nas no equal for quality and flavour.

If you have not tried Salada, send us a post card for a free sample, stating the price you now pay and if you use Black. Green or Mixed Tea. Address Salada, Toronto

On the Big Grade

By EUGENE JONES.

chance!"

my wits together, but I remember haz-

Some of the crew climbed aboard the runaway and brought, down the body of Jim Dural—the same body I had stumbled over on the tender. His

"I'm all right," he mattered, "Let me alone Where's Pritchard ?" Then my senses returned sufficient-is for me to narry back to old ninety-nine and the girl who had handled the

He knelt beside her, smoothing back her hair, taking her chilled little hands

"Fate, coincidence, cochlent-what-is for me to marry

Moments:

the servan-

CHAPTER V Minutes full of thundering sound ily the river of curious passengers went by lengthening like hours of which streamed from the Limited, Shirley's glance never left the and flowed about the two engines, gauges: ifendersonville, a white blur, craning necks, asking ridiculous quesgauges: Hendersonville, a write blur, craining necks, asking reactions questifichered shout its for an instant, was tions and getting no answers at all goes, lost in our exhaust smoke. At beyond a curt order from the conduction of the girl spole. gone, lost in our exhaust si Hillsburough the girl spole.

"Will we make it?" she asked. I hadded, playing for the truth of

Now an of lay Spart n; I recog-Now apper my Sparse, and a stumpled over the lantern face was haggard in the lantern face was haggard in the lantern light, and a bloody spot on the back of his hadd told its own story, but he grade which dropped off casily at over and such thalf per centi, gradually in his head told are own story, but he creating further down to four. It we ground the ground. up with the r maway in the next ted cond was an effect with proceed on the bone rade itself. more shricking curves; Shirley's tense throttle during those last recling secthree shortest at Pares of the second of the race. They were lifting three short managed the second of the race. They were lifting three short managed trans, seeking the shorty of a locomotive. But there was doing her morning. Ninely-nine was doing her her drivers firstly touching the vails. Two miplically touching the vails useless. I grabbed for the air success. It was useless. I grabbed for the air street who it was; then:

"Shirley saw it too:

threating those last recling sections of the race. They were lifting there as I got there. "Fainted." announced a flagman shorty. "Should think she would! Some nerve, I'll say!"

"Nothing serious he began when I must be began when I was; then:

"Shirley dearest!" His voice held an agony of fear.

He knell beside fer smoothing back her fainted."

Shirley say it too. me the through!

for the last time. It was a deli-he whispered. Please, please, face trick—bringing two locomotives She opened her eyes, closed them tog ther at a seventy-mile speed. The again, but a smile remained. With crror in judgement meant utter the help of the conductor Jim carried her to one of the Pullmans. And that was the last I saw of cither of them was the last I saw of cither of them thanked God I had laught her to necessary when I was the last I saw of cither of them thanked God I had laught her summoned to Boylean's when I was summoned to Boylean's when I was summoned to Bowlson's office, did I learn precisely what occurred. As I entered, Jim Duval stepped forward. best ber with a word of encouragemeet and, clinging to the hand rail, I "O'Kelley," he began, "there's some things you can't put into words. You sages the way out along the boiler in Siam' many women are employed army with water and tied army workshops, in factories and he not plates it out on her. Be good to her, young the same rates as men for here darkness mel.

In Siam' many women are employed army workshops, in factories and he cover over. In this way the flow-he railways and roads, where they paid the same rates as men for t Through the right range the shrick understand how I feel, don't you? thank from the stack derivers the mar of the drivers ever you've a mind to call it is a

there this many the stack there is the drivers stands of head of the drivers that the stands of head of head Mearer and nearer rushed the last car of the Limited—as if it were actually moving backward. I shut my eyes...

Number seven-o-seven came to a full stop fifty feet from the flagman who had been sent out from the train ahead!

He caught me as I stumbled down the ladder.

"God in heaven!" he muttered.

"Yes," I managed with a sickly grin. "I reckon He is, else that rundaway he made one mistake: he jumped at the wrong linstant—hit a milepost, as near as I can learn. Crew of a freight ruming extra picked up his dead body this morning. Served him night!"

The superintendent hesitated; glared about flercely, and rolled his cigar to a more acute angle.

"Now one more thing: Whet's this

He merels stared. Then, at length: He merely stared. Then, at length: "Now one more thing: what's this "Frank O'Kelley, you're clean, stark all I hear about you and Miss Shirley? Speak up! No side steeping!"

to a more acute angle.
"Now one more thing: What's this It, took ne a little while to gather Jim turned red. "We're going to be married," he managed, looking a ttle scared and blissfully happy.

"Married?" roared Bowlson, "Mard without my permission?"
"No," said Duval maliciously, "with

When Jim and I departed we left little fat man sitting in his swivel tair and scowling wrathfully. But ep down under his sour face, which therated nothing even approaching a nile, we knew he would not have had otherwise.

(The End.)

"Old Age is a Pose." Sir James Cantile flatly challenges current misconception in his stateent: "Old age is just a pose. A man ually grows old because he thinks it dignified. He sits back and lets the bars do what they like with him." is not so with this sturdy septuageghland flings. He shares the spirit

Tennyson's "Ulysses," who could age, or of Barrie's "Peter Pan," who cording to another poet, kept the imture our old-fashioned garden but few of fused to grow up, or of him who, ac- ing and returned every evening. his heart. We do not have to look long for onumental examples of great men ao, like Oliver Wendell Holmes in 3 poem, "The Boys," and in his pernal example, defled the calendar. To such perennially young gentleman, mely, Dr. W. W. Keen, the comoms to be the biggest part of inything else. Most of those who proco, create, achieve, are too busy to size.

es. It is useless to tell him that he ying with squirrels. Nature, they rant flowers. us, has no favorites, but she has the fast-approaching springtime. Let me tell you how I carned money with my flower garden. Through selling flowers I earned enough money to buy my own clothes, table linen, curtains for the parlor and a sewing machine. I had the dining room, hall and stairarian, who rises at 4.30 and dances way lined and papered. My bank account showed a balance of $300.

My Flower Money.

It was twelve miles by water from t bear to sit idle amid his island our farm to the city. A tug left the village, half a mile away, every morn-> dollar I purchased nine small but sentable condition, no matter what After filing the nails soak the finger- the German of 1920 is to most intense healthy violet plants which I carefully your household tasks may be. Learn tips in warm, soapy water to soften and purposes the German of 1912. planted in a protected spot. These first to protect the hands. With the the cuticle, then push this gently back a world which to British eyes to threw out many suckers. I kept the aid of a dish-mop and a wire dish-with the flat end of an orange-wood strangely changed by five years of surrounding ground well cultivated, cloth; the hands need to be kept in the stick, which can be bought for the pur- World War the niental isolation of the the suckers soon took root and within dish water but a small part of the pose. The half-moon which appears German is absolute. To talk to the two years I had large beds of fine, time, while the dishes can be washed at the base of the nails is considered makes you seel that the German of to-

The thought of growing old is chief. August and September I removed loose gloves can be worn when sweep-stick is used for cleaning under the examining his conscience.

dy crow's feet in the mirror or cal. I planted my roses in rows. After late percentages of lime in the the spring bloom I trimmed them back, great importance, especially in cold of the stick and moistened with peroxnes or acid in the blood. They are had them plowed and kept free from weather. Exposure to the air when the ide will remove stains from under the lite for fresh adventure. There is large clusters of single jonquils and ness on this point. abrador" Cabot, of Boston, who is graceful, pale yellow narcissus. ever starting out out a one-man ex- Friends gave me bulbs and I bought cleansing agents, the stains which fol- too much friction, as it heats the mails works of this description stand side by diftion among the Indians of the bar some. The beds for the bulbs were low the paring of potatoes, and cer- and produces the very high polish side with a mass of frankly polimeter is not very far from the desolate under-drained and prepared according tain fruits, require an acid for re- which is not admired. Wash the hands phile literature. There will you that too old. You might as well try to pheasant-eyed pinks. By starting with When grime has settled in the skir, the other. suade "Oom John" Burroughs to only one package of seed within a year, rub the hands thoroughly with vaset exploring swamps and forests and I had three large beds of these frag- line; rub as it using soap until the the nails so thoroughly oftener than against mankind.

of Fabre, which began in 1828 and were in great demand. One of the soap. not end until 1915, might be cited, boathands on the mail tug agreed to To prevent Ascoloration under the dest Hokusai, "perhaps I shall be rights to each corner and over these purpose.

would delay purchase till they arrived. found to be too drying for the skin, just as easily as if there were a full many today if it is to be accepted as ard's Liniment Relieves Colds, etc. I had my housework to do, dairying use one of the greaseless or disappear- pot of coal. When a larger fire is a proof of the death of German milk WINNING THE -NINGON SHEELD and the care of the poultry, so only a It is high time to make plans for part of my time was devoted to the used during the day, as well as at flower work.

pleasure as well as cash gain.

Care of the Hands.

A little care and a few toilet re- rounded so they will conform with the utter break-down of the entire these were suitable for sale. For one quisites will keep the hands in a pre- the ends of the fingers. even now preparing to do honor. a spray of fern sold readily for ten than when a dish-cloth only is used. White canvas gloves will afford the gently running the stick (which has Another plot of ground was plowed protection needed when working in the been previously dipped in oil) under communing with himself to assert the and planted to chrysanthemums. In poultry house or about the fires. Old, the cuticle. The pointed end of the the causes of his defeat: But hote min that of Chevreul, 1786-1889. Many take the filled baskets to the Exchange fingernalls, or in order to remove dissts, moreover, are like St. Gaud- and bring back the empty ones for a colorations, draw the nails over a piece When the housewife needs only a and "do not count the mortal specified sum for each basket. I lined of soap, so that the soap fills the space small, fire and but little heat, she rs it takes to mold memorial large stick baskets with oilcloth to between the fiesh and the nails. A should keep a deep, short fire in the "If I live to be 100," said the keep in the moisture, fastened up soap containing sand is best for this firepot by filling most of the pot as of Scranton - P.A.

WH Jerrup

winner of 1920

C.N.R. Shield

Facsimile of C.N.R.

ipion Trophy competed or by non-residents in ipigon waters, with rod and line

Neil M. Dougall

Representative

Sportsmans

Orient Bau

and 3 Specimens of Brook Trout

the lower of which in Mr. Jerrup's which captured the Trophy

COARSE SALT LAND SALT Bulk Carlots

TORONTO SALT WORKS C. J. CLIFF - TORONTO

ing creams. A cream of this sort can be rubbed into the skin, leaving no trace on the surface, so that it can be Briton, Long Resident in Bernight before retiring. The cream is It is having a system as well as also absorbed into the roots of the willingness to work hard, that enables nails, counteracting the brittleness one to "put over" an ex'ra piece of which causes the nails to break, and work such as this. First, I had this making them soft and pliable. The 1914, the German mind remains unplan of turning my flower and plant nails can be kept in shape by means changed. Neither the holocaust of friends into money, in my mind. There, of a flexible nail file, rough or uneven dead nor the crash of thrones has I worked out the plan and by orderly edges being easily filed down. Fre- shaken Germany out of her self-con methods and keeping everlastingly at quent cutting of the nails is said to coit, according to what G. Valentine it, found it was not a great hardship thicken them; when cutting is neces- Williams, formerly correspondent of and most certainly included much sary, a pair of curved manicure scis- Renter's Agency in Berlin, tells The sors enables one to cut the nails with London Daily Mail. greater ease than when ordinary seissors are used. Pointed nails are not not seem to have altered.

August and September I removed loose gioves can be work which bloomed were of fairly good drawn over the hand before blacking scratch the nails and should not be the chaos grovating in the Green on the chaos grovating in the green of the gree the stove is also protection.

Careful drying of the hands is of sorbent cotton wrapped around the end round. forever in a lonely observatory on street in a lonely observatory on southeast fine fall bloom.

They fine fall bloom.

They fine fall bloom.

They fine fall bloom.

The nails should then be polished, on the Versailles Peace but begins

From bulbs I raise double daffodils, ount of care will counteract careless- placing a little polishing powder on a vaseline is worked into all the inter- once in two weeks, but constant care The German surveyed the world My first step in selling my flowers stices of the skin, then wipe off with in washing and drying the hands, the from his castie of militarism. Now ay of granting to the naturalists a was to secure a ticket at the Women's a soft cloth, which can be burned, and use of the file and orange-wood stick that it has collapsed be is left floored. cial grace in growing "old." The Exchange in the city where flowers wash the hands with warm water and and the tream of lotion, are needed to dering in a sea of doubts and fears. keep them in good condition.

ers became so well known that people When a glycerine preparation is also bank such a fire and keep it low of heart the needed, she can push through the grate tarism. such a portion of ashes as will make Talk to a Frenchman of any clars, in a year than all other methods com-

> The Land of Pretty Soon." I know a land where the streets are blank indifference. The German man pared

With the things we meant to achieve. Bels walled with the money we meantto have savel,

And the pleasures for which we grieve." The kind words unspoken, the promises broken, And many a coveted thoon;

Are stowed away there in that land somewhere-The land of "Pretty Soon."

fame. Lying about in the dust; And many a noble and lofty aim Covered with mold and rust,

Is farther away than the moon; Though our purpose is fair, yet we never get there.-The land of "Pretty Soon."

The road that leads to that mystic Is strewed with pitiful wrecks. And the ships that have sailed for its shining strand Bear skeletons on their decks. Is it farther at noon than it is dawn,

Oh let us beware of that land down Farther at night than at noon; The land of "Pretty Soon."

Licorice Oldest Candy. Licorice is the oldest confection in the world, unless scientists who have been studying ancient civilization are amiss. The black candy is made from a shrub that flourishes on the banks of the Tigris and Euphrates 'river'. where existed one of the oldest civili- your present income is, but after zations known to man. The plant; there attains at times a height of three feet, growing in spots where its roots can reach down into the water of the historic rivers.

Minard's Liniment for Burns, etc.

WAR FAILS TO GERMANY'S CONCEIT

DECLARES NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENT.

lin, Says Teuton Mind Still Unchanged.

Although Berlin has changed since

"The German mind," he says, "does

"Profes of in German translations and promises While soap and water are good back and forth over each nail. A soid ism, at the store in the state of the store and the state of the store in the state of the st bt where the balloon came down to the instructions given in my floral moval; a piece of lemon, a slice of in order to remove the polishing pow-I sold dozens of bunches of white, vinegar, will remove these stains nails of each hand with the palm of but nothing practical to deal with the problems of the present. And, above It will not be necessary to manieure all, no contrition for Germany's crime

The Germans with whom I have spoken expect us to hold them millless of the past because, they say, they have rid Germany of her mile tary easte.

Willing to Forgive!

to draw a line. Such a man fitted a cover of strong homespun An excellent lotion to be applied to filling one-fourth, one-third or one-that eminent nonentity, William the "They have, it is true, expelled the we what it means to live for many which tied underneath the basket the hands combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the firepot with Second-rater because they falled 'combines equal parts of gly-half the length of the gly-half the gly we what it means to five for many which then underneads the passes the name combines equal parts of good coal. Every time she cleans here their promise to establish Good coal. Every time she cleans here their promise to establish Good coal. Every time she cleans here their promise to establish Good coal. Every time she cleans here their promise to establish Good coal. the stems of each bunch in yet moss, lotion will be appreciated when applied coal, she will need to put on more man people are governed by the hero packed the bunches in close together, to the cracks which sometimes occur ashes in order to keep the ashes level instinct; and the expulsion of the Old sprinkled them with water and tied on the ends of the fingers. Another with the coal. In this way she can Gang in the circumstances of mulitary army workshops, in factories and the cover over. In this way the flow- good lotion calls for two parts each have a good, hot, deep, live fire all defeat and home panie in which the he railways and roads, where they ers reached the Exchange as fresh as of boiled, soft water and vinegar, and the time, on which she can heat a little. Hohenzellerns were sent away ro water or do light cooking. She can quired weightier evidence of a change the desired space, fill this space with and you will, sooner or later, come good coal and the adjoining fire will upon a well-banked but fiercely smooi-soon spread through the new coal during Republican ardor. Talk to a This method saves more tons of coal German shoul his government and you will find, at the best, lukewarm interest; at the worst, resentful ridic ce towards the German Republic.

"The average attitude is one of in the street never thought for himself. He does not do so to day. The question of the future is, What party will emerge from the present chaos to do his thinking for him? ..

"The Germans are perfectly willing to forgive us for the war. They talk glibly about this unhappy war with the air of a man making perfunctory excuses for some social lapse. In some may be detected in addition a little air of condescension in speaking of the late unpleasantness as though to draw aftention to their magnanimity in ac-There are uncut jewels, of possible ceptian the war as an inevitable catastrophe, 'an act of God,' as the insurance p licies say. And even to-day I find that the great majority of Germans have no idea of the abhorrence And, oh! this place, while it seems so in which the very name German is held in the Angle-Saxon countries and in France and Belgium."

> ----A Trip of Investigation. "I want to marry your daighter," the young man said to his beloved's father.

"Does she love you?" the old man asked. "Yes, sir," answered the routh, "And love her!" "Well, that, of course, is the first necessary condition; but there are a fow more questions that I should like to ask you."

"Yes, sir." "Have you made any shopping tours with her lately?" "No, sir."

"Ever been in a big store and asked I the present price of women's hats and clothes?" "No, sir."

"Well, young man, just take a trip of investigation. I don't know what you've learn for yourself just what those clothes cost she is wearing are costing me, come back and see me again. If then you can promise to support her in the style w which she has been accustomed lately, I'll give

BRITISH CO PULP AN

GROWTH OF TEN YE

Province Possess Remaining Star wood in the

The butters pulp and quality Columbia backback cade ago fol a mechalences In 1919 (in) Odra Gas minion Cs. vestign affr mand to o-time. Wester for the tata "a: Should co provide st Wood. an ave Toda delicit praties

Serret unlimit. i' that n No E

Th

Japar. noh ... the Pro. no the prod: 111. linau. 120,000 oution: 80,01 group. 2145 V. p. 1. 7.20: Brutt unio :. . Pro. 1-6211936 Ding.

Colum,

try, dat.

placed

ing

2102

Peantan

West .

of close ac grandp. usital for until it 1. Thomas. province s. 3 comment if if days old to boiled egg. friends and . ing that they will be as in quently the q away total For a baby are made really. one for its light poanuts are throw both tubs, this b sure long life and takings of the A

It is ensuing money liber wi

Earliest S: The carlings Europe was the lished about 34's if of Alexander the second in the words been preceded only o. tris Pharagh of Egypt

a military caste abole