At the regular meeting of the Village Council held on Monday evening the members were all present, with the Reeve presiding. After passing accounts the waterworks rates were again readjusted. The extra expense added to the system by the destruction of the dam a year ago made it imperative that the rates be raised. Last year's Council put on two extra charges of 20% each, one of which was effective at the first of July last year, and the second addition at the first of January this year. A new tariff of rates has now been adopted, which will become effective from July 1st next, and which it is hoped will produce sufficient revenue to defray the expenses in connection with the upkeep and operation of the system. Mercer & Son are still selling 3lbs. Choice Black tea for $1.00.

The criticism of Police Magistrates who have no regular legal education may sound well, but any layman of common sense, who has a good knowledge of the statutes governing the type of cases he has to deal with, may be an eminently successful magistrate.
