Flesherton

(Special to The Standard)

East Grey Fall Fair here on Thursday and Friday, last, was favored with delightful summer weather and the largest attendance for many years. In every respect the Fair was a splendid success and gratifying to the organizers who were diligent in their efforts to make it such. The exhibits in all lines were good, but in some classes excelled both in quantity and quality. On Friday afternoon Miss Agnes McPhail formally opened the Fair with a neat address, which was well received, and Mr. G. Leeson, M.P.L., also spoke in a pleasing manner. A jacking feature was the parade of school children to the grounds, where, before dispersing, all joined in singing "The Maple Leaf Forever." The schools taking part were: Ceylon, Eugenia, Rock Mills, Portlaw, Springhill and Flesherton. The parade was led by Flesherton band, which supplied good music during the afternoon and evening. The races were a big attraction and especially good, with sixteen horses in the ring.
