The Holland Centre Methodist Sunday School is using its talent. They have organized a six-piece orchestra to commence next Sunday morning at the close of the service. Mrs. John Downey spent the week-end in Chatsworth. The collection in aid of the China Pamphlet Fund last Sunday was $64, making $114, for the Circuit. Miss Eagle of the Canadian Soo is visiting her brother, the Rev. A. J. Eagle. Don't forget the Epworth League services every Tuesday evening at 7:30. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Foster, of Toronto, are, visiting the former's father, who is ill. Song service in the Methodist Church, Berkeley, next Sunday at 7 o'clock.

PRICEVILLE (Special to The Standard.)

The people in general are enjoying the lovely winter weather, but the roads are getting rather bare of snow. The Directors of the Fall Fair are hoping to see a good attendance at the Annual Meeting on Jan. 18th, as the Board has a nice balance on hand and wish to arrange for the best possible show next Fall. At the Annual School Meeting, for the next three years, the Inspector's report showed that both of our teachers were doing excellent work in the school. The ratepayers carried a motion electing the Chairman of School Board as a delegate to School Trustee Convention in Toronto. Mr. J. Jones and wife from Western Canada, are visiting for a while at the latter's old home, Hugh McKinnon and family, South Line. D. McInnes, of Toronto, has been spending a few days with friends and old neighbors in Priceville and Glenelg Township. We had two ministers from Toronto last Sunday, representing the Lord's Day Alliance, but instead of holding services in both churches, the congregation arranged the week previous to hold a union service in the Presbyterian Church and there was a good attendance, especially at the morning service.

The Belgian Orphanage

Montreal, Jan. 10th, 1921. The Editor of "The Standard" Dear Sir—The Executive of the "Belgian Protestant Orphan Funds" wish, through your publicity, to inform the Canadian Sunday Schools who have during the year contributed to this Fund, that each member of the Committee has received a beautiful testimonial signed by eleven Officers of the Brussels Board, which reads in this way: "The undersigned wish hereby to express their gratitude to you for your services in favour of the Belgian Orphanage of Brussels, which, thanks to the gifts of the Presbyterian Sunday Schools of Canada, weathered the terrible storm of the Great War and received its daily bread through your ministrations and the faithful care of the Heavenly Father. For this great blessing, we thank Him, and we thank you, and we extend to you a cordial invitation to visit our Children's Home when you come to Brussels." In answer to this invitation Mr. J. H. Cayford, the devoted Treasurer of the Fund, hopes to visit the Orphanage in the early Spring. But he has heard that, on account of stringent conditions in Belgium, money is much needed to repair, refit and replenish the house, furniture, the clothes and the shoes of the Orphan-

SILVER WEDDING

The Ladies Aid of Ebenezer appointment convened in respectable numbers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Brodie in the suburbs on Thursday evening, the 6th inst., and during the evening read the following address and made the appropriate presentation. Mr. and Mrs. Brodie:—We, your friends, take this opportunity to extend to you our hearty congratulations. As your wedding anniversary was on Dec. 25th, we are a little late, but our wishes are just as hearty. We are glad to have you with us at Ebenezer and appreciate your untiring services in Church, Sunday School and Ladies Aid. In anything that has been done you have both always been faithful workers. You, Mrs. Brodie, as President of our Ladies Aid having proven yourself a willing worker and good leader, and we trust you and Mr. Brodie may be spared to enjoy many more years of happy wedded life. As a slight token of our esteem and appreciation we ask you to accept these spoons with Every Good Wish of the Ebenezer Ladies Aid. Both Mr. and Mrs. Brodie replied in expressions of appreciation and gratitude.

age, he would be very thankful if he could be spared the humiliation of coming empty-handed to the reception that he being prepared for him as the Representative of the Canadian Presbyterian Sunday Schools. He therefore hopes that in their January appropriations many Sunday Schools will decide to give the Fund a last good-bye offering, which ought to reach, before the end of February, one of the following members of the Executive. For Ontario: Mr. J. C. Bost, 86 Bathgate Avenue, Toronto. Yours truly, The Executive of the B.P.O.P.

Death of John E. Richards

John E. Richards, aged 57 years, of 617 Manning Avenue, Toronto, was seized with heart failure on Friday afternoon last and died immediately. At the time, he was driving his automobile along the foot of York Street on his way to arrange for the sale of a carload of hay. Suddenly he fell forward on the steering wheel. Mr. Wilson, who was in the front seat beside Richards, was able to stop the car and it was then seen that the latter had expired. The remains were brought to Dundalk on Monday where interment took place that afternoon. Deceased was well known all over this district and the sad and sudden event was a great shock to the community. His widow and two daughters survive, for whom much sympathy is felt.
