A HARD ROW TO HOE

It may prove to be a rich row to harvest. Of all the many classes that go to make up the strength of Canada, the farmer appreciates best the value of patience and industry and the importance of thrifty living. With courage and determination he turns hard rows into fruitful ones and barren acres into rich soil.

This Bank knows the farmer, his problems and difficulties, and knows how to serve him in a practical manner.

We shall be pleased to have you consult with our nearest Branch.

Kimberley

(Special to The Standard.)

Mr. and Mrs. Dillon returned home on Friday last after two weeks' honeymoon. They were treated to a very un-musical serenade, which ceased when a liberal treat was given.

Mr. Hadden Hutchinson is home, after spending a few years in France and Germany on re-construction work.

Mr. George Burritt had a very successful sale on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Burritt leave this month for their new home in Orange Valley.

Mr. Carrol, of Thornbury, is installing a new furnace in Mr. George Proctor's house.

Mr. Norman Burritt fell from an apple tree in Mr. W. T. Ellis' orchard, and is suffering from two badly sprained wrists.

Mrs. McMillan, of Proton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson. The O. W. I. have received a travelling library from the Educational Department. The library in the Community Hall will be opened this week.

Miss Acheson, of Sigo, spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Hutchinson.

Mrs. Allen, a widow of "the cross-way," lost several ducks on the night of the eighteenth. We should very much like to know who the thieves were, as we could claim the reward offered.

(Intended for last week.)

Apple picking is well advanced. The crop has been a heavy one and everyone is trying to take care of as much as possible. Mr. W. T. Ellis has a good force on and is about half through. He is a member of the "Fruit Growers" and can dispose of his crop with fair prices. He has yet about 300 bbls. to pick.

We are sorry to report Mrs. E. Gilbert badly hurt from falling from an apple tree while picking apples.

Mrs. (Rev.) Veals and Brimley spent a pleasant holiday with Dr. and Mrs. McKee, of Thornbury, this week.

A number of our citizens attended Markdale Fair and report a good time.

A pleasing event took place at the Presbyterian Manse, Markdale, on Tuesday, October 10th, 1922, when Elda Arletta, youngest daughter of Mrs. Jas. Lawrence, of this place, was united in marriage to Earl Clifford Dillon, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dillon, of Thornbury. The bride looked charming in a new velvet suit trimmed with beaver, with black hat to match. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's mother where dinner was served to the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Dillon left on a trip to Thornbury, Barrie and Allandale. We join with their many friends in wishing the young couple a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Miss Edna Burritt is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. A. Graham, of Vandeleur.

The W. M. S. held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Abercrombie on Wednesday last. Miss Mary Stafford was chosen delegate to attend the Convention at Chatsworth. Last, but not least, is the report of

No Appetite

Nervous exhaustion leads to distaste for food. The nerves of the stomach are weak, digestion fails and you become generally upset and out of sorts.

The secret of complete restoration is in getting the nervous system fully built up.

Mrs. R. Cheney, 208 Richmond St., Chatham, Ont., writes:

"I was troubled with indigestion, which caused me many sleepless nights. I would be in terrible distress at times, and would get no relief for two or three hours. For fifteen months I ate nothing but Shredded Wheat biscuits, as I dare not eat anything else. I did not know what to do, as I had tried so many different remedies, as well as doctors' medicines, without gaining permanent relief. Finally I got some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and while on the second box noticed that I was improving. I continued the treatment until I am now fully restored, and have returned to my regular diet. My husband has also taken Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with splendid results, so we are glad to recommend it to others."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmansons, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

The concert and play given by the young people of the community on Tuesday, October 10th. The whole concert was a success. Special mention should be made of the play, "The Ghost Story." It was good and very well acted, especially the parts of Cro and Anna. Why could we not have it over again sometime, as the night was wet and not so many out?

Meet me at the Fowl Supper in the Armouries, Markdale, on the evening of November 2nd.

Holland Centre

(Last week's items.)

We are glad to see Mr. Wesley Troughton around again after his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Eagle, who have been visiting their son, Rev. A. J. Eagle, left for their home at the Cambridge on Tuesday.

Mr. Sparrow is visiting friends in Toronto.

Mrs. Ford Bull returned home from the West on Monday.

Thanksgiving Services were held in the Methodist Church last Sunday. There was a good turnout at both services, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The Rev. Mr. Letford preached eloquent and inspiring sermons at both services.

Mrs. Farley, a highly respected resident of Holland, passed away on Saturday last, after a long and severe illness born with Christian fortitude, at the age of 61 years. She was a consistent member of the Anglican Church where she worshipped regularly until her illness prevented. She will be greatly missed in the community. She is survived by three sons, Richard, Russell and Thomas, all at home, and eight daughters, viz:

Mrs. Wm. Hampton, of Holland; Mrs. West, of Kemble; Carrie, of Holland Centre; and Ethel, Christina, Mary, Clara and Bernice at home. The funeral was held on Tuesday to St. Mark's Cemetery and was the largest ever seen to that cemetery. Rev. Mr. Nicholson, her pastor, conducted the services at the home, church and grave side. At the church the choir sang especially appropriate music and the Rev. A. J. Eagle sang "I heard the voice of Jesus say." The late Mrs. Farley was a woman whom it was a pleasure to know, and whom it was a honor to have for a friend. The sympathy of all goes out to the family in their sad bereavement.

Mrs. R. J. Colvin, of Minneapolis, Minn., is visiting friends in this neighborhood, and her many friends are pleased to meet her again.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dedrick, of Owen Sound, and Mrs. (Capt.) McPhee visited with Mr. and Mrs. Carson Price on Friday.

Mrs. Wallace, of Desboro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. McKinley.

Miss Eliza Troughton, a highly respected resident of the village, passed away on Saturday, October 14th, in her 56th year. She was a consistent member of the Methodist Church, where she worshipped regularly until her illness prevented. She is survived by three brothers, John and Edward, in the West, and Francis, of Arthur. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Mount Zion Cemetery, and was well attended. The Rev. A. J. Eagle conducted the services at the home, church and grave, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Wakefield.

Meet me at the Fowl Supper in the Armouries, Markdale, on the evening of November 2nd.

Walters Falls

(Intended for last week.)

Mr. Stewart Acheson has returned from the Western harvest fields.

The Children's Day Service in St. Philip's Church on Sunday afternoon was well attended and the children did their part as Choir very well. Mr. W. Lemon, Superintendent of the School, read the lesson.

Rev. Mr. Gibson motored Mrs. Price, Miss L. Dixon and Mr. Lemon to attend Sunday School Convention.

Miss Mark attended the Teachers' Convention in Owen Sound last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Bell returned home last week from a visit in Toronto.

Mr. R. Hanna had some large potatoes on exhibition in the store, weighing four pounds.

(This week's items.)

Most successful anniversary services were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday and Monday, October 15th and 16th. The Church had been very tastefully decorated for the occasion by a number of the lady workers. Rev. M. S. Elliott, B. A., of Owen Sound, was the special preacher for the day, and his sermons were rich in spiritual power and practical application, and were greatly enjoyed by the splendid congregations which gathered to listen to them, and their influence will not soon pass away. On Monday the ladies again gathered in the basement and covered the five large tables with a bountiful supply of good things to suit all tastes, and they were kept busy for two hours waiting upon the friends from the village and community around who came to enjoy the Anniversary Supper. Following the supper, a program of music, vocal and instrumental, recitations, readings, etc., was rendered in the church. Every item was good, the rapid attention and splendid behavior of the audience being ample evidence of the quality of the program, and of the appreciation with which it was listened to. At the conclusion of the program, the Pastor expressed the gratitude of all to the ladies who had decorated the church, and provided the supper, and to those who had contributed to the program. The Thanksgiving on Sunday was in excess of that of last year, and the proceeds from the supper on Monday will be devoted to providing new stoves for the heating of the church.

Mr. Robt. Reynolds was in Toronto for a few days last week.

Watch for the Goblins and Witches of the Women's Institute on October the 31st at the Hall.

While cranking a lady's car last Wednesday at his home near here, Mr. Gordon Cathage had the misfortune to have the crank slip out of place and, revolving rapidly, struck Gordon on the mouth, loosening several teeth and cutting the upper lip so badly that Dr. Eagle found it necessary to put in seven stitches and one stitch in the lower lip. While very painful and swollen, it is surprising it is no worse.

Mr. Keiffer, of Meaford, preached in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening. The congregation were delighted to hear Mr. Howe, of Meaford, sing a solo; also Mr. Keiffer, while Mr. and Mrs. Keiffer sang together, all of which was much enjoyed.

Rev. Mr. Veals, of Kimberley, will have charge of the service next Sunday evening in the Methodist Church. A large bale of various articles of clothing for all ages and bedding was contributed by the community and packed by some members of the Women's Institute last Thursday evening at Mrs. Olmstead's for the Northern Fire Relief.

Miss Vera Olmstead is visiting in Owen Sound.

The members of the Anglican Church purpose holding a social at the Rectory on Friday evening.

Wodehouse

(Intended for last week.)

Wedding bells are ringing in this vicinity.

The Anniversary Services of New England Church will be held on Sunday, October 29th, when Rev. E. M. Burgess, of Walters Falls, is expected to preach at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Clara Wiley and daughter have returned to her parental home here, after spending the summer in the West.

A number from here attended the Markdale Fair on Wednesday last and helped to make one of the largest crowds the Fair has had for some time.

Mr. Willard Wiley has purchased the former John Hutchinson farm from his uncle, Mr. Jas. Wiley, sr.
