Mrs. J. E. Marsh and son, Rawson, were in town on Monday on a motoring tour.

Miss Eleanor Ebbs of Toronto, spent three weeks with her little cousin Maxine Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Foster returned last week from their trip to the west coast.

Have your films developed and printed in first-class style, send or take them to Hamilton's Studio, Markdale, Ontario.

Mrs. Jas. Cook, B. C., read with much interest the letter from Mrs. Wm. Cook, Rawson, which appeared in last week's issue.

Mrs. T. Stewart Cooper, who has been ill for the past few weeks, went to Owen Sound Hospital for treatment and an operation if necessary.

G. Mills Robertson, is the new agent of the C. P. R. Agent McHugh, who has been in charge for the past few months, has been transferred to Sault Ste. Marie.

Miss Barbara Mackay of Owen Sound, a daughter of Alex. Scotland, is visiting with Mrs. T. M. Davidson, of the suburbs, for two weeks.

Two County Police Magistrates have been appointed for the County of Halton, Messrs. H. P. Moore, publisher of the Acton Free Press and Mr. Johnathan Shields, of Oakville.

Mr. W. G. Lee, of this place, has purchased the Heimbecher Woollen Mill property in Dundalk, recently damaged by fire. He has also purchased a fifty-acre bush farm on the east backline, Artemesia.

The Reverends G. F. Scovil, Rector of St. George's Church, Guelph, L. W. Diehl, of Port Burwell, I. F. Park, of Southampton, and Mr. Alex. Lucas, of B. C., called on the Rev. Richardson and his sister in Southampton last week.

The class rooms in the Markdale Public School are being put into excellent condition for the re-opening in September. Messrs. Dundas and Culp have been busy during the past couple of weeks and the result of their labors is a well-finished job.

Two rinks of bowlers from town took part in the Owen Sound tournament last week in which over 60 rinks participated. "Dad" Merriam, of Chatsworth, won the premier prize defeating all comers. The local players were: H. H. Lucas, T. H. Reburn, G. S. Dundas, Dr. L. G. Campbell, W. Plewes, W. Jackson, J. C. Mercer, Dr. J. A. McArthur

Earl Duncan, the four-year-old son of Mrs. Duncan, was run over by an auto on Saturday afternoon, while playing on the street. He escaped with a few scratches and a severe shaking up. We don't know whether or not the driver of the car was to blame, but we do know that there is by far too much careless and reckless driving on the streets of the village.

The lacrosse match on Monday afternoon between the Hanover and the Durham-Markdale teams was not a very exciting argument, the score being 16 to 5 in favor of the two town team. The visitors, we presume took it for granted that they were to meet defeat in any case and were represented by a junior aggregation. A. J. Skelton, of Shelburne, acted in the capacity of referee, but his duties were light. The next game in which the locals participate takes place at Southampton on Thursday, when the first of the home and home games in the semi-finals will be played. It's our guess that the Durham-Markdale aggregation will come pretty close to the intermediate championship before getting a set-back.

Miss Ruth Myles, of Kimberley, is spending a few days in town with Miss Ladema Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Morrison and Mrs. Morrison, sr. are holidaying with friends in Owen Sound and Chesley.

J. M. Kilburn, one of Owen Sound's most prominent and progressive businessmen, died on Saturday evening in his 80th year. He was well-known throughout Ontario as a successful financier and many Owen Sound industries were successful conducted under his guiding hand.

25 YEARS AGO.

Eastnor—After a lingering illness Mr. John McKee passed away last Saturday.

In Memoriam

SIMMERS—In loving memory of William Simmers, who passed away peacefully on August 17th, 1920.

Friends may think we have forgot you,
When in times they see us smile,
But they little know the sorrow
Which that smile hides all the while.

Young—Little

Meaford Express.

The Methodist Church was the scene of a happy event on Saturday morning at eleven o'clock, when the marriage of Mary Alice, only daughter of the late Chas. and Mrs. Little, to William Norque Young, only son of Mr. W. L. Young, manager of the Bank of Toronto, Markdale, and Mrs. Young, was solemnized.

The floral decorations were very lovely and enhanced the beauty of the ceremony as the bridal party stood while the nuptial knot was tied by the pastor, Rev. J. Wallace Stewart. Golden glow, gladiolus and ferns were the favored blooms and were massed about the altar and prettily arranged throughout the church.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette, with bead trimming, her lovely embroidered veil being caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her ornaments were a rope of pearls, a gift of the groom, and a bouquet of Sweetheart roses.

Mr. George D. Little, of the Merchants Bank, Kincardine, gave his sister away and Miss Olga Young, the groom's sister, was maid of honor, and wore a frock of embroidered ivory Swiss silk taffeta with becoming hat to match. Her flowers were pink and white sweet peas. The ushers were Mr. Fred Hamley and Mr. Frank A. Brown.

Miss Alcock played Mendelssohn's beautiful wedding march as the bridal party came up the aisle and appropriate music throughout the ceremony. As the register was being signed Miss Rita Culbertson sang, "Oh Promise Me," in a very pleasing manner.

After the ceremony a few of the intimate friends and relatives had luncheon at the home of the bride's mother, Trowbridge street, and shortly after Mr. and Mrs. Young left for a motor trip across the border, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride wore a smart gown of sand tricolette and small felt hat and shoes of matching color, with blue cloak, going away. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Young will reside in their new home, Trowbridge street.

Rowe—Clark

On Wednesday, August 10th, at high noon, at the home of Mr. James Clark, Berkeley, Miss Ethel Arthur Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, Berkeley, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick Rowe, Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, Markdale. The bride was charmingly attired in a navy blue tricotine suit with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses. She was assisted by her friend, Miss Ethel Arthur, who was dressed in white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Little Jennie Duncan and Elsie Caswell, wearing frocks of white silk and carrying baskets of sweet peas and heliotrope, preceded the bride and bridesmaid to the platform where they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Harold Clark, brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wakefield, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony, the bridal party and guests repaired to the dining room, which was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers and wedding bells, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Wakefield, was ably responded to by the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a cabinet of silver; to the organist a gold bar pin, with cameo setting, and to the flower girls, each a gold wish-bone crescent with pearl setting.

The bride's going-away costume was a suit of navy blue serge with black mohair hat.

The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Toronto, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and other points, amid showers of confetti and best wishes.

Death of Mrs. Thos. Armstrong.

On Sunday, August 7th, death claimed one of the most highly respected residents of the Township of Holland, in the person of Mrs. Thomas Armstrong, who passed to her long rest at her home, Lot 22, Con. 4, Holland, after an illness of over five years.

The late Mrs. Armstrong was taken ill in November, 1915, and from that time until the date of her death, was a constant sufferer from rheumatoid arthritis. During the more than five years of her illness, she was a cheery and patient sufferer and, on the days when she was most grievously assailed by pain and suffering, her patience and Christian fortitude were a revalation to her friends.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Alison Aitcheson, was born at Elphinstone, Midlothian, Scotland, in 1849, a daughter of the late John Aitcheson. With her parents she came to Canada in 1852 and lived in Brantford until 1860, when her family moved to Sullivan Township and settled upon a bush farm. In 1877 she was married to Thomas Armstrong and moved with her husband to lot 22, Con. 4, Holland, another bush farm, without an acre of clearing, where the partners in life cleared the land and hewed from the forest one of the most comfortable homes in the Township and where the late Mrs. Armstrong, by her unfailing good-nature and thoughtfulness for the comforts of others, endeared herself to a host of friends, who will sadly mourn her death.

Besides the sorrowing husband, there are left to mourn the loss one son, John, at home, and two daughters, Mrs. Allen, of Berkeley and Mrs. Webb, of Wingham.

The remains were laid to rest in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Williamsford, on Tuesday, August 9th. The pastor of the deceased, Rev. D. Sillars, of Dornoch, conducted the services at the home and grave.
