Leitch, who died on December 18th at Pentleton, B. C., where Mr. Leitch located last Spring, moving from Winnipeg for the benefit of his wife's health which has not been good. Improvement was hoped for but three days before her death she was seized with a paralytic stroke from which she never rallied. Mr. Leitch and daughter have the deep sympathy of old friends in their great loss.

By a letter from our former townsmen, Mr. David Clayton, J. P. of Lang, Sask., we learn his home has been under quarantine by the illness of one of his children with scarlet fever. The good recovery is being made and Mr. Clayton and family who have separated for some time, hope soon to be together again and enjoy a belated Christmas dinner.
