The University's Public Service.

The [illegible] issue for this academic year of "The Varsity," the undergraduate newspaper of the University of Toronto, contains a list of the [illegible] activities of the provincial [illegible] service. From this report it appears that Ontario's University is doing a large amount of special work for various public and without remuneration of any kind. Though admittedly handicapped by lack of funds, the University of Toronto seems to be making a successful effort to serve the province to the uttermost. The list referred to includes a large number of interesting features that [illegible] are several [illegible] with the [illegible] and [illegible] a number of [illegible] From the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
