It is with sadness we have to chronicle the passing away on Thursday evening, April 1st, of Mrs. J. Hawken, beloved wife of J. Hawken.

Mrs. Hawken was always remarkably strong and healthy and her sudden passing away was a shock to the community. Her illness was of short duration, and despite the best of medical skill and all that kind friends could do the fell destroyer was relentless and her spirit passed over at the early age of thirty-one years and seven months, leaving a husband and young daughter to mourn the loss of a faithful wife and loving mother. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heinbecker of Williamsford, was married to Mr. Hawken about nine years ago and has resided in our neighborhood since. She was a good neighbor and was much respected. The funeral was on Sunday afternoon, April 4th, and the remains were followed to their last resting place in the family plot, by a large concourse of friends and sympathizers. Her pastor, Rev. Mr. Wakefield, officiated at the house and grave. The pall bearers were: A. Barry, L. McLaughlin, A. Roy Ross, W.H. Hawken, Chester Rodman, Cecil Cartwright.
