Traverston

July has slipped away too quickly for most folk.

Quite a number from around here have finished haying.

The whole community feel the deepest sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sullivan over the loss of their sweet and promising little baby girl from pneumonia.

Cameron Robson and Wilbert Greenwood of the 6th Con. were successful in passing the Entrance Exam and are being heartily congratulated.

It is good news to everybody to learn that Mr. Hugh Wright is able to be home again from the hospital.

Mr. John O. Greenwood has had a fine monument of Aberdeen granite erected to the memory of her late husband, Mr. Halliday, of Chesley, had the contract and the lettering is well done.

Rev. J. W. Greenwood, of ——— who is over to the parental home in Durham, accompanied by his better half and their bright boy and Miss Stone, took Rev. Mr. Cole's place in Zion on Sunday and gave a most eloquent and inspiring sermon.

Miss Mary Hastie, of Toronto, is heartily enjoying a holiday season with relatives in and around the hamlet.

Mr. John Dunbar, of Pamona, has been a faithful helper to Mr. Wm. Elrith through haying.

Mr. Arch. McArthur of the 4th Con., lately purchased a 7-foot Massey-Harris binder from A. R. McLaughlin of Durham, who with Mr. Will Torrie, of Kentuck, set it up last week.

Mr. Percy Brown, two sons, his mother, Mrs. D. Brown, and Dae strain motored from Welland on Sunday. Frank and Ed. are remaining for vacation.

Word was received last week of the death of Miss Nellie Smith, youngest daughter of Mrs. A. Smith, at Goodwood, Sask. from indigestion. She has lived in the West for some years where she has been head clerk in a store at Goodwood, and was a very fine young woman. Deep sympathy is felt for the widowed mother, whose two daughters lie buried in the wide West, and for the six brothers in the loss of their sister.

Priceville

When a body meets a body, Civic Day, Priceville.

If a body greets a body, then two hearts may thrill.

We have scarcely had any tropical heat yet this season, but we are still blessed with what some persons term "good agricultural" weather.

Don't forget the Dedication Day in the Park on Friday, July 21st. Any one wishing to dedicate flowers on the monument may do so on that day. Baseball tournament and speaking. Miss A. C. Macphail will be present.

A very happy and pleasant marriage was solemnized on Wednesday, July 5th, 1922, at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoy, Eugenia, where Mrs. Graham, of Manchester, England, and Mr. John Haines, of Kimberley, were united in matrimony by Rev. Veals, of Kimberley, while Mrs. Veals played the wedding march. The bride and groom took their place under the arch of Canadian and Myrtle ferns dotted with marguerites, her little daughter, Marion, acting as flower-girl and ring-bearer. She looked sweet in white silk tulle and lace trimming. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served in a neatly arranged corner of our Park while the bells of the town rang out congratulations. We all join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Haines a long and happy life together in their home in Kimberley.

A motor belonging to a Holland Centre picnic party while turning the corner to come into Eugenia, capsized and upset the occupants, spilling the goodies, but with a small smashing up of the car no one was very badly hurt.

A couple of our nature sports were exploring one day and made a visit under the falls. On one of the rocks they found inscribed, still plain to be seen "W. F. Moffatt, Markdale, June 8th, 1888."

(This week's items.)
