TRAVERSTON

(Special to The Standard.)

The rush of work and auditing of Township books has prevented time for budget writing of late.

Miss Elizabeth Hughes, of Hanover suburbs, is a guest at Mrs. J. J. Peart's.

R. T. Cook has suffered acute pain the past week from sciatica. Dr. Sinclair, of Walkerton, and Dr. B. Jamieson, of Durham, were in attendance. He is much better at present.

Mrs. Henry Moffatt has been under Dr. Brad. Jamieson's care during the past week.

Mr. J. H. Stewart, teacher at No. 5, was laid off for a couple of days last week with a severe cold.

Mr. John Ellison, of the 10th con., is getting out timber for a big implement shed to be erected next summer.

Mr. Jas. C. Ross was down to Toronto last week. His millyard is getting in quite a stock of logs.

Mrs. Wm. Timmins visited kindred in Artemesia a couple of days last week and, during her absence, a group of young folks surprised her hubby and, receiving a genial welcome, had a merry night's entertainment.

Some time ago the community met at Mr. T. Glencross's vacant home on the 8th, which was made ready for the event, and having invited Mr. and Mrs. Albert McNally to be present as guests of honor, they were made the recipients of a complimentary worded address and a purse of $30. Mr. George Ritchie acted as chairman and called on Messrs. T. Glencross, W. R. Jack, G. Timmins, Mrs. W. Greenwood and others, who paid high tribute to Mr. and Mrs. McNally, as neighbors. Mr. McNally made a real happy reply and was followed by the hearty singing of "For he's a jolly good fellow." Mr. and Mrs. McNally leave about the last of February for their new home near Durham.

Many in the neighborhood were surprised to learn of the death of Mr. Samuel S. Jacques at the H. of R., Markdale. He was about fifty years of age, was well connected in the Old Land, and has spent several years of his life in this vicinity with kindred now mostly passed away. During the war, he went overseas, but was not allowed to cross the channel on active service. After the war, he returned to Canada and lived for a time in Quebec, lately coming to this part. He has been in poor health for some months, but the end was not expected so soon. He was one loyal Britisher and we regret that misfortune befell him in his latter days. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Timmins befriended him for the greater part of the past year.

Mr. Howard and gang of men have most of the telephone poles taken out of the school swamp and are on the lookout for more cedar.

Mr. Albert Stafford's sale on Wednesday, of last week, February 15th, will ever be a red letter day in the memories of a lot of folk. Mr. C. Sewell was making good headway in disposing of the big list of sale effects but before selling the live stock went to the house to sell the kitchen range. 'Twas a cold day. The crowd kept pushing in. The room was packed. "Going, going," said the vivacious Irishman, but before the knockdown, there was a crash and the whole crowd of fifty or sixty men, women and some children, the big range and furniture were hurled in one wriggling mass into the deep cellar. There was a minute of wild excitement, but the crowd were pure gold and acted nobly. No one was seriously hurt, but Mrs. Stafford's glassware and dishes suffered heavily. Your scribe was clerk and in the mixup, but he never saw a crowd act saner. The sale was concluded in good time and good prices ruled throughout. Mr. and Mrs. Stafford will leave about March 1st to open a general store in Priceville. They have been good neighbors and all unite in wishing them every success in their new venture. Mr. Joe Hall has rented the farm they are vacating.

Mr. J. C. Ross was called hurriedly to Toronto on Saturday, as his son had undergone a serious operation and was reported in a very low condition.
