

Extend your farm operations

NO progressive farmer needs to be urged to produce to the limit of his facilities. His problem is to find the means—the capital.

Is it more stock, more housing, feed, seed grain, implements or new land to be cleared or broken?

The Bank of Toronto is ready to assist responsible farmers for these, or any purpose which will enable them to increase their production and profits.

We Give Service

Every Farmer Needs a Ford

YOU don't hesitate to own a binder for a few day's use per year—to save time. Why not a Ford for use day or night every day in the year.

- to save time that can be better used in productive work.
- to keep you in close personal touch with markets.
- to handle light produce to town.
- to bring out help to your farm.
- to keep the boys contented on the farm.

The sturdy Ford is the farm car you want for dependable power, endurance, simplicity and economy.

We render Ford Service. We keep your car on the road. We sell genuine Ford parts and repair service at fixed prices. You know the price before you buy.

HUGH KNOTT, MARKDALE

WALTERS FALLS

(Intended for last week.)
Some of our farmers have some grain sowed.

Mr. Fred Dobson went to Owen Sound some time ago, where he is learning the shoemaking with Mr. Plume.

Mr. Orville Shepherson returned to Saskatchewan last week after spending the winter here.

Miss Georgia Watson has returned home from Priceville.

Mr. Wm. Shepherson had the frame work of a new stable raised last week. Mr. Speck did the framing.

On Sunday next Rev. Mr. Hendry intends holding a service of song for men and boys.

Married—At the rectory, Hogon, by the Rev. W. J. Hendry, on Thursday, April 7th, at high noon, Edith, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dixon, to Herbert R., second son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Seabrook. Mr. and Mrs. Seabrook left at once for London where they intend to reside.

We heard last week of the death in Ireland of Mr. Ed. Wickham some time ago. Mr. Wickham was well known in this vicinity having resided here for a great many years.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. Atcheson Ferris at the age of 42 years which occurred at his home here, on Saturday shortly after one o'clock. Mr. Ferris had been unable to work for about a month, but not confined to his room until the last week. Deceased was married nearly twenty years ago to Miss Alice Walter and has resided here ever since. Besides the widow, six children, the oldest a boy of 18, and a baby girl of six weeks, several brothers and sisters are left. Interment took place on Monday afternoon to St. Phillips Church cemetery, of which Church deceased was a member. The service was in charge of Rev. Hendry and the Organists.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. F. Wickham and Florence and Mr. and Mrs. Bassett, of Owen Sound, were callers on several friends here, on Sunday.

WODEHOUSE

(Intended for last week.)
We are sorry to report that Mrs. Best is very ill but hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Geo. Bowles, of the West Back Line, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jacob Holley, and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Alcox, of Orange Valley, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam. Gilbert recently.

Mrs. S. S. Burritt and daughter, Angie, of Kimberley, visited with the former's daughter, Mrs. D. A. Graham, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richardson, of Flesherton, spent a day with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard.

The young men of the community held a meeting recently and decided to organize a baseball team for the coming season.

The Farmers' Club held their April meeting in the hall on Monday evening of last week. The President, Mr. Chas. Boland, and others gave a report of the recent lectures in Markdale by Mr. Jas. Telfer, of Paris, on Sheep Husbandry. Mr. H. I. Graham read an interesting article on the

"Life History of the Heel Fly"

A large number from here, friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Walker, of Riverdale, spent a few pleasant hours with them in their home on Monday evening, April 11th, the occasion being the 60th anniversary of their marriage. Mrs. Walker who was formerly Miss Mary Graham of this place, is still enjoying splendid health and is able to read without glasses and but recently crocheted a centre piece of No. 60 thread. Mr. Walker, however, has been an invalid for some years. Their many friends tender heartiest congratulations to the bride and groom of 60 years upon reaching their diamond wedding day.

The pastor, Rev. C. A. Beltry, delivered an excellent sermon last Sunday afternoon on the subject of the prohibition referendum on Monday, April 18th. He urged his hearers to follow the advice of Premier Drury and Hon. Mr. Raney and vote "yes" on the ballot.

The Sunday School will re-open for the summer months on Sunday next.

HEATHCOTE

(Intended for last week.)
Beautiful spring weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Fawcett and family returned home after an extended visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fawcett, at Alliston.
