In Memoriam

PROCTOR—In loving mmory of Mrs. Ern. Proctor (nee Edna Camack), who passed away July 25th, 1917.

In our home she is fondly remembered.
Sweet memory clings to her name;
Those that loved her in life so sincerely.
Still love her in death just the same.

Cooke's Church Notes.

Sunday morning was certainly a wet one, but those who were brave enough to attend the S. S. were amply repaid. Rev. Mr. Pope's treatment of the lesson and of the Book of Daniel was most interesting and helpful. The congregations, owing to weather conditions, were not so large as usual but the services were deeply spiritual and inspiring. We trust that there will be a good turnout next Sabbath, when Mr. Pope will again occupy the pulpit. Morning subject:—"The One Thing Needful for the Church." The evening subject is:—"Our Daily Occupation as a Source of Spiritual Inspiration."

The postponed congregational meeting to moderate in a call for a minister will be held on Monday, July 31st, at 8 p.m. Let all who are interested be present.

The Senior Mission Band will meet this Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. Holley.

Flesherton

At a meeting of citizens in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening of last week Flesherton Citizens' Band, which has been in a disorganized condition for some time, was re-organized, with the following officers elected:—President, Reeve McTavish; 1st Vice Pres., G. B. Welton; 2nd Vice Pres., John Runstadler; Sec., S. E. DeCudmore; Treas., Geo. Mitchell; Manager, W. A. Hawken; Assistant, C. J. Bellamy; Bandmaster, T. C. Blakely; Band Major, Joseph Field; Citizens' Committee—M. Wilson, T. C. Blakely, Robt. Down, John Wright; Trustees, D. McTavish, G. B. Welton. About $150. are required to put the Band instruments in good condition and a subscription for that purpose is meeting with good success.

The Women's Institute, which has been very active in behalf of the Memorial Park here, has now for its objective a soldiers' monument to be erected in the Park at a cost of about $3000. We have no doubt the ladies will succeed in the project which appeals to all. Five members supplied the menu for a tea in the Park on Friday evening at which the proceeds were $18. The Band was present for an hour and lent to the pleasure of the event.

Mr. W. A. Armstrong, who recently bought and improved the late Dan. Young's residence, has sold it to Chas. McKechnie, Rock Mills, who will become a resident here.
