HODGKINSON—CURRY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Thomas Curry, Goring, Harrisia, on Wednesday, November 17th, at 4.30 o'clock, when Beatrice M., the eldest daughter of the late Thomas J. and Mrs. Curry, was united in marriage to Mr. Alexander F. Hodgkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hodgkinson, 7th line, Euphrasia, Rev. Mr. Leithox, of Temple Hill performed the ceremony in the presence of about fifty guests. The bride looked very charming in a gown of white satin trimmed with white georgette and crystal beads and wearing a veil with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her only ornament being a wrist watch the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and maidenhair fern. The bride leaning on the arm of her uncle Mr. Fred Curry, entered the room to the strains of the wedding march, which was played by Mrs. Dougal Paterson, and took her place beneath an arch of greens, draperies and a large white wedding bell. Miss Marjorie Curry, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a dress of apricot silk trimmed with skyblue marabon and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations and maiden hair fern. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Howard Hodgkinson. At the signing of the register, Mrs. Fred Curry sang very sweetly "Juanita." After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, which was tastefully decorated in gold and white and chrysanthemums, and partook of a sumptuous wedding dinner. The evening was spent in music and dancing.

The number of beautiful and costly presents showed the esteem in which the young couple were held. The grooms' gift to the bridesmaid was a gold necklace set with doublets and pearls, to the groomsman a gold tie pin set with pearls and to the organist a gold brooch set with pearls.

The happy couple left amid good wishes and showers of confetti for Dundalk and other places and will be at home to their friends after December 15th.

Childrens Savings Accounts

We suggest you start your [illegible] on the road to Thrift by opening Savings Accounts for them, and then encouraging them to increase their balances. A small sum will open the account, and by the time a boy or girl is of age there will be a substantial amount for a start in life. Few things give a young man or woman more assurance than the knowledge that there is always a nest egg in the Bank to fall back on.

We Give Service

The Manager of any Bank of Toronto Branch will gladly take the few minutes necessary for the pleasant duty of opening Savings Accounts for your children.
