Flesherton

(Special to The Standard)

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. Miller last week. There was a good attendance and an interesting meeting. Mrs. W. H. Thurston gave an excellent paper on Canadian Law concerning women and children, and Mrs. L. A. Fisher entertained with a pleasing reading. Mrs. DeCudmore won the prize for the best table bouquet. Light refreshments were served, as usual, and the collection was over $6.00.

The Presbyterian W. M. S. held the meeting for this month at the home of Mrs. M. Ferguson, near Ceylon, last week, when the Ladies' Aid met also. There was a good attendance and deep sympathy was felt by all for Mrs. J. L. McMullen, an esteemed member who is very ill. At the close, refreshments were served by the hostess and a pleasant time was spent.

Accidents occurred during the past few days as follows: Mr. Harry Patton was thrown from a wagon water tank by a wheel coming off. He fell between the horses on which the tank slipped forward, and had a narrow escape for his life, but fortunately sustained only a fracture of one arm. Mr. G. Ludlow met with a sprained arm and slight fracture while cranking his car. Mr. H. C. Carrington's little four-year-old son fell down the stairs, and striking the corner of the stove, got a deep cut in the head, which died freely. Dr. Turnbull attended to the injuries of all.

The School Fair to be held on the Agricultural Grounds here on Saturday, next, gives promise of being an interesting event. Six schools are preparing to take part and, with exhibits and sports, a good day is anticipated.

To secure water for use at the High School, a new well is being drilled. Mr. R. McMaster's drilling outfit is at the job and will continue until a pure supply is secured in the rock.

Friday last, was court day here. Judge Sutherland presided, but there was little to do and the sitting was short.

Rev. F. D. Fowler has invested in an automobile, which will be a great convenience to him in his work on this large field.

By appointment of Presbytery, Revs. Jones, of Priceville, and Fowler, of this place, exchanged pulpits on Sunday, to lay before the congregations the new minimum of stipend of $1500, as approved by the General Assembly. The matter was referred to the Managing Boards of the two churches.

Mr. J. J. Little, of Mount Zion, son-in-law of Mr. Johnston Cullen, Flesherton, was taken to Fergus Hospital last week, suffering with alarming blood poisoning in the arm, which developed from a cut in the hand by a hinder knife. Some improvement is reported, which relieves the anxiety of Mr. Little's friends. Mr. W. Monton accompanied the patient to the hospital.

After the summer holiday, the Methodist Young People's Society resumed work on Monday evening, when a reception was given to the High School Students. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time was spent.

Miss Lillian Lever returned to her school at Moorfield last week. Miss McLean, of Durham, took charge of Rock Mills school last week and Miss Beatty, of Inglis Falls, returned to her school near this village.

George Mitchell, jr., went to Toronto on Friday to write his supplemental on one subject, only, in which he failed in the University exams. Reg. Boyd and Jack Karstedt go to Owen Sound this week to write supplementals on subjects in which they failed in the Middle School exams.

Threshing is now in progress in this locality and grain is yielding well, with a good sample.

Married—At Chicago, on Monday, September 4th, 1922, Lieutenant Kendall S. Mitchell, a rising young attorney of that city, to Ann Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Leichenring, of Chicago, a talented young lady and kindergarten teacher. The young couple came by way of the Lakes and are on part of their honeymoon this week with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell. Numerous friends here wish Lieut. Mitchell and his bride many years of wedded bliss.

Mr. W. Whittaker, wife and child, of Paris, France, who were on an extended visit with his parents near Ceylon, left on Monday for their distant home. Mr. Whittaker gave us a farewell call last week.

Mrs. W. W. Trimble returned last week from an extended visit with her brother and daughter at Detroit.

Mr. W. J. Fairley is visiting his brother in Toronto.

Mrs. McKinnon is on a visit with friends in Toronto. Miss Margaret Spear, Feversham, is visiting the Misses Hemphill and other relatives.

Mr. Hugh Bibby, of Brighton, visited over the week-end with his brother, Dr. Bibby. The visitor travelled by motorcycle and was returning from a trip through Northern Ontario. Miss Irene Eyles returned to Toronto on Monday after an extended holiday with Mrs. Julian here.

Mrs. J. D. Jamieson returned to Toronto on Saturday, after visiting her uncle, Mr. Alf. Harrison, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bellamy visited over the week-end with the latter's parents at Honeywood.

Miss Cassie McKinley, of Toronto, is visiting Mrs. Mark Wilson and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Blakely are spending a few days with relatives in Toronto.

Mrs. W. I. Henry is visiting her daughter in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley are visiting the former's mother at Owen Sound.

Mr. Thos. Bulmer is visiting with friends in Toronto.

Miss Mabea has gone to Toronto to visit her sister.

The Misses Viola and Jean Lewis visited over the week-end with friends at Kimberley.

Mr. George Stuart, of Powassan, paid a short visit here last week.

Mrs. Turnbull visited part of last week with her sister in Toronto and motored home on Monday with the Dr., who went down on Sunday.

Mrs. B. Curry, of Chatsworth, was a visitor the beginning of the week with her niece, Mrs. G. W. Little-Johns.

Mrs. John Warling and daughter, Maud, of Toronto, are spending a couple of weeks with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cockburn, of Orange Valley.

Miss Leslie, teacher at Orange Valley, and Principal Holland here, were at Meaford on Saturday in the interests of the annual Teachers' Federation. Mrs. Holland accompanied them.

Rev. H. E. Wellwood, of Barrie, a former very highly esteemed pastor here, has been secured to conduct the anniversary services in the Methodist Church the first Sunday in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald, Art Stevenson and Tom Quamer motored from Meaford and are on a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Cairns and other friends here.

Mrs. J. D. Clarke, who was on an extended visit here with her sister, Mrs. Hickling, and other relatives, has returned to Ottawa to join her husband.

Miss Maud Richardson, of Toronto, is visiting relatives and old friends here this week.

Mrs. J. T. Wright, of Independence, Kansas, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. G. B. Welton, and the old friends here.

here, Mrs. Wright, (nee Emma Dantel) was brought up and married in Flesherton, last visited by her seven-year-old son.

The Provincial road widening to 86 feet on the Toronto Line, South, from this village is progressing. The posts for the new fence on each side have been mostly set for five miles out, and the putting on of the wire and gates will be begun, at this end, on Wednesday.

Vandeleur

(Special to The Standard.)

Miss T. Buchanan, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks with her father here.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael and children, also Mr. and Mrs. Moffatt, of Owen Sound, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. Johnston.

Messrs. G. Shannon, Chas. Boland, Elmer Warling and H. I. Graham motored to Toronto and attended the Exhibition.

Mrs. Allen, of Churhill, Miss D. McConkey, of Stroud, and Mrs. W. Ness, of Toronto, were the guests of Messrs. Robt. and J. I. Graham, and other friends here recently.

The Ladies' Aid here are having the inside of the church painted. The service will be withdrawn on Sunday afternoon, but the following Sunday, Sept. 24th, anniversary services will be held afternoon and evening. Rev. Dr. Caldwell, a former pastor, will be present and conduct both services.

School re-opened last week with Miss L. Purvis, of Markdale, in command.

Vandeleur baseball team defeated Ceylon for the seventh consecutive time in a last game on the latter's grounds on Thursday of last week by a score of 7-3. The game was caused by the League Executive ordering a former game replayed. The team had been won by Vandeleur by a score of 15-10 but Ceylon protested against the umpire, which they themselves had brought from Owen Sound, and by a vote of Flesherton, Ceylon and Dundalk the protest was granted.

The game on Thursday was one of the best of the season, featured by splendid pitching and fielding. Dillon, of the locals, hit a home-run. The local battery was—Bushman, G. Graham and R. Graham.

Miss Leila Warling spent a couple of weeks with friends in Toronto.

Born—On Sunday, Sept. 3rd, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Buchanan, a son. (One more ball player.)

Jack Almer, the man who made the Wild Goose Tame, will be in the Armouries, Markdale, Tuesday Evening, September 26th. Do not miss his treat.

To Holders of Five Year 5 1/2 per cent Canada's Victory Bonds

Issued in 1917 and Maturing 1st December, 1922.

CONVERSION PROPOSALS

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE offers to holders of these bonds who desire to continue their investment in Dominion of Canada securities the privilege of exchanging the maturing bonds for new bonds bearing 5 1/2 per cent interest, payable half yearly, of either of the following classes:

- (a) Five year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1927.
- (b) Ten year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1932.

While the maturing bonds will carry interest to 1st December, 1922, the new bonds will commence to earn interest from 1st November, 1922, GIVING A BONUS OF A FULL MONTH'S INTEREST TO THOSE AVAILING THEMSELVES OF THE CONVERSION PRIVILEGE.

This offer is made to holders of the maturing bonds and is not open to other investors. The bonds to be issued under this proposal will be substantially of the same character as those which are maturing, except that the exemption from taxation does not apply to the new issue.

Dated at Ottawa, 8th August, 1922.

Holders of the maturing bonds who wish to avail themselves of this conversion privilege should take their bonds AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE BUT NOT LATER THAN SEPTEMBER 30th, to a Branch of any Chartered Bank in Canada and receive in exchange an official receipt for the bonds surrendered, containing an undertaking to deliver the corresponding bonds of the new issue.

Holders of maturing fully registered bonds, interest payable by cheque from Ottawa, will receive their December 1 interest cheque as usual. Holders of coupon bonds will detach and retain the last unmatured coupon before surrendering the bond itself for conversion purposes.

The surrendered bonds will be forwarded by banks to the Minister of Finance at Ottawa, where they will be exchanged for bonds of the new issue, in fully registered, or coupon registered or coupon bearer form carrying interest payable 1st May and 1st November of each year of the duration of the loan, the first interest payment accruing and payable 1st May, 1923. Bonds of the new issue will be sent to the banks for delivery immediately after the receipt of the surrendered bonds.

The bonds of the maturing issue which are not converted under this proposal will be paid off in cash on the 1st December, 1922.

W. S. FIELDING, Minister of Finance.
