FLESHERTON

(Special to The Standard)

Honey-Jameson—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. J. H. Jameson, here, on Wednesday afternoon, August 10th, when her only daughter, Mary Ellen, was married to Mr. Walter Edmund Honey, of Dome Mines, Northern Ontario, formerly of Belfast, Ireland. Rev. J. H. Oke, pastor of the Methodist Church, conducted the ceremony, which took place at 4 o'clock in the presence of immediate friends only of the contracting parties. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. E. N. Jameson, of Owen Sound, looked handsome in her travelling costume of white jersey cloth, with georgette waist, trimmed with flet lace, and wearing a stylish green hat. After the ceremony and signing of the Register, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Jameson's two children, Helen Marjory and William Edward, received the bride and groom at the conclusion of which a dainty luncheon was served on the lawn, where the marriage and christening took place. Before leaving, Rev. Mr. Oke, who presided, made a pleasing congratulatory speech, to which the groom replied in a happy manner. Four generations of the family tree were represented at the function. Mrs. Ellen Rutledge, great grandmother, was present from Montclair, N. J., where she resides with her daughter, the esteemed old lady, now almost 86, was among the earliest settlers at Flesherton. Her granddaughter, the bride, is one of Flesherton's most popular young women and was the recipient of many beautiful wedding gifts. The groom's gift was a pretty gold wrist watch and a handsome evening cloak. During the war Nursing Sister Jameson served with distinction in Military Hospitals overseas and at Malta. Until recently she was on the staff of Davidsville Hospital, Toronto, nursing disabled soldiers a service which appealed to her. Mr. and Mrs. Honey left by motor car to spend a week at Owen Sound, Southampton and other points. After a further visit here they will go to their new home at Dome Mines, where the groom holds the position of mining engineer. We wish the young couple happiness and prosperity.

The engagement is announced of Mary Grassick Ross, second daughter of Mr. Henry Ross, Aberdeen, Scotland, to Dr. Alexander Turnbull, of Flesherton, the marriage to take place quietly, early in September.

A good league match of baseball between Vandeleur and Flesherton teams played here on Friday last was won by the latter. Score 8-5.

The W. M. S. of the Methodist Church celebrated the 27th anniversary of the Auxiliary here at their meeting last week. Mrs. W. H. Thurston presided, Mrs. H. Down, Mrs. Ed. Best and Mrs. J. A. Heard gave interesting readings and Mrs. Scott gave a splendidly rendered solo. Mrs. Scott also gave a sweetly rendered and touching solo at the regular church service on Sunday evening.

Mr. R. J. Woods, of Corbetton, supplied the Presbyterian Church pulpit on Sunday with his usual acceptance here.

The Methodist Church tower was re-shingled and the tall spire repainted last week by Mr. F. Westholm, of Windsor, an expert gable Jack, who did the hazardous job expeditiously and satisfactorily.

Mrs. Thos. Garrett, a former resident of Artemesia; and of this village, passed away on Thursday last in Collingwood, where she and her husband have lived for a number of years. The remains were brought here on Saturday for interment in the family plot and a number of old friends and relatives attended the burial. Rev. J. H. Oke conducted the service at the grave. The deceased, 66 years of age, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson, of Stone's Settlement, where she grew to womanhood and was married to Mr. Garrett, who survives her. For some time they resided in Flesherton and Mr. Garrett operated the first cheese factory here.

Mrs. Burke and daughter, Lottie, of Toronto, paid the former's sister, Mrs. W. J. Bellamy, a short visit last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harpell, visiting here, were called to Toronto on Saturday by the destruction of their home by fire, but fortunately their furniture was reported mostly saved.

Mrs. Kate Paton spent the past week or more with Mrs. John McMillan and daughter at Wasaga Beach.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our wife and mother, Mrs. Johnston Cullen, who died on August 11th, 1919:

Two years have passed since that sad day. The mother we loved was called away.

God took her home, it was His will. But in our hearts she liveth still. She suffered with patience, physicians were in vain.

Thy God above with His great love relieved her of all pain. Peacefully sleeping, ever at rest. And all earthly sorrows and troubles are past.

Jesus has taken her home to His breast; Sleeping so sweetly ever at rest. Husband and Family.
