The Sunday School Lesson

SEPTEMBER 17, The Message of Malachi, Mal. 3: 7-18. Golden Text—Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the Lord of Hosts.—Mal. 3: 7.

Lesson Foreword—The ministry of Malachi fell in the Persian period, some time after the rebuilding of the temple; he may have been a contemporary of Ezra and Nehemiah.

In order to incite the people to rebuild the temple, Haggai and Zechariah had promised that when it was finished there would be better times.

The people were discouraged, and they were losing faith in their religion and were becoming slack in observing its precepts.

Malachi's task was to reform the irregularities which were countenanced in the temple and to recall the people to faith.
