There was a large audience in the High School on Monday evening of last week at the lantern-slide-entertainment given under the auspices of the Literary Society of the school and the Methodist and Presbyterian Young People's Societies. The slides supplied by the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, were educational and illustrated splendidly Canadian scenery and resources. The lectures were given by Principal Uphall, Rev. F. G. Fowler, Miss Holmes and Mrs. (Dr.) Murray. Readings and music at numbers were also given by the students and others. Mr. J. S. McMillan presided.

A Masonic At Home given by Prince Arthur Lodge on Friday evening last was very successful. Notwithstanding inclement weather, which kept some away, there were over one hundred present and the function was a very enjoyable one. It was held in the High School, which was artistically decorated and presented an inviting appearance. The first part of the evening was devoted to social intercourse and becoming acquainted, after which Mr. Peter Muir, Worshipful Master, took the chair and conducted the following pleasing program: Piano duet, Mrs. Blackburn and Miss Mildred Caswell; Hawaiian music, two numbers, Mrs. Armstrong, S. McDunmore, Kenneth Large and Roy Patton; violin selections with piano accompaniments, Mr. Ray Pedlar, Miss Pedlar and Miss McDowell; Reading, Miss Mildred Caswell; quartette, Mrs. Blackburn, Mrs. Trimble, Mr. Holland and Dr. Murray; solo, Miss Alida Mitchell, Miss Irene Wilson, Mrs. H. B. McLean and Dr. Murray; duet, Miss Smith (Dr. Murray femininely costumed) and Mr. Holland. This was a sidesplitting number and the singers were compelled to respond to the call for more. An enjoyable banquet followed, the excellent menu being provided by Mrs. M. McDonald. Games and dancing were afterwards indulged in until an early hour.

Owing to the lack of particulars, we were unable last week to give a sketch of the life of Mrs. John McPhee, one of the oldest pioneer mothers of the township, who passed away on Thursday, Jan. 26th, in her 89th year. Her maiden name was Sarah McDonald and she was born in North Uist, Scotland, in 1833. When fourteen years of age she came with her parents to Canada and they settled at Woodstock, where five years later she was wedded to John McPhee and they shortly afterwards settled on lot 15, Con. 11, which remained her home to the end. The union was blessed with a family of nine sons and two daughters:—Alex. and Norman, of Edmonton; John and D. J. of Brantford; Nell, James and Angus, deceased; Archie, of Toronto; Dan, on the homestead; Annie, Mrs. Alex. McMillan, deceased; and Edie, Mrs. Hugh McDonald, of Michigan. Mrs. McPhee was a woman highly respected and beloved because of her amiable character, hospitality and kindness as a neighbor. She was a devoted member of the R. C. faith and the funeral took place on the following Saturday to St. John's, where the Rev. Father J. S. McGoey celebrated the requiem high mass, after which the sacred remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband, who died 26 years ago. We can recall with pleasure, many kindly incidents in the life of this lovely mother and join in expressing our appreciation of a life so well lived.

Would be so bad at times that it was necessary for me to be in bed two or three days at a time. I have doctored and taken many different medicines with little relief. Just recently I began taking Golden Medical Discovery and it has given more relief than all the other medicines I have ever taken. Being a Good Citizen

Citizenship has a duty for every citizen, not simply on election day, all the year round, and it is necessary as a municipal nominee, ready to stand for election. To be a good citizen is to be a good friend and neighbor. It is to manifest loyalty and integrity in business relations. Good citizenship acts to build up not alone the prosperity of a private concern, but the welfare of commerce and trade in general. The good citizen, singly or corporately, pays his debts. He does not keep others waiting for the money they have earned and therefore own. He has an instinctive horror of borrowing without a definite and understood prospect of repayment. He keeps his appointments. He respects the rights of the men to the same consideration from him that he wants for them. He feels that as each man does his part, is true to his own trust, minds his own business, is responsible and reliable in his own person, the average level of credit and prestige for the whole community will rise. Citizenship means a realization on the part of one man that all men are helped or hindered by his individual performance. The mean and creditable things we do that count against his react on the rest as well. As an army is judged by its soldiers, a club by its under graduates, a community is judged by its citizens. The patriot brings distinction to his home town. Citizenship, in the full round of its all-encompassing circle, takes in even the domestic demeanour and the private life. You cannot call a man a good citizen who is unfaithful—or even unfeeling—in those intimate obligations of the home and the family that are the test and the revelation of character. He is not to be praised if at the banquet board or in the crowded auditorium for a church assemblage he has much to say about the virtues, while at home, behind the doors, where the curious world does not intrude, his practices are mean and despicable. The good citizen, wherever he may be and whatever he is doing, has no reason to "fear the light."

Durham's Oldest Citizen Laid to Rest

Robert Aljoe Dies in His 97th Year

(Durham Review)

Friday last the inexorable hand of the grim monster, Death, was laid on Robt. Aljoe, for about 40 years a well-known and respected resident of Durham. Though he belonged to a past generation the present generation were no strangers to him, for until the last year, he was a familiar figure on our streets, sociable and chatty, with an interest in life as well as in the life beyond. He had a hale old age, surviving his wife by seven years and since being tenderly cared for by his daughter, Mrs. Scott. Deceased was born in Ireland away back in Nov. 1825, came to Canada with his parents, when a young man, they settling first near Barrie, shortly after we find them in Toronto and soon after in Glensel, where the best manhood years of his life were spent. He was married 60 years ago to Miss Matthews. Eight children were born to them, of whom three survive Robert, and Mrs. Matt. Scott, Durham, and Mrs. H. Crowther, Chatsworth. George and William died some years ago, the others died young. Of grandchildren there are 20, great-grandchildren 25, and even 10 great great grandchildren.

Mr. Aljoe was an enthusiastic Orangeman, having been a member since over 72 years ago and had practice as a drummer boy before that. He occasionally in his riper years, at the solicitation of friends, showed skill in the handling of drum sticks not forgotten since the days of his youth. He rarely missed the 12th of July "walk" even up to about 90 years, and maintained his interest in the Society to the last. Fitting it was that he should have an Orange funeral on Monday last, about 36 of his brethren turning out to do him the last honor.

He was a devoted member of the Methodist Church, never absent from its health, and very feelingly his pastor, Rev. Mr. Cole, dealt with incidents in his life showing his devotion to sacred things. The church was filled by many friends to listen to a touching message.

Interment took place to Durham Cemetery on Monday.

The Red and Black Tattler

Markdale H. S.—5; Dundalk—4

The fastest and closest hockey match of the season was played between the Tuxis Boys of Dundalk and the High School Boys of Markdale. Before a small crowd the battle was fast and furious. The teams were evenly matched and Markdale had to work hard to win.

The first period opened with hard checking and many rushes and after five minutes of play Markdale scored the first goal. Dundalk scored soon after and before the period ended Markdale notched another goal and the period ended 2-1.

The second period each team got a goal through hard work and clever combination.

The third period saw the boys tired but determined and before the Markdale boys knew what was going on Dundalk notched two goals, taking the lead 4-3. About 30 seconds before the end of the period Markdale tallied another goal; tying the score and necessitating an overtime period. In this period, which was five minutes each way, Markdale scored 3 in the last half minute of play, and Dundalk was unable to tie before the period ended.

The attendance at the game was very disappointing. A large number should have turned out to cheer for the locals. Though the night was not the nicest and many though the ice would be bad contrary was the case in the latter. Everybody turn out for Shelburne-Markdale game.

Markdale team consisted of: Goal, G. Littlejohns; defence, B. Hamilton and M. Henry; Forwards, Perkins and M. Littlejohns; Centre, English; subs, L. Kelly and C. Ewing.

Dundalk team consisted of: Goal, W. Stephenson; defence, F. Montgomery and P. Wellwood; wings, A. McKechnie and M. Claridge; center, F. Macintyre; subs, D. Kendall and S. Bellamy.

Don't forget to buy a ticket for the Shelburne-Markdale High Schools hockey match in Markdale rink, on Feb. 17th. Keep this date open. Watch next week's paper.
