The Emergency Helper Long Distance

"Crack!" goes the machine part—right in the middle of harvest, when every hour counts.

"Help!" shouts the farmer over the telephone, as he calls up the manufacturer's service station and orders a new part.

"Sure! You'll get it this afternoon by Rural Mail," the manufacturer replies. Can you beat it for service?

Use Long Distance—the most direct line between demand and supply. Study how to apply it to your business, and save the most expensive thing in the world—time.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station
