The courteous and obliging manner of Mr. Alex. McEachnie, proprietor of the local bus has been commented on by several of the travelling salesman in the presence of The Standard editor and we heartily commendation. Mr. McEachnie deserves the praise he receives in connection with his business methods.

A RAW DEAL

The Markdale-Dundas O. H. A. team has been ordered to play home and home games with Collingwood; but the order also stipulates that our home game is to be played in Owen Sound. A pretty raw deal is being handed to the local boys by the O. H. A. officials. It is necessary to play in Owen Sound, why not make it a sudden death game and give one team as square a deal as the other?

Label List Corrections

The Standard label list was corrected last Saturday. Those who recently paid their subscriptions should examine their address label. If it is not correct, promptly draw our attention to the oversight. The label list covers four pages, each nearly the size of a page of The Standard, and in the last correction there were changes, mostly renewals, and these scattered all over the four pages, so you will perceive how difficult a task it must be to make all these corrections without an error.

SMITH—WILSON

A very unusual wedding occurred at the Methodist Church, Kimberley, on Wednesday, February 2nd, at high noon, when Mrs. Elizabeth Smith was united to Mr. Thomas Wilson, of Durham. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Veals, of Kimberley. Mrs. Veals presiding at the organ.

The bride was attired in a brown travelling suit and large picture hat and wore the groom's gift, which was a pendant in the shape of a horse-shoe.

The happy couple had a shower of rice and repaired to the Travellers' Rest, where a sumptuous repast was in readiness. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were the recipients of many useful gifts. They propose residing at Durham. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

CORRECTION

A paragraph which appeared in "Cherry Grove" items last week regarding my mare being blind is not correct. The correspondent for Cherry Grove should make sure the information is correct before penning items which are liable to cause trouble and harm to others. Wesley Wyville.

For Sale—A quantity of wood, both dry and green, all maple. H. Knott, Markdale.

The Public Library

The annual meeting of Markdale Public Library was held on Tuesday night, six out of the seven members being present.

After the reading and confirming of minutes, Treasurer's report and Annual report, the following were elected officers for the ensuing year:

Chairman—H. Mercer.
Sec.-Treas.—C. W. Rutledge.
Librarian—Miss Mann.

Purchasing Committee—Mrs. H. Mercer, Mrs. R. L. Stephen and Mrs. Ego.

On retiring from the position of Librarian, Mrs. H. Mercer was voted an expression of appreciation for her many years of loyalty and capable, courteous management of the Library.

The interest and patronage of the excellently conducted institution continues to widen. In fact it is an asset which citizens may well be proud of.

Oyster Supper

The Farmers' Sun and Club membership drive which Orange Valley Farmers' Club organized on January 14th was a decided success and finished up on February 4th with a showing of 63 new subscribers to the Sun and 15 new club members. An oyster supper was held at the Secretary's home on Friday evening, where the Club Members, with their wives, and families, numbering over 100, spent the evening in speeches, music, etc.

Mr. P. McCullough, a member of the Club, was present and favored the gathering with a lengthy discourse on his reasons for being a F.F.O. man, also on the protective tariff. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Davis for the use of their house and for the hospitality shown to everyone.

Junior Mission Band

The Junior Mission Band was reorganized on Friday evening, the 4th of February, 1921.

The children met in the Manse at 7 o'clock and Mrs. Thurburn-Cann presided. The subject of the talk was "Formosa," its situation, the first Missionary sent there to carry the message of God's love to the natives and the Memorial Hospital to the memory of that first Missionary, Dr. Geo. L. McKay.

It was noted that the interest of the children was keen and their behaviour exemplary. Mrs. Conn is justly proud of the first meeting of her Junior Mission Band.

Anglican Church Notes

A hearty invitation is extended to all to be present at the Mission Meetings to be held in Christ Church on Sunday, February 13th, to the 21st. The Services will be held as follows:

With indefatigable zeal, that has communicated a portion of his enthusiasm to many of his congregation, the Rector has made a house-to-house canvas, preparatory to the coming of the Rev. Walter Cox, who is to conduct the Mission, which begins on Sunday, February 13th.

A Service will be held on Ash Wednesday at 8 p.m., to offer our united petitions before the throne of God, that He will guide those who conduct the Mission, and may there be such a volume of fervent prayer that a tremendous spiritual awakening may be ours.

Methodist Church Notes

The Ladies Aid met in the School Room of the Church last Tuesday afternoon. A very large number of the members were present. After the devotional exercises, several items of interest were discussed and, before dispersing, a social hour was spent and light refreshments served.

The day of the Ladies Aid meeting has been changed to the last Tuesday in the month.

On Wednesday afternoon the W. M. S. met at the parlour with Mrs. H. D. Irwin in the chair. Mrs. Wm. Foster and Mrs. Jos. Armstrong read helpful pamphlets on "Prayer." The Watch Tower was taken up and Miss Helen Brown and Jean Curry played a very pretty piano duet. Miss Stanley was presented with a Life Membership certificate, for which she expressed her appreciation.

Thursday night the Gospel Band met and held a very interesting debate on "Resolved that David was a Greater Character than Jonathan." The debate was taken by Miss Heath and Mr. A. D. Irwin, for the affirmative, and for the negative Mrs. A. D. Irwin and Miss Ethel Arlby, who were seconded by Miss Gladys Hookley, Miss Hockley being unable to be present. The debate resulted in a tie.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed at the Morning Service. Besides the Anthems by the Choir, Misses Anna Jackson and Ellen Perkins sang sweetly and at the Morning Service and a quartette by Mrs. C. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. W. Perkins and Mr. J. C. Armstrong, who beautifully rendered at the evening Service.

Miss Eleanor Noble and Harold Stephenson had charge of the Bible Board work at Sunday School.

Prayer Meeting on Thursday evening in the Church Parlor.

Mission Circle next Sunday afternoon before Sunday School.

The League debate on "Resolved that the World is Growing Better" after a close count, resulted in a decision for the affirmative. The second part of the program consisted of a vocal duet by Misses Anna Jackson and Ellen Perkins; a solo by Miss Walton and readings from memory by Misses Myrtle Freeman and Miss Heard; and a piano duet by Mrs. Stanley and Miss Mildred Eiskine. The School Room was filled and all present enjoyed the evening's program.

The special features of the League next Monday night will be an interesting report of the Epworth League Winter School held at Toronto recently, a letter from our Missionary, Dr. Anderson, of China, and a paper on "Jonathan."

The Pastor's subject next Sunday night will be "Is the World Growing Better?"

Cooke's Church Notes

Divine Services next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7.

11:00 a.m.—Studies in the Philippians, Part 5, "God's Sovereign Grace Operating in the Christian Church."

7 p.m.—The Inspiration and Instruction of the Movements and Actions of Jesus.

Guild met in Mr. C. E. Walden's Auditorium. There was a large attendance. The Priceville Guild turned out splendidly. The topic of the evening was a debate from the following subject: "Resolved that the Country Life is More Beneficial to the Individual than City Life." Affirmative, Priceville. Negative, Markdale. The honours went to Priceville.

Announcement will soon be made of a series of meetings for the quickening of Spiritual Life and the deepening of religious obligations in our community. The name of the special evangelist will be mentioned soon.

Guild on Monday, 14th February, at Mrs. S. A. Morrison's home. Topic "Literary and Scientific." Messrs. Cooper and Walden responsible.

Have you signed the "Go to Church Pledge?"

For Sale—Privately, house furniture. Herb Allison, Main St., Markdale.
