PRICEVILLE

(Special to The Standard)

The crops look very promising in this district.

Those who attended the P.E.O. picnic on the 25th June spent a very pleasant day at Priceville.

The majority of those who were able to go to Priceville returned to Owen Sound on other night.

The P.E.O. picnic was a great success. Some food was prepared because a car could not be hired for a low price.

Donald Tryon, of Detroit, and Miss Margaret, teacher near Windsor, enjoyed their trip. Friday of last week to spend a few days with their father, G. W. Tryon.

A number of families, all near relatives, gathered from various points in these adjoining counties, and met at Priceville, consisting of Hink's, McCraig's, McLeod's, McMillan's, Clark's, and others, over fifty set around the table in the Hydro Park to lunch on Dominion Day, an ideal day for such an outing, no dust, not too much sunshine, rugged scenery and wonderful engineering constructions to please the eye.

Commissioner Barnett is grading and graveling a portion of the Owenline, Artemesia and Glenelg.

Service in the Methodist church was withdrawn on account of the evangelistic services at the Salem appointment seven miles out.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walden visited Toronto last of the week. Mrs. Walden is remaining for a few weeks.

Dr. Ed. Mathers, of Elgin, Mich., who is veterinary surgeon in Markdale, is on a visit to the Markdale town.
