Motor Funerals

Below are rules which should be observed at motor funerals.

1. Be on time.
2. Do not race engines, sound horn or make any more noise than possible outside of house, church or cemetery.
3. Always raise or lower small seats as needed when loading or unloading car. Also fasten and unfasten curtains as needed.
4. Distance between cars, forty feet. Always keep your car directly in line with the car in front.
5. Rate of speed. Twelve to fifteen miles per hour returning from cemetery. Do not pass other cars returning from cemetery.
6. In case of any trouble, tire, etc., sound horn and pull out to the right.
7. Always assist any driver having trouble.
8. After unloading at cemetery, pull out of line, and return in same position for loading.
9. Remove your hat when casket is being carried to, and from house and church.
10. Do not go away while service is going on in the church.
11. Positively no smoking or loud talking.
12. Be courteous and respectful.

Cooke's Church Notes.

Divine Service Morning at 11; Evening at 7. Sunday School and Bible Class at 2:30 p.m.
Choir practice Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.
Special "Mothers' Day" services next Sunday. Morning Subject: "The Grace of His Mother in the life of Jesus." Evening Subject: "Jesus commends the faith of a mother and rewards her." The choir will provide special music.

The Sunday School has a special "Order of Service" for the afternoon, the subject of which is "I am proud of my Mother," and a printed form will be given to all. This service will be worth attending and will prove instructive to all.

The Guild will hold their closing meeting for the season on Monday, May 15th, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. S. A. Morrison and will take the form of a social evening. All are welcome.

"The Records Club" has passed in the hand of Principal Morrison, who will be glad to take the names of anyone who would like to have the "Record"—40c. per annum. Join the Club at once.
The congregational singing was splendid last Sunday evening led by our efficient choir.

Take part in the responsive reading of the Scriptures at the morning service and join in the Lord's Prayer at both services.

What was your Scripture reading to-day? Did you find that when you recalled His promise that His word abideth sure?

Methodist Church Notes

Prayer-meeting on Thursday evening in the Church parlor at 7:30 p.m.

Last Friday evening, the Sunday School re-elected officers and teachers for the ensuing year. No changes were made in the Officers and only slight changes in the staff owing to the inability of a couple of the former teachers to continue in that capacity.

The Quarterly Official Board will meet on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock in the Church parlor. This is the last meeting of the Board during the Conference year and the most important. A full attendance is urged.

Sunday morning, the service will be in keeping with the character of Mothers' Day. Wear a colored flower if Mother is living, otherwise a white flower. Cars will be provided to convey those who couldn't come otherwise. Just let Miss Caroline Armstrong know that you would like to attend and she will make the necessary arrangements. In addition there will be a Baptismal service in the morning. Bring the infants.

Congratulations are in order for the Markdale Epworth League. They motored to Owen Sound on Monday evening and met Westside in the semi-final of the District Debating series. The affirmative of the subject, "Resolved that indifference is a greater hindrance to Moral Reform than Active Opposition" was supported by the Markdale debaters, Miss Mamie McLoughly and Mr. Clarence Ewing, in whose favor the decision was given by the judges, Rev. M. S. Elliott of Owen Sound North, Miss Edna Ritchie of Dundalk, and Mr. Messenger, of Markdale. Several carloads went from Markdale and were hospitably received by the Westsiders who spared no effort to make the evening a pleasant one. Sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Needless to say, Markdale's is elated over the win. The final of the series to determine the possession of the shield is with Dundalk, to be held on Monday, May 22nd, in Markdale. The subject, the negative of which will be taken by Markdale, will be "Resolved that the Professions afford a larger opportunity for Success in life than Business." Now for a united effort to retain the shield in Markdale. If Dundalk wins, at least furnish them with abundant evidence that the shield will not go to them as a result of default on our part.

Anglican Church Notes.

BEAVERDALE

Rev. C. L. Langford, rector of St. Thomas' Church, Owen Sound, and Rev. W. J. Hendry exchanged clerical work on Sunday last.

Sunday School next Sunday, May 14th, at 10 a.m., followed by Mothers' Day service at 11 a.m.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Wesley Gibson desires to express her gratitude for the kind consideration of the neighbors and friends during the recent illness of herself and family. Their thoughtfulness will not soon be forgotten and she desires to assure them that their every effort has been duly appreciated.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. David Squire wishes to convey thanks to friends and neighbours for acts of kindness and sympathy extended in his recent trouble and sad bereavement.

Address and Presentation

Recently the Harkaway friends of Miss Carrie Lyons met at the home of Mr. A. Lyons and honoured her with the presentation of a window flower basket. An address was read to which Miss Lyons made a suitable reply. Below is a copy of the address:

To Miss Carrie Lyons.

Dear friend.—A number of your friends and old acquaintances have assembled here this evening to spend a pleasant hour with you before you take your departure from our vicinity. While you have not been actively connected with the work of the church here for some time, yet we believe you have been with us in the work spiritually. We also remember the willing services you have made in the work of the church and Sabbath school in the years that are past. Therefore we feel that we should in some small way show our appreciation of your willing services and friendships, and as a slight token, we ask you to accept this Flower Stand as a small remembrance of your many friends of Harkaway and vicinity, and that God's richest blessing may be with you wherein your lot may be cast.

Signed on behalf of your Harkaway friends.

Bird Boxes

(Ottawa Citizen.)

A bird box in the back garden, or on the front lawn, so long as it is out of the reach of prowling cats, is one of the easiest ways of making a new friend, who will ask nothing, but will give much in cheerful song and entertainment. And bird friends usually come back, from year to year.

Canada's Crucifixion

North, over the border to-day in every community, leaf-hearted citizens of the Dominion are holding commemorative services for the sons of the Maple, lying in Flanders fields, who held the line for liberty from April 22nd to 24th, seven years ago. In proud and loving memory, mothers and fathers of these heroes recall the battle of battles of the World War, in which the picked conscripts of continental Europe hurled themselves for three consecutive days on the flower of youth of Canada and in the end retired baffled, leaving on the field three 10,000 dead.

The true story of the world's salvation from militarism by that little band of stalwart souls, known as the First Canadian Division, history will tell. The battle of St. Julien was the start of a series of displays of Canadian heroism and efficiency that marked the Flanders and Pearly "moments of the great war, wherever emergency occurred, and which has added to the glory of patriotic achievement the events chronicled by the names of Festubert, Givenchy, Vimy, Cambrai and a score more.

Intested men from farm and factory, numbering less than 10,000, had been placed between two French armies to block the enemy's determination to achieve the French channel ports. To Von Falkenhayn's command to his German troops to pulp the Canadians and break through, no matter the cost, an answer was given which ranks St. Julien with Thermopylae and The Alamo, with the difference that St. Julien had her messengers of victory, albeit they numbered but 400, all that was left of Canada's vanguard in the fight for civilization.

Deserted by the Algerian corps on its left; its right barred by the retreat of the extreme eastern French wing, this pigmy army stood. Doying the repeated charges of the magnificent Prussian guard, 10 service battalions of which dissolved themselves against that unbreakable human wall; scornful allies of gas and bomb these Canadians fought for 72 hours to achieve the result their commander curtly ordered in the words: "The line across St. Julien wood must be held. The Canadians will hold it."

And when, after the three-day agony, the third British army came to the relief and the battered men of the western continent marched out, no more inspiring sight was ever witnessed than the little army passing through infacing serried ranks of seasoned British warriors, each rigidly standing at "the present."

The salute of St. Julien is Canada's forever!—Cleveland News, April 22, 1922.

Municipal Elections In December

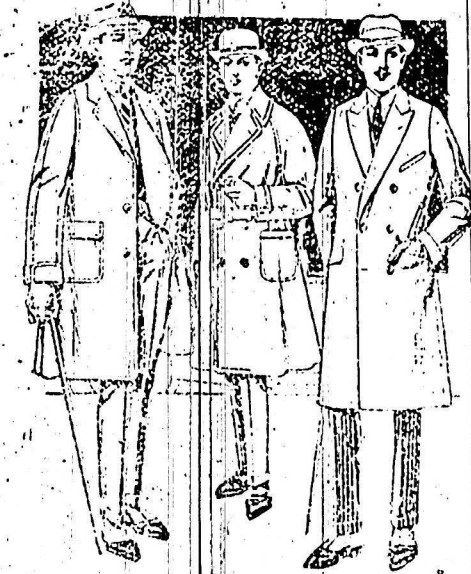

An amendment to the Municipal Act provides for the holding of municipal elections on the first Monday in December, if the municipality desires to take advantage of this provision. Thus, if Markdale wishes, the elections may be held on Monday, Dec. 4 next, for 1923. All that the Council requires to do to bring this change into effect is to pass a bylaw adopting this provision before the first of November. This change has much to recommend it. Under present conditions the nominations, election campaign, midst of the Christmas and New Year's holiday season, when citizens generally are at the busiest of the business season of the year, and when family and social festivities are at their height. By following the amendment provided the elections will be over and all the attendant turmoil settled, nearly a month before the holiday trade and the Christmas-tide

Forethought

A Northern Ontario editor tells of an old Indian that came into his office to subscribe for the paper. The editor took the money. Then the Indian wanted a receipt. The editor tried to talk him out of it. Mr. Indian insisted on getting a receipt. After making it out, the editor asked why he was so persistent in wanting a receipt. The Indian said: "Me die some day and go to big gate. Peter ask I been a good Indian. I say yes. He say, did you pay your debts? I say, yes. He say, did you pay editor for paper? I say, yes. He say, where is receipt? I not have it. I have to run all over hell to find you out and get a receipt."
