Mr. W. T. R. Preston, Liberal candidate for Durham County, for House of Commons, is by no means singular in the view that Government positions in the outside service such as the Customs, Post Office and Inland Revenue, etc., should be made of the recommendations of the representation of the Riding in Parliament, and naturally the appointee shall be among the electorate of the constituency, such vacancies being now filled by a Civil Service Commission at Ottawa. The question is whether these responsibilities should be assumed by selected representatives of electorate who are responsible to the public or by an autocratic body which is responsible to nobody. The public do not want to brogagate all their rights and privileges to commissions over which they have no control. There are far too many commissions who draw big pay and seldom accomplish much benefit to the country.

Mr. Fowler, Flesherton, who is an expert in dealing with young boys and men, and has had a wide C.M.C.A. experience. The Society is asking for $100 for their work. What have you to offer unto God for His manifold blessings. Remember, the Lord loveth a cheerful giver. Ask His Counsel in deciding your contribution.

MUST BE PAID FOR.—Readers are again reminded that the local papers have found it necessary, in order to intelligently confront conditions that have put many publications out of business, to charge for notices of coming events such as entertainments, notices of meetings, special church services, anniversaries and other such events, women's institute meetings, etc., etc. Cards of thanks and In Memoriam notices are also charged by the line. We mention this again because of having received items of this class by mail without provision being made for payment.

Overcoats, new styles, now in stock at Mercer's.

TO PRESBYTERIANS:—The W.M.S. have their special Thanksgiving services on Sunday next. They have secured the services of the Rev. Mr. Fowler, Flesherton, who is an expert in dealing with young boys and men, and has had a wide C.M.C.A. experience. The Society is asking for $100 for their work. What have you to offer unto God for His manifold blessings. Remember, the Lord loveth a cheerful giver. Ask His Counsel in deciding your contribution.

MUST BE PAID FOR.—Readers are again reminded that the local papers have found it necessary, in order to intelligently confront conditions that have put many publications out of business, to charge for notices of coming events such as entertainments, notices of meetings, special church services, anniversaries and other such events, women's institute meetings, etc., etc. Cards of thanks and In Memoriam notices are also charged by the line. We mention this again because of having received items of this class by mail without provision being made for payment.

Mr. W. T. R. Preston, Liberal candidate for Durham County, for House of Commons, is by no means singular in the view that Government positions in the outside service such as the Customs, Post Office and Inland Revenue, etc., should be made of the recommendations of the representation of the Riding in Parliament, and naturally the appointee shall be among the electorate of the constituency, such vacancies being now filled by a Civil Service Commission at Ottawa. The question is whether these responsibilities should be assumed by selected representatives of electorate who are responsible to the public or by an autocratic body which is responsible to nobody. The public do not want to brogagate all their rights and privileges to commissions over which they have no control. There are far too many commissions who draw big pay and seldom accomplish much benefit to the country.
