Buying and Feeding Feeder Sheep.

Success in buying and feeding lambs depends upon the man who buys and feeds them. A year ago I was talking with a feeder who was just looking for some lambs. He told me that he never purchased the year before, but before they started down. He waited until they struck the bottom and then picked another load to [illegible]. He did not like the idea of just breaking even, but thought it the best and most economical way. The [illegible] have been three times [illegible]
