Flesherton

(Special to The Standard)

At an early hour on Tuesday morning, Flesherton met with a baptism of fire, the most destructive ever experienced here. At 12:30 o'clock it broke out in W. Catgo's grocery, from cause unknown and, despite the strenuous efforts to stay its progress, it spread to adjoining buildings, which fell a prey to the rapidly spreading flames.

The loss on the buildings will be only partly covered by insurance. The contents were mostly saved. The residence of Mrs. Van Dusen, W. A. Armstrong, W. Moore and Dr. Murray had a close call, as also the Township Hall. A big crowd came in from the neighboring villages and all the country around. Dr. Murray, when advised of the fire, motored from Wasaga Beach in an hour and a half, which was an anxious time for him.

The band instruments, which were sent to Toronto recently to be repaired, were returned last week, and at practice were found in tune and good order. The cost was $110, towards which a good sum has been subscribed by the citizens. A quantity of new music has been purchased and we hope soon to hear pleasing strains from the newly organized organization.

A League Baseball match here last week between Markdale and Flesherton teams, the visitors won by a big margin. There was a good crowd, but the playing did not create the usual interest.

A pleasant time was spent by a number of ladies at the home of Mrs. G. A. McTavish on Friday afternoon last at a tea given in honor of Mrs. Charlie McTavish, of Ottawa, who was visiting here.

The Baptist Church, newly decorated and being for the minister and people on Sunday morning last, when Mr. Vase again occupied the pulpit, was again occupied the pulpit, on this holiday. Re-opening service last Sunday.
