Presentation
The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Colwell Oldfield of Cobden, were the scene of a very pleasant social event on Monday and Tuesday evenings when their friends gathered at their home to show in a very tangible way their good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Oldfield.

Mrs. Oldfield was formerly Miss Janet E. Livingstone, of Markdale, who for the last year was teacher of Cobden School, where she made many warm friends.

On Monday evening, after a few kindly expressions of good will and appreciation by Rev. Mr. Rose, the presentation of a beautiful quarter oak china cabinet was made on behalf of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Margaret Rose read an address. On Tuesday evening many other friends and well-wishers gathered at Riverside Farm, and after a pleasant evening spent in games, contests and music, Messrs. Bert Henderson and Robert Watson presented Mr. and Mrs. Oldfield with two beautiful Japanese grass chairs, a silver hake dish and Pyrex pie plate on behalf of the Methodist Church and friends.

Rev. Mr. Curran read a complimentary address. Mr. and Mrs. Oldfield expressed their appreciation and gratitude for these generous gifts in a few well chosen words.

Dainty lunches were served by the ladies and the evenings were most enjoyable.

25 YEARS AGO.

From The Standard Files of October 28th, 1897.

A large gang of men are working on the new skating rink.

Hill's new block is up and roofed.

Jos. Lang, son of the editor of the Owen Sound Star, has purchased the Hepworth Journal.

Dr. G. B. Holmes has purchased the Reynolds brick residence with two-acre lot.

Mr. George Lamb will hold a credit sale on Friday, November 5th.

Lauriston—Mr. Sam. Wright, of the 10th line, is erecting a new frame house.

East Mountain—Very few farmers have threshed yet, but all are busy with their fall plowing.

Victoria Preceptory No. 253, R.B.P., meets in the Orange Hall, Markdale, on Tuesday on or after the full of the moon in each month. Visiting brethren always cordially welcomed.

R. A. Crawford, W.P.; J. J. Richardson, Secretary.

West--Whittaker

Emma Gertrude Whittaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Whittaker, of Ceylon, was united in marriage on Wednesday, October 10th, 1922, to Dr. Stephen E. T. West, of Angus. The Rev. F. N. Bowes, of Markdale, conducted the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives. The bride's dress was of white charmeuse and lace. Her flowers were American beauty roses. The ceremony took place in the beautifully decorated living room. The bride entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Jolley, of Shelburne. After a buffet lunch the happy couple left for a wedding trip to Toronto and New Liskeard. They will reside at Angus.

Pink--Gibson

A very pretty autumn wedding took place Wednesday afternoon, October 11th at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gibson, 16 Central Street, Guelph, Ont., when their only daughter, Laura Edna, was united in marriage to Harold C. Pink, of Brantford, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Pink, of Woodstock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. J. Hind in the presence of about twenty-five guests and took place under a profusion of evergreen and autumn leaves.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a travelling suit of navy blue day-ties with seal trimmings, and a large French hat of black velvet and wore a corsage bouquet of Columbia roses. Miss Geraldine Matson, of Toronto, acted as bridesmaid and wore a navy blue Canton crepe dress trimmed with sand, a fox fur and a black peigne velvete hat, with corsage bouquet of Columbia roses. The groom's suit was of blue flannel, of Guelph, cousin of the groom. Many beautiful and costly gifts, among which were several valuable pieces, were received by the young people, showing the high esteem in which they are held.

Guests were present from Toronto, Niagara Falls, N. Y., Woodstock and Midland.

After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, after which the bridal couple left to spend their honeymoon in Detroit, and other points. On their return they will make their home in Brantford.

The bride was a former Markdale girl.

Mrs. Alfred Chelew

After being ill for some time, Mrs. Alfred Chelew passed away at her late residence, 23 Rosemont Ave., Toronto, on Friday, October 13th.

The deceased, who is the second daughter of the late John and Christine Lyons of this place, was a teacher in the public school here, and is survived by five sons and three daughters, namely: Jack, Will and Gordon, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Morley and Clifford at home; Mrs. Ted Veigh, Mrs. Norman Kemp and Miss Pearl Chelew at home.

Mrs. Chelew was one of the pioneers of Markdale and will be remembered by a number of the older residents.

In last week's issue we published the death of her brother, W. S. Lyons, of Sault Ste. Marie. Deep sympathy is felt for those who have been bereft of two in so short a time.

Death of James Brodie

James Brodie, one of the most highly esteemed old residents of Glenora Township, passed away in the Owen Sound Hospital on Monday, October 23rd. The deceased was taken to the hospital about two weeks ago for treatment and it was hoped that he would have regained his usual health.

The late Mr. Brodie was born near Toronto seventy-nine years ago, and came to Glenora about forty years later.

He is survived by Mrs. Brodie and five sons and three daughters, viz: William, in Saskatoon, Sask.; Thomas, in Glenora; Robert, at Galtborough, Sask.; Daniel and Archie, in Glenora; Mrs. T. E. Renner, at Aylmer; Mrs. Wm. McNally, at Terrace, Man.; Mrs. Walter Tebbitt, near Markdale.

The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon from his late residence, 12th Con., Glenora, to Markdale Cemetery. Service will be held at the house at 1:30 o'clock.

H. McInnis, Markdale, for watch repairing.

Anglican Church Notes

Collectors will be taken next Sunday in all the Anglican Churches in Ontario in aid of the re-building of the Churches in the fire-swept areas of Northern Ontario.

Mary Matthews and Madge Lucas sang a pretty duet in the Church last Sunday morning.

The Ladies' Guild have decided on a Fowl Supper and Concert to be held in the Armouries, Markdale, on Thursday, November 2nd.

Canada's Pride

Canada has many institutions of which she is justly proud, but there is one of which at least a million of Canadians are particularly fond. It is the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, which has kept Canada to the fore in the newspaper world. That great family and farm paper goes on year after year improving in every department until it has reached a point of proficiency that places it far in the van. The publishers promise even greater value for 1923. It is already the greatest value on this Continent and no home can well afford to be without it.

Public Meeting

A meeting of all citizens to discuss ways and means of raising funds to assist the Northern Ontario fire sufferers will be held in the Public Library, Markdale, on Thursday evening, Oct. 26th, 1922, at 8 o'clock. J. A. McArthur, Reeve.

H. McInnis, Markdale, for watch repairing.
