As early as 1882, State deputation from Ohio visited the Canadian National Exhibition looking for pointers. They have been coming from various States ever since, many of the big fairs across the line being modelled after Toronto.

Mr. Bert Burrell, one of the workmen on Mr. Wm. Neely's special gang on the railroad, certainly had a very narrow escape from death Saturday evening. While returning to Markdale, he was on the first of three jugs in a stretch, heavily laden with ment, and speeding right along. In some way he fell off, with the result that the second hand-car passed over him and was derailed, while the third stopped on him. He was released from his perilous position and was rendered first-aid by the men, then rushed home and the Dr. called. He was badly cut, bruised and shaken up, but seems to be recovering very favorably. It is certainly a miracle how he escaped death.

Miss Mae McCarthy, of Detroit, is home on a visit.

Wodehouse Farmers' Club will meet in the Schoolhouse 1st, Thursday evening in each month.

Mrs. Dean, of Toronto, visited her husband, relieving agent at the C.P.R., the guests of Mrs. P. McNally.

The attendance of 1,201,000 in 13 days at the Canadian National Exhibition last year was greater than ever attained by the big world's fairs at Paris, London, Chicago, San Francisco, etc., in the same number of consecutive days.

Markdale FALL FAIR PRIZE LISTS

have been printed and are in the hands of J. S. SHEPHERDSON, Secretary.

Mr. John McGruther, who came home from New Jersey last autumn to be with his father during his last illness, remained since with his mother and has been a real comfort as well as helper during her bereavement. Recently he persuaded his mother to take a little outing with him and they visited Toronto, Niagara Falls and Muskoka. This was Mrs. R. McGruther's first visit to any of these places, and she surely enjoyed the well-earned outing.

HARKAWAY

(Special to The Standard)

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilson and Marion Dudgeon, of Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Binns over the weekend.

Messrs. L. D. Binns and Joe Mills visited with Chatsworth friends recently.

Master Harold and Miss Edna Lyon, are holidaying with Kemble friends.

Mr. W. J. Lyons raised his straw barn last week. Mr. F. Wiggins, contractor.

COOPER--ORR

A wedding of considerable importance is being solemnized in Toronto to-day, Wednesday, August 18, 1920. Mr. T. Stewart Cooper, B.S.A., of Markdale, Agricultural Representative for Grey County, and Miss E. M. Orr, daughter of Mrs. Adam Orr, of Toronto, being the contracting parties.

The ceremony is being performed in St. Leonard's (Anglican) Church, North Toronto, at two o'clock, by the Rev. Mr. Carpenter. Miss Z. May Cooper, cousin of the groom, is the bridesmaid, while Mr. James Orr, brother of the bride, assists in the ceremony, the bride being given away by her cousin, Dr. McBride.

Following the ceremony a reception is being held at the home of the bride's mother, 153 Woburn Ave., after which the happy couple leave on their honeymoon trip to the Thousand Islands. On their return they will take up residence on Mark Street, Markdale, in the home Mr. Cooper recently purchased from Mrs. W. A. Armstrong.

Mr. Cooper is certainly a fine type of man, a worker in every sense of the word, intelligent and energetic, and judging from the remarks of some of the most prominent progressive farmers in this community, they consider themselves most fortunate in having the services of such a valuable man as Mr. Cooper.

The Standard joins in extending a hearty welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper to Markdale—Congratulations and best wishes.

J. LUCAS, Village.
