PRICEVILLE

Colin Tryon, of Detroit, and also his sister, Margaret, a teacher in one of the Toronto schools, came up at the end of the week for a few holidays with their father, G. W. Tryon.

Mr. W. J. Blakestone, principal of the Stratford Public School, arrived here on Saturday last to spend a few holidays with friends. W. J. is always a cheery and welcome visitor in this vicinity.

Miss Louise Watson, teacher at Beeton, Ont., is home for Christmas.

Mr. Ed. Watson, of Durham Furniture Factory, spent Christmas at the old home here.

We are glad to hear that John Williamson, old Durham road, who was operated on, and is still in Stratford Hospital, is progressing favorably, and is expected to be better than ever, when he returns home.

Dr. McIntyre deserves credit for being the first man to hand in his name as a new member of the Agricultural Society for 1922. The very wet weather the second day of our Fair last Fall prevented a number of members whose sole exhibits were live stock, from attending and this reduced our retained membership. We hope a goodly number of persons, who wish to remain a success in our midst will follow the doctor's example, and let us have a fine list of members for our annual meeting next month.

Mr. Don McLachlan, of town, met with a serious accident on Tuesday of last week. He was cutting wood in his bush lot with a gas engine and buzz saw, his foot slipped on a stick, and he fell against the saw, which cut through his clothing and made a dangerous wound between the ribs about an inch below the breast. He was alone at the time, but he managed to pull his overcoat about him, and he lay there until his assistant returned with the team from taking a load of wood out.

He was taken home on the sleigh. The doctors, dressed the terrible wounds, and a trained nurse is also in attendance.

Miss Catharine McIntyre, an elder sister who has resided for a number of years with her brother, Mr. McIntyre, V.S., of this village, passed away on Wednesday, of last week. Deceased had a fine old lady, and much respected by all who were acquainted with her. She had been very lame, and more or less an invalid for several years, and therefore confined to the house. Sometimes the cottage prayer meeting, or occasionally a short service was held at the residence, principally for her benefit, and was much appreciated by her. The funeral took place on Friday Dec. 23 to the West End cemetery, a mile west of village. Rev. C. S. Jones conducted the service at the residence, and at the graveyard.

Master Leonard McArthur, desires to thank the Girls' Club, for the fine present of cut flowers, from the greenhouse, which was sent to him while he was confined to his room by illness.

CHERRY GROVE

(Intended for last week.)
A Happy New Year to the editor and staff and all Standard readers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hawken, of Flesherton, spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mrs. W. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bradley entertained a number of their friends over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bradley had Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Beaverdale.

The school concert and Christmas tree on Friday evening, Dec. 23rd, was a decided success. Mr. E. Bradley, sen. occupied the chair in a capable manner. A well rendered programme of songs, recitations, dialogues and drills by the pupils evidenced the efficient training of the teacher, Mrs. S. L. Hart.

Mrs. W. E. Bradley was the accompanist for the songs and drills by the pupils. Solos by Miss E. Walton, Olga Young and Mr. Gordon Beaton, of Markdale, received well merited applause. Miss Walton was the accompanist for the holiday two while Miss Young acted in that capacity for Miss Walton.

Santa Claus was in his most jovial mood as he distributed the various gifts from the tree to the great delight of the kiddies. Altogether a most enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

BERKELEY

(Intended for last week.)
The box social which was held on the 19th of Dec. in the Orange Hall under the auspices of the children and young people of S. S. No. 6, Holland was a success. Rev. A. Richardson was chairman and ably filled the post. There was a lengthy programme of songs, dialogues, and recitations. Mr. B. Walden attended to the sale of the boxes which realized a nice sum. Much credit is due the teacher, Miss M. McPherson, in the way she had the pupils trained.

Just before the concert was closed the pupils presented Miss McPherson with a lovely brooch set with pearls and an address which read as follows:

Dear Teacher—We have taken this opportunity to-night of showing the esteem which we hold for you. We cannot forget how patient you have been with us when we have sorely tried your temper many times, so hope you will except this little gift not for its value but just as a small remembrance from your pupils.

Before closing school on Thursday last Miss McPherson presented each child with a small gift.

Glad to see Mr. Thos. Mitchell around again. Hope he will continue to improve.
