This and That

(By The Janitor.)

If you want to find out how poor a prune you are, get your wife to tell you. She knows.

Is it not strange how insignificant some people size themselves when a subscription is sought for a good cause.

Kamloops, B.C., is said to have the longest street railway in Canada. It extends from Vancouver to Quebec, 3053 miles.

Never bear more than one kind of trouble at a time. Some people bear three—All they have now, all they ever have had and all they expect to have.

Did you ever get a good square fall on a slippery sidewalk? It's one of the best dignity reducers on the market, particularly if there is a good attendance of spectators at the performance.

And speaking of air pockets reminds us that a good many people pad their daily output pretty freely with this cheap, but necessary commodity; and they don't all hand it to you without charge either.

Air pockets are not confined to wood piles exclusively. We have heard speeches which were pretty well filled with hot air and yet the windjammer wound up with that satisfied look which goes with a real deliverance.

Isn't it peculiar how many fellows have their religion in their wife's name; also how many fellows let the wife keep her muscles up splitting wood? These fellows are generally pretty manly men when a crowd of spectators are looking on.

I suppose you have heard all about the big carnival which is going to be held in the Markdale Rink on Thursday evening, of this week, under the auspices of the Athletic Association. If you haven't heard about it, why you are not up-to-date in your knowledge of local events and you should get busy and find out particulars. Big posters are hanging around town giving full particulars. See them. One of the chief items on the program is a hockey match with brooms and a football, to be played between the Has Beens and the Never Wases. The Janitor is going to play with one of the teams and we would advise the wife of each member of the other aggregation to attach a tag with the name and address of her husband, so that the Ambulance Corps may know at which house to deliver the various unrecognizable individuals at the end of the game. The Janitor will be allowed to use a coal shovel instead of a broom and we are going to mess up the poor unfortunates, who are foolish enough to imagine that they have any rights on the ice when we are on the job. She'll sure be some game and the old rink should be enlarged to accommodate the crowd that will seek admission. Get your tickets early, so as not to be squeezed out. If it is impossible for you to come, somebody will be able to tell you all about it, after, and you can then hand your admission fee—25 cents— to some member of the committee, who will see that it reaches the Treasurer o.k.

Soldiers' Memorial

The subscription campaign for the proposed Soldiers' Memorial has reached the sum of $2500. $500 more is required. Fully nine-tenths of those who have been approached express themselves as being satisfied with the proposition. It will be out of the question to call personally upon all, especially those who reside out of town for miles around, many of whom will no doubt wish to render assistance in the commendable project, so the list may be seen at The Standard office, and subscriptions recorded. It is proposed to publish the list in The Standard on the 29th of March, when it is hoped the objective will have been reached. This is a free-will offering, but every citizen, for several miles out, should place themselves in a position to be able to say "We erected this beautiful and useful Memorial in 1922."

NOTICE !

To the people who are needing any repairs or new rims on either buggies or wagons, it will be to your interest to see me before placing your order. As it has always been my aim when in business for myself to use nothing but the best quality of hickory and oak on buggies and wagons, except repairs. I simply ignore putting on 2nd grade rims and charging the first price, as it is commonly practised in some shops. First class work guaranteed and all work done in the shortest possible time.
