The Knights of Columbus of Owen Sound offered a ten dollar medal to the Entrance pupil who took the highest marks in the separate schools of the County. Miss Evelyn O'Connor, daughter of Mrs. Wm. O'Connor, won the coveted prize. She is a pupil of Sep. S. S. No. 3. Well done.

The sad news came to us at the close of the week of the sudden death of Mrs. Wm. Hird, (nee Miss Louisa Reynolds), at Nanport, Sask., on July 20th. She underwent an operation for removal of a tumor the day before and good hopes were held out for recovery, but the heart was weak and in the morning hours she passed.

Deceased was born in York, August 6th, 1875, came with her parents to Hayward's Falls in 1882 and grew to young womanhood later living for a couple of years on the West Back Line near Markdale. Nine years ago, on the day of her death, she wedded Mr. Hird in Vancouver, later moving to the prairie and lived on the farm.

Last January her mother passed away. Lou was one of our lovable pupils in the early nineties and grew into a winsome maidenhood. Bested her sorrowing partner, she leaves one brother, Edgar, E. of Nunsboro, and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Larkin, (Amy) of Jackson, Michigan, and Mrs. T. G. Campbell, (Vi), of Nunsboro. The old schoolmates will regret her early death.

Zionites are making preparations for a "whole of a time" at their garden party on August 18th, at the homestead of Mr. Hugh McArthur.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henry and Mr. and Mrs. G. Kennedy, of Fiesherton, were guests of the Edwards' home the first of the week.

eight years ago. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Blair.

PRICEVILLE

(Special to The Standard.) During the thunder storm on Tuesday night, of last week, the lightning passed down the chimney of the Methodist Church and then along the brick wall, throwing fragments of brick a considerable distance into the street, and also ripping some plaster off the walls inside, but no fire ensued.

On Saturday evening, of last week, the lightning peeled one side of a tall Lombardy poplar in front of G. W. Tyson's residence.

The McKinnon brothers, threshers and consn. Chas. McKinnon, of South Line, have purchased a new up-to-date outfit and will run both machines this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Karstedt received four little girls through the social workers in Toronto and gave them a five weeks' holiday during the hot spell in the early part of July. Regular hours, proper food and lots of fresh air, motor trips to Eugenia and other places of interest, in the pure, bracing air of Grey County, will no doubt, do the little-ones a lot of good.

John L. McDonald, of the Ottawa Public School Staff, accompanied by wife and little son, have been spending part of their holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. B. McDonald, of town. J. L. has a good position in the capital city and is becoming a successful educationalist.

Mrs. Alex. B. McDonald visited friends in Durham last week.

Mrs. C. A. McLean, south of the village, visited in Walkerton last week.
