When a young man, Mr. Ranton taught school at Priceville, and was married to Miss Emma Leitch, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leitch, of this place, who, with four sons and three daughters, survives him.
At a hockey match last week, Stewart McTavish got a nasty cut in the knee, which had to have a few stitches in dressing.
Two sleigh loads from here attended an entertainment at Vandeleur last week. The same evening, some attended an entertainment at Eugenia and others went to a dance at Feversham.
Two highly respected old residents and neighbors on the Toronto Line for many years, recently celebrated their birthdays and both remarkably smart for their advanced years. May they live to pass several milestones more. Mr. Andrew Carr, residing with his son-in-law, Rev. McKenzie, at Portlaw, was 91 on February 15th, and Mrs. George Swanton, who lives with her son near this village, was 82 on February 17th, when her children and grandchildren celebrated with her.

The remains of the late Mr. Henry Fowleick, who died in the West, where he had been living for some time, arrived here on the noon train on Monday for interment in the public cemetery, beside those of his wife, who died eighteen years ago. Service was held in the Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Kippen: an appropriate sermon from the Philippians 1:21: "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain." The deceased, who was 82 years of age, was a highly respected old resident of Artemesia, and lived for many years at Eugenia, where he was an official in the Methodist Church and took a deep interest in its work.

Anaemia

Thin, watery blood is no more nourishing than thin, watery milk—skim milk.
But you can soon enrich thin blood, overcome the anaemic condition and build up the whole system by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
Mrs. F. G. Simmons, 42 Curtis St., Brantford, Ont., writes: "For about eight years I suffered from anaemia. My circulation was poor, my gums and lips were pale, and my hands and feet were always cold. I was nervous and unable to sleep well. I had frequent headaches, seemed restless and easily worried or irritated. There was a buzzing sound in my ears. Indigestion was also one of my complaints, and I often was attacked by weak spells. I went to a doctor, who told me I was anaemic, but as I did not get any better I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after the first box I felt brighter and my headaches completely disappeared. I continued using the Nerve Food for quite a while. I am quite well now, and cheerfully and gratefully recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to people suffering as I did before I used this splendid medicine."

A Weekly Talk with Home

by Long Distance
"Why don't you talk home by Long Distance?" said Mr. Wynham-King, Banker, to his secretary. "I don't need to talk with your mother occasionally; it will do her good."
"The young woman, an invaluable aid to the busy banker, looked at her best for some time, and her work was done."
"I never thought of telephoning," she confessed when the conversation was made, "I'll surely try it!"
She was simply homesick; her employer had guessed that.
These weekly talks with her home have made a woman forgetful in the city's life. Her health, her work, her outlook on life have all reflected the change.
Long Distance did it! It is doing the same thing for you by bridging the gulf between them and far-away homes. Friends, Station-to-Station service with Long Distance within the reach of everyone.
After 8:30 P.M. Station-to-Station rates are about half the day rate. At midnight they become about one-quarter the day rate.
