An Old Timer

Mark Richardson, Aged 98, Hamilton Garden to Talk Old Times
At Brantford.

Winipeg Tribune of Aug. 29.
BRANDON, Aug. 28. With but a half year to reach the century mark, Mark Richardson, is re-visiting Brandon, his birthplace, and is the most interesting of the city can boast of just now. He talks as if it were yesterday.
The boys in Winipeg were ploughing among themselves to go to the place that is now known as Brandon and to start a settlement there.

There were only hotels in Win-ipeg. The times, I did not see a one of them there were only the boys there and we used to play football every day. I do not know if it was Winnipeg then.
I know it was Winipeg then.
I know it was Winipeg then.

Jack Miner Coming

Arrangements are being made to have Jack Miner, of Kingsville, here for an evening the last week of September. If you have ever read or heard about him you will want to see him. If you have ever heard him you will want to hear him again, so plan to be at all possible you will hear Mr. Miner tell how he started his wonderful work and see the pictures of actual happenings on his farm in Essex County. Old and young will enjoy this very fascinating story of how he cares for the wild birds and wild geese and their home on his farm.

THIS IS STRANGE TALK

(Ottawa Journal)
Miss Agnes Macphail says that in Ontario one no longer sees the beautiful farm buildings of the old days.
To the Ontario farmers who have electric lights and telephones in their buildings, who have fine gardens, and motor cars, and who have paid off mortgages by the thousand within the past six or seven years, such language will sound strange.

BASEBALL

Vandeleur 12; Markdale 5 Markdale ball team got a set-back in their championship aspirations on Thursday last when they went down before the heavy-hitting aggregation from Vandeleur, the score being 12 to 5.

The visitors went to bat first.
Dillon and H. Graham scored and E.
Wapling was left at third when the side retired. In the second, third and fourth they failed to make the circuit. In the fifth they added two more. Dillon and H. Graham again going the trick. In the sixth they succeeded in getting six. D. Graham, A. Buchanan, Roy Freeman, H. Graham, Gus. Freeman and E. Wapling being the players who crossed the plate. The seventh and eighth were short. The visitors going out in one.
Two, three, four, Sam. Buchanan and J. Grandin called in the ninth, making their score 12.

Markdale failed to count in the first or second stanza although Beard was on third and H. Mercer on 2nd in the opening stanza. Turk and Beard came home in the third. C.
Mercer was first in the fourth and Beard to third in the fifth but no runs were added. In the sixth Mar-dock, Beaton and C. Mercer were safe at the plate with Turk on third and Beard on second when the third innings was over. The seventh, eighth and ninth were scoreless.

It was a hard game to lose but the boys tried their best and Van-deleur deserved to win on the day's playing. Some of Markdale players went up in the air at critical moments and runs for the other fellows equalled. There are no excuses to submit for the defeat of the locals and they hope to be able to redeem themselves in the games yet to be played.

Markdale players were: Beard, Beaton, H. Mercer, H. Mercer, Smith, Brown, Mardock, Beaton, C. Mercer, Wapling.

Vandeleur: Dillon, H. Graham, Gus. Freeman, E. Wapling, Sam. Buchanan, S. Buchanan, D. Grandin, A.
Buchanan, Roy Freeman, Graham, Wilson and Ranney.

At a meeting of the executive of the League held in Flesherston on Friday evening the name to be played between Ceylon and Vandeleur was arranged to take place at Ceylon on Thursday afternoon of this week.
The three-cornered will be decided by three games on neutral grounds, the first between Dundalk and Markdale on Monday next at either Ceylon or Vandeleur.

The Late Mrs. E. Steer

The death occurred August 28th of a well-known resident of Keppel, Mrs. Edmund Steer. Although Mrs.
Steer had been ill for some time prior to her death, the news will come as a shock to her many friends in the vicinity of her home on Con. 13. She was married at Harkaway forty-one years ago and for seventeen years she and her husband resided there, when they moved to Chesley. They lived there sixteen years when they moved to their present home near Kemble.
She was highly esteemed in the community in which she lived and her removal will be a distinct loss. Beside her sorrowing husband, four daughters and two sons, all at home, but one daughter in Toronto, survive.

The funeral took place from her late residence, Keppel, on Thursday morning to Harkaway Cemetery.

Were Appreciated

On the occasion of the recent disastrous fire at Flesherston citizens of this village turned out in large numbers and helped to check the flames.
Some of the early ones to arrive in Flesherston were there in fifteen minutes after the fire alarm was sounded here. The following letter, which is self-explanatory, was received by Village Clerk Lucas on Saturday last: Flesherston, Sept. 1st, 1922.

The Reeve and Council of the Village of Markdale:—
GENTLEMEN:—
Permit us on behalf of the Citizens of the Village of Flesherston, to thank those from your town who so nobly and freely responded and gave heroic service to us during the recent disastrous fire. Such assistance is much appreciated by us.

We thank you.
D. McTAVISH, Reeve.
W. J. BELLAMY, Clerk.
