Acre Plant Destroyed With Over 111,000,000 Gallons of Crude Oil.

New York, Sept. 14.—With more than 50 persons injured and the damage already done estimated at from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000, weary firefighters to-night still were fighting a threat of further explosions of oil tanks at the scene of the fire which practically wiped out the Stone and Fleming Oil Company's plant in Long Island City yesterday.

Five tanks of crude oil were burning late to-day. Should there be a sudden shift from north to north-east, many additional tanks in plants nearby would be threatened, as well as thousands of tons of oil. The firemen were working in short shifts. So exhausted had they become, that when relieved for a brief rest, they lay in the streets near the fire zone and went fast asleep. The twenty acres of fire-swept territory looked like a scene in war-devastated France or Belgium. Tanks were crumpled up; huge steel girders lay in a tangled mass, few walls were left standing and burning oil continued to flow along the surface of Newton Creek.

The fire, starting early Saturday afternoon from the explosion of an oil tank in the Stone and Fleming Works, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil on Newton Creek, spread over virtually the entire area of the plant, which covers 20 acres and spread to the Columbia Distillery Company's buildings on the same side of the creek; the Peter Cooper Glue Works and American Agricultural Company's plant across the water, and the Green Point bridge.

And So On.

The fond parents had striven valiantly for some considerable time to teach little Effie to say the letter "A." At last the father, giving up in disgust, left the room.

"Now, why don't you say 'A'?" inquired the mother, as she took the child upon her knee.

"Because after I say 'A' father and you will expect me to say 'B.'" was the unexpected reply.

PRINCE RIDES BUCKING BRONCO

Cheered to the Echo by the Cowboys and Cowgirls of Saskatoon.

A despatch from Saskatoon says:—For the first time in the history of Saskatoon, the Heir to the Throne visited here on Thursday and was accorded a welcome which has never before been witnessed in the district, fully 50,000 people, farmers from the districts for miles around, journeying in to pay honor to their future King.

After being publicly received by Mayor F. R. McMillan, his Royal Highness decorated a number of returned soldiers with medals for gallantry. A visit was then paid to the University, where an address was delivered by Sir Frederick Haultain.

Again passing through cheering crowds, his Royal Highness was driven out to the Exhibition grounds, where he witnessed a stampede, something which the Prince had never seen before. A tremendous cheer from fully 20,000 people greeted the Royal party, who witnessed the performance from an especially erected Royal box. Riding bucking broncos, steer-throwing, wild horse riding, lassooing wild horses; all kept the Prince greatly interested. When the performance was over and his Royal Highness was about to leave, he asked permission to ride one of the bucking broncos, and, amid the wildest cheers, the Prince rode down the track, surrounded by cowboys and cowgirls. He then had his photograph taken on the horse, surrounded by his bodyguard.
