"Twas a pleasure to have a brief call lately from Mrs. Robt. English, son Carter and daughter, Mrs. Robt. Beattie, of "Deer Park Farm." They were using their new Ford Sedan, which is a beauty.

Mr. Thos. Timmins lost a valuable seven-year-old grey mare on Friday morning last. A post mortem evinced clearly that her death was due to bots and worms.

The barn-raising at Mr. John Beaton's on Wednesday of last week was one of the most successful and happy incidents that have ever taken place in this section. The day was a beauty, the crowd a large one; the fair sex outnumbering the men and Mr. Harry Heft and his men had done their work so perfectly that there wasn't a hitch in the whole building. Messrs. John McGrath and Chas. Kennedy were chosen Captains and the race was a dandy—both parties shouting victory in the same instant. Mrs. Beaton and her assistants had piles of dainty edibles and the supper was one of the happiest hours of the day.

The barn was up complete at 6:30, so the boys enjoyed a good game of baseball and the fairies more thoroughly enjoyed the whirls of the may dance under the witchery of the moonbeams.
