Owen Sound Courts Have Light Sentences.—The only criminal case to come up at the Fall Assizes beginning here next Wednesday, September 29th, is that of Hugh McLean, Beatty-Bevy of Collingwood township, who is charged with arson. Mc-Lean is charged with setting fire to his house and its contents near Ravenna, and to his automobile, and then trying to collect insurance.
Crown Attorney Dyre of Owen Sound, who is the Crown Prosecutor, is asking for an adjournment until the December sessions, so there will really be no criminal cases to come before Mr. Rose here, so far as is known.
There are no civil cases either, so Grey County has very nearly a clean bill this fall.
Anglican Church Notes.
Morning Service..... 11 a.m.
Sunday School..... 2.30 p.m.
Evening service..... 7 p.m.
The annual Thanksgiving services on September 12th were well attended and the Thankoffering was liberal.
The Rev. F. E. Powell, Rector of St.
James Church, Toronto, was the preacher at both morning and evening service. The church was suitably decorated for the occasion. Appropriate music was rendered by the organ. The usual thankofferings were very gratifying.
Rev. Mr. Horsford, of Burford, Ont., a former rector here, who with his wife and daughter, is on a three weeks holiday in town, preached in Christ Church Sunday evening.
Methodist Church Notes.
A week ago Monday night the League was in charge of Misses Mina Heard and Marie Walker. Mrs.
March gave a most interesting talk on the Indians near Weyburn, Sask.
Thursday night a large attendance was present at Gospel Band. Mr.
Howard, the President, conducted the meeting. A duet was sung by Misses Verde, Freeman and Ellen Perkins.
Five Fleshtown Gospel Band members were present and were given a hearty welcome. Dr. Murray and Mr.

Holland sang a duet and Mr. Holland gave a short helpful address.
Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Belle-by is kindly giving her home from three to five o'clock for the W. M.S. regular monthly meeting.
Mrs. Rutherford, of Owen Sound, will be present and give an address.
This will be one of the best meetings of the year and all the ladies of the congregation and their friends are invited to be present.
Wednesday evening the Circle will meet at Mrs. Cook's. Mrs. Rutherford will be present at the meeting.
Thursday night prayer meeting in charge of the pastor.
Don't forget to bring a generously filled basket of good things for Fair Day Dinner and Tea.
The S. S. service Sunday morning was well attended, every class being well represented. Mr. W. J. Howes, the Superintendent, and Mr. W. L.
Young, the Sec. Treas., assisted the Pastor in the service. The afternoon found the School Room full and an excellent program was presented.
Mrs. Heard and Mrs. Alex. Irwin each gave two excellent papers on S. S. work. Choruses were given by Mr.
Alex. Irwin's class, Mrs. Erskine's class, and Mrs. W. Wiley's class. Mr.
Hockley's class, Mrs. Foster's and Mrs. H. D. Irwin's gave scripture readings—"Call to Worship," "The Lost Sheep" and "The Good Shepherd," and bringing others to Jesus, respectively. Mr. and Mrs. McEad-den sang a duet. Mr. Howard gave a reading. Irwin Armstrong recited a short poem. Everett and Irwin sang a duet. Four little folks from the Primary Class each sang a solo—Ruth Armstrong, Elta Henry, Maxine Lyons and Gordon Hockley.
The Ebenezer Mission Band held a social last Saturday afternoon. A dainty lunch was served and a splendid program given. This Band is a wide-awake organization, under the leadership of Miss Myrtle Freeman.
During the afternoon the Band presented "Miss Alma Sewell" with a Hymn book, "The Ladies' Aid presented Mrs. W. H. Sewell with a set of silver spoons. Mr. and Mrs. Sewell are leaving for their new home near New London soon.

Mrs. Wm. Hill last Thursday afternoon.

LENETA IRENE WELLS
It is with deep regret we have to chronicle the death of little Leneta Irene Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wells, of Markdale, who passed away on September 22nd at the early age of 12 years.
Although she had not been in good health for some time previous to her death, that the end was so near was little thought, and her death came, not only as a sore bereavement to her parents, brothers and sisters, but as a shock to the whole vicinity.
The funeral took place at Markdale Public Cemetery on Thursday and was very largely attended, the public school pupils attending in a body.
The sympathy of the whole community extended to Mr. and Mrs.
Wells and family.
SUDDEN DEATH OF
ANGUS PICKET.
Word of the death of Mr. Angus Picket came as a terrible shock to Markdale citizens last Wednesday, and especially to Mrs. Picket, who was here on a visit with Mr. and Mrs.
Kolly and family at the Greave House and with other relatives in the suburbs.
In consultation with one of deceased relatives, we have gathered information to the effect that while the deceased was in the act of shaving at his home, 22 Greave Road, Toronto, it is supposed he was overcome by the fumes of escaping gas, and death resulted. Being alone at the time, his death was not known for some little while, and he was found by a neighbor friend.
The late Mr. Picket was well and favorably known in Markdale and district. He was married only last spring to Miss Ryan, of Glenelg, who survives, and to whom the profound sympathy of a very large circle of friends is extended.
PRESBYTERIAN GUILD
On Monday evening the Presbyterian Guild met in the church. It was the annual meeting, and the following officers were elected:
Hon. President—Mr. Conn.
Vice-President—Mr. Morrison.
1st Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Brown.
2nd Vice-Pres.—H. Leslie.
3rd Vice-Pres.—R. Y. Ricketts.
Treasurer—Miss T. Beard.
Secretary—Miss V. Gordon.
Organist—Miss E. Burnett.
Assistant Organists—G. Beaton and Miss P. Barron.
Convenors of Toppies—Devolational—Mr. Conn.
Literary and Scientific—Mr. Cooper and Mr. C. Walden.
Missionary—Mrs. S. A. Morrison and Miss M. Leslie.
Music, Art and Citizenship—Mrs.
(Rev.) Conn and Mrs. (Dr.) Mc-Arthur.
Social—Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. R. V. Richards, F. Burnside and W. McEad-den.
The meetings during the ensuing year promise to be most helpful and interesting.

AN ENJOYABLE JAUNT.
On Friday and Saturday last Mr. J.
Armstrong made a semi-business trip accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. W.
Rutledge and daughter, Mrs. Chalmers. They motored through Holstein, Mt. Forest, Harrison, Palmerston, Listowel, Brussels and Walton to Seaforth, some 75 miles, returning home on Saturday evening. They touched Mitchell, Dublin and also Durham on the home stretch. Many old acquaintances, as also some relatives were called upon during the trip; the Humphries kicked at Walton, Mr. and Mrs. James Beattie and Mrs. (Rev.) Buggin, also Mrs. Scott, (née Miss Murray), a former assistant teacher in our High School, and Mrs. McTavish, formerly Miss Cora Staples, of Markdale, all now of Sea-forth. Then Mr. and Mrs. S. Whaley, merchants of Harrison, and Mr.
Percy MacFarlane, manager Standard Bank, Harrison, and his good wife and son.
Road improvements between Durham and Mt. Forest are in progress rendering a motor trip over this section quite rough. Another season should witness a decided improve-
