

UNITED STATES INVITED TO ATTEND CONFERENCE ON NEAR EAST PROBLEMS

A despatch from Paris says:—Japan, Jugoslavia and Roumania for France, Italy and Great Britain have agreed to invite the United States to participate officially in the Near East peace conference at Lausanne, Switzerland, November 13. This decision was reached after a week's discussion of the form of the invitation to be issued to the conference.

The suggestion to ask the United States to participate officially came from Lord Curzon, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs. The invitation will be handed to the State Department in Washington by the Hon. H. G. Harstad, Franklin Bouillon, Vivian, Legras and Bompard, the last named former Ambassador to Turkey, has all—to the United States, Turkey, Greece, France, Great Britain, Italy, however, remains to be made.

TEN MILLIONS ADDED TO CANADA'S GAINS

Removal of Cattle Embargo Will Benefit Farmers and Transportation Companies.

A despatch from London says:—The removal of the embargo on Canadian cattle will mean a gain to the Canadian farmers, railways and steamship companies of almost ten million dollars a year. This is the estimate made by the experts who assisted the Canadian Ministers in the recent conference on embargo removal with the British Ministers. They point out that where the Canadian farmers now receive only two to three cents a pound for cattle sent to the United States, or less than cost in many cases, the throwing open of the English market will allow them to obtain five to six cents per pound. It is estimated that they will ship at least two hundred thousand head annually to this side, which will mean a minimum sum of five million dollars in the pockets of Canadian farmers.

DE VALERA ONCE MORE IN LIMELIGHT

The Rebel Leader Summoned Second Dail Eireann and Nominated State Council.

A despatch from Dublin says:—Eamon de Valera has just made a new move by resigning the second Dail Eireann, which constituted itself the Republican Government, and nominated a council of state.

De Valera always has contended that the second Dail had never been formally dissolved. He refused to recognize the Provisional Parliament, in replacing it, especially challenging its Parliament's capacity to interfere with political funds in the United States. His captured correspondence revealed him doubtful of his ability to establish a Republican Government, mainly because he could not count on support from the army.

On Thursday night, however, the Publicity Department issued an official statement which showed that he changed his decision and that the second Dail met in secret session.

Western Grain Rushed Through by Rail

A despatch from Port Arthur says:—The head of the Lakes is now witnessing a tremendous rush of grain shipments of grain from the Canadian West, both on the Canadian Pacific and on the Canadian National Railways, such as never before has been known in the history of these two ports.

All rail shipments do not usually commence until December 12 or thereafter, when lake navigation has closed, but during the last few days cars a day, representing about eighty carloads of grain have been sent eastward for the Eastern markets.

Lausanne Parleys Approved by Turks

A despatch from Ankara says:

The Turkish Nationalist Government, it is learned, will not object to the holding of the peace conference in Lausanne, Switzerland, and is agreeable to the date proposed, November 13.

The financial adviser to the Turkish delegation will be Hassan Fehmi Bey, who is now Finance Minister in the Ankara Government, and the General Secretary Resid Safvet Bey, prominent jurist and authority on international law.

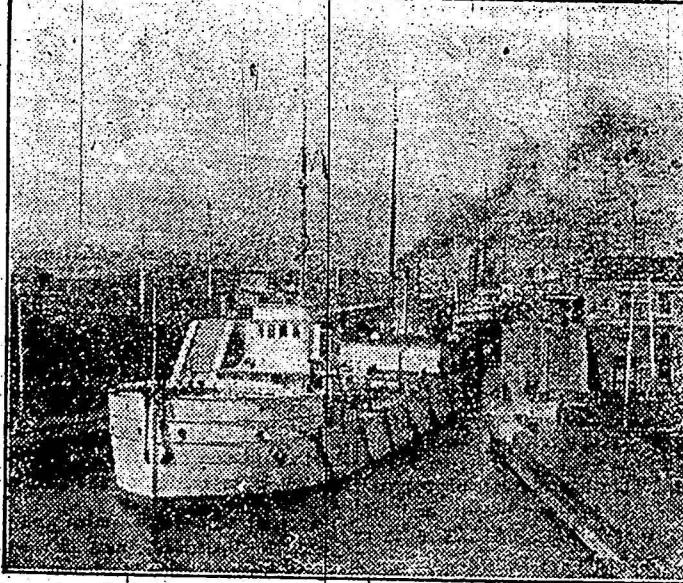

Ottawa 8-Year-Old Clothes Haileybury Baby

A despatch from Cobalt says:—The local Relief Committee has received a baby's sweater coat from Ellen Wood, 368 Slater Street, Ottawa, which that eight-year-old maiden knitted with her own hands after spending money to buy the wool. The dainty little garment was presented to Violet Pearl McLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McLeod, Haileybury, who was exactly four days old when the fire swept across the country.

GRAIN VESSELS CROWDING THROUGH THE LOCKS

Canada's big grain crop will keep both shipping and railway lines busy until well into next summer. In the meantime, the grain vessels are hurrying their big cargoes east in an effort to get as much out of the west as possible before navigation closes at Sault Ste. Marie.

To Canada's Pioneers

WE GIVE THANKS.

"... We do appoint Monday the sixth day of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving to Almighty God for the bountiful harvest and other blessings with which Canada has been favored this year, and we do invite all our loving subjects throughout Canada to observe the said day as a day of general thanksgiving."

In the above paragraph His Excellency the Governor-General, calls to thanksgiving the people of Canada. Any special emphasis is laid upon the harvest, and well it may be. Canada this year, from east to west and from north to south, has enough and to spare. Production of every kind has been ample; our grain elevators are overflowing; our mines, after a long period of idleness, are working at maximum capacity; the demand for forest products is fully equal to output, and greater developments are anticipated.

Canada's natural resources are becoming increasingly important as one looks over the field of industry. Any review of domestic or foreign trade emphasizes the fact that, in the seven classes in which trade returns are segregated, the primary and basic source of supply are the land, the fisheries, the mines and the forests. These, with our developed and potential water-powers, constitute the foundation upon which the Canadian economy rests.

Canadians are proud of their country, proud of its resources in peace and war, contented and happy because of the efforts they have made. They are, however, determined that those who share their heritage shall be such as will appreciate its many advantages and be prepared to adapt themselves to our country and its conditions. There is still much pioneering work to be done, in every line of activity; the field is large and workers are needed, but it is needless at the expense of lowering the standard already attained by our people.

Let us give thanks, on this Thanksgiving Day and every day, to the Almighty, for our great resources, for our natural resources, we must admit that they exist; conditions prior to the advent of our ancestors. They existed, but of what value were they? Imagine us of early exploring all bear hunting! We human forms on all sides. CANADA'S FISHERIES

The Natural Resources Intelligence Branch of the Department of the Interior at Ottawa says:

It is not generally appreciated, even by Canadians, that two of the four great sea fishing areas in the world border on Canada. In addition, the lakes and rivers of the Dominion constitute approximately one-half of the fresh water of the globe, while Hudson Bay may be regarded as a reservoir.

Compared with the fisheries of leading nations, our fishing industry ranks third, being exceeded only by Great Britain and the United States. The average value during the past ten years has been $40,000,000 and the average annual weight of fish taken is 340,000 tons.

More than 1,200,000 fish eggs of the different species were collected by the Hatchery Branch of the Department of Marine and Fisheries in 1921. In addition to the eggs collected by the Department, 600,000 rainbow trout eggs and 380,000 speckled trout eggs were purchased from commercial firms; 507,000 rainbow trout eggs, 200,000 cutthroat trout eggs, 800,000 speckled trout eggs, and 85,000 brown trout eggs were received from federal and state departments of the United States in exchange for Atlantic salmon eggs. A surplus collection of 1,368,000 salmon trout eggs included in the above statement of federal collections from the hatchery at Whirlton, Ontario. She is a popular London hostess.
