

NEWS FROM SURROUNDING TOWNSHIPS

BY STAFF REPORTERS

EAST BERKELEY

(Special to The Standard) Quite a few from our burg spent Victoria Day in Markdale and report a good time. Master Gordon and Miss Beulah Steer spent 24th in Meaford. Among Victoria Day visitors were Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver and Agnes Dickson, of Meaford. McDonald, of Toronto, was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Steer. Miss Cassidy was at the home of Kate Madill for Victoria Day. Miss Beulah Steer is visiting at Toronto and Oakville. Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Howard Connell, with others, motored up to Owen Sound and Kemble recently. Everything is looking green, after recent showers. Mr. Nicholson, of Rogovor, was a caller in our burg recently.

UNION HILL

(Special to The Standard.) Mr. A. G. Chisholm, of Chatsworth County road foreman, did business in our burg recently. Engineer Johnston, of Oakville, was in our burg last week. We hear the steam shovel is to arrive here on Tuesday to start operating at the sinkhole again. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sepple and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Semple motored to Owen Sound on Saturday to visit their friends there. Mr. Fred Grassing spent the week end at his parents' home near Moggie. Mr. George Dawson, of Eureka, was a pleasant visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clark. Messrs. Garfield, McFadden and Earl Brown last week took a pleasure trip to Owen Sound. Mr. Abe Hannah is having his large barn re-shingled. Messrs. Tom Wiggins and Joe Black, of Berkeley, have the contract.

TRAVERTON

(Special to The Standard.) June, the beautiful! May her days linger. There is no let up to the rush of farm work. Miss Annie Young, nurse, of Edmonton, is home for a rest and a holiday trip. Mr. Will Swaney has purchased a Chevrolet car and is able to handle her quite skillfully already. There is a bunch of good fellows coming at Haywards Falls. Mrs. Jos. Haggart, Mrs. W. Irwin, Mrs. Rob Henry, Messrs. Irwin Henry and John Gardner, of Licknow vicinity, were guests at the Edwards home the first day of the week. The two former ones spent their girlhood days on the farm on which No. 5 School is situated and recalled many happy incidents of those bygone years. Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Henry, of Flesherton, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stacey, of Durbin, gave a social Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson and son, Cameron, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Edgar, of a nearby town, of Mossburn, were guests at W. J. Green's home the day last week. Miss Mary Haste, of the R. Simpson Co. store, was the guest of a couple of days visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. E. Peart. Misses Muriel and Jennie Beaton came home from Toronto a week ago, so as to give assistance in providing for the big barn raising that takes place at their place on Wednesday of this week. Miss Pearl Whitaker, of Port Arthur, is visiting among her kindred, Moffat, McClocklin, and Edwards families. There is some fun going when she is in a home. Sometime ago Mr. Wm. Taylor purchased a seven-horse-power gasoline engine and a buzz saw outfit and is going to test its good points some of these warm days. Mrs. G. Blair has returned from her outing, much improved in health. Eleye autos were standing outside of Zion's gate on Sunday and the church was well filled. Under the gifted speaking of Rev. Mr. Aird, of Mulock, the services in the North Glenelg Baptist church are growing deeply in interest and large number are attending. Misses Jessie and Katybel Black spent the weekend with Miss Violet Palfie. Spencer Edwards has completed his two months service with Mr. Hugh McArthur, and is this week with Mr. Duncan McLean, of Aberdeen. Mr. Robert Millburn, of Durham, well known and highly respected throughout the township, was laid to rest in Zion's Acre on Friday afternoon. He was born in Durham Co., England, 60 years ago, and when ten years of age came to Canada, the family settling near Brantford. Twenty-nine years ago he wedded Miss Esther, part of this neighborhood, and for ten years they resided near Brantford. Nineteen years ago they bought the Hall Farm north of Durham, selling out two years ago and purchased a fine home in Durham. He has suffered for some weeks with ulcerated stomach, and passed away on Wednesday morning. Besides his sorrowing partner, he leaves a half-brother, Mr. John Millburn, who, with his wife and daughter, were up to the funeral. Mr. Millburn was a man of sterling honor and honesty, a member of Durham Methodist church, and his pastor, Rev. Mr. Cole, had charge of the services in the home and at the graveside. Among the friends present from a distance we observed Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson and family, of Hanover. Over forty fair ones were present at Zion on Monday afternoon in attendance at the midsummer meeting of the Women's Institute. Mrs. F. W. Watt, of Toronto, was the speaker, and a very pleasant-voiced speaker she proved. Her subject was "Helps for Mothers and Daughters." Sweet solos were sung by Miss Violet Palfie and Miss Janet E. Marshall.

WANDELEUR

(Special to The Standard.) Miss Eason, of Toronto, is the guest of her friend, Mrs. Will Buchanan. She sang a well-rendered solo in the church on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Boland visited friends in Markdale recently. Mr. and Mrs. Porter Beard and family motored over from Flesherton and spent a day with friends here. Mr. Jos. Buchanan and family received word on Saturday of the death of Mrs. Buchanan's father, Mr. Reid, of Chatham, E. His one-hundredth year. Mr. Buchanan, George and Lillian left to attend the funeral. Vandeleur Baseball Club met one evening recently and elected the following officers: Hon. Pres. Mr. Sam Gilbert, President; Chas. Boland, Manager and Secretary-Treasurer; J. P. Graham, Captain; Elmer Warding. The annual meeting of the Vandeleur Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Brodie last Wednesday afternoon when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres. Mrs. Sam Gilbert; Vice-Pres. Miss T. Buchanan; Sec.-Treas. Mrs. Will Hutchinson; Director, Mrs. McGee.

HOLLAND CENTRE

(Special to The Standard.) Mrs. Brown, who has been visiting friends in the village, left for her home in Toronto on Saturday.

The U.F.O. shipped in a car of salt last week, also shipped out a car of potatoes and a car of live stock. Mrs. Roulston went to Toronto on Saturday last. Section Foreman John Telford and men, of Chatsworth, assisted Foreman Murdoch laying steel one day last week. Mrs. Doyle, who has been visiting friends here, left for Chatsworth on Monday. Mr. David Gardner, District Master of Holland, Orange District Lodge made his official visit to Holland Centre Lodge on Monday evening. The arrangement of this place intend going to Owen Sound on July 12th.

TEMPLE HILL

(Special to The Standard.) The long-looked-for nice weather has come at last and it is with pleasure that we welcome it. Miss Eva Quinton is assisting Mrs. Ross Gordon with her housecleaning. Mrs. H. Miller left for her home in the West last Tuesday, after spending the winter here. Rev. and Mrs. Lee and children, of Pinkerton, are renewing acquaintances here. Miss Grace Breadner, of Owen Sound, was home over the holiday, but on account of an attack of tonsillitis was unable to be out. Mr. Elgin Sparling, of Toronto, is visiting under the parental roof. We believe that our Garden Party will be held on the first Wednesday in July, so please keep the date in mind.

ROCKLYN

(Special to The Standard.) Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Lee and children, of Pinkerton, visited friends in this vicinity last week. Mr. John Yeadell spent a few days last week in Toronto.
