

PHOTO -- PLAY S THIS FRIDAY "COME ON OVER" One of the best plays "STORK'S MISTAKE" A comedy so comical at it for a long time the wrinkles of worry Admission 30 and 15 cents Show starts at 8 P. M. C. E. WALDEN Craven--Ritchie

The Finest Green Tea is undoubtedly "SALADA"

It is pure fresh and wholesome and the flavor is that of the true green leaf.

Stability WHEN you are dealing with a Branch of this Bank you are dealing with a fully equipped unit of a Bank with resources in excess of $650,000,000 and with world-wide banking connections and services.

Ford THE UNIVERSAL CAR The Last Reduction of $50 on Ford Touring Cars establishes a new low level never before reached.

New Ford Prices Runabout $552.85 TOURING 595.75 Coupe 780.85 Sedan 877.45

T. H. REBURN The Ford Dealer, Markdale

BATTERIES WINTER STORAGE WHEN YOUR car is laid up for the winter, store your battery with us. A battery that is to remain out of use for over two months should be taken to the service station and placed in "Winter Storage."

MONUMENTS Come to the Matthews' White Barber Shop for a First-Class Hair Cut & Shave.

Flesherton

After a long and trying illness, borne with great fortitude and Christian resignation, Catherine Alice McMullen, beloved wife of Mr. J. L. McMullen, J.P., passed away at her late home near Ceylon on Tuesday morning, October 24th, 1922, aged 64 years. She was a life-long resident of Artemesia, a daughter of the late Thos. Kells, for many years a leading official in the township. She was born near Vandoeur, where she was married in February, 1883, by the late Rev. Andrew Wilson. Since then she lived on the farm on which she died. Mrs. McMullen was not only a devoted wife and mother, deeply attached to her family and home, but she was a good neighbor, generous and kind to the needy and distressed. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church here and will be greatly missed in the Ladies' Aid and W.M.S. A feature of her life was her strong missionary spirit to carry the Gospel to those who had it not. By her benevolence, much of it unknown, needy Sunday Schools in the far West were helped and encouraged in their work. Many will be blessed because she lived. The funeral took place to Flesherton Cemetery on Thursday afternoon, service being held in the Presbyterian Church conducted by Rev. F. G. Fowler, who spoke from Cor. 15, "O Death, where is thy sting; O Grave, where is thy victory?" A fitting tribute was paid to the exemplary life of the departed, to whom death had no sting. Mrs. Fowler and Mrs. McCallum sang "Lead Kindly Light" effectively. The pall bearers were: F. and G. H. Cairns, F. Chard, W. J. Stewart, S. Hemphill and A. Myles. Beautiful floral tributes were given by The Family; the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid here; Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Buckley; Mr. and Mrs. S. Marshall; Dr. J. A. Graham; Dr. J. A. Boyd; Gordon McMullen, and Miss Hearst, all of Toronto; T. Eaton Company, of Montreal, N. B., with whom a son of the deceased is employed. Mrs. McMullen was the mother of eleven children, three of whom predeceased her, an infant, Jas. L., Wm. K., who died 19 years ago; and Charles, killed in the War. The living are: Gordon, Montreal, N.B.; Stanley, Fred, Austin and Mrs. Buckley, of Toronto; Mrs. (Dr.) W. R. Hawke, Medicine Hat, Alta.; Allie and Ernest, at home. All but Gordon were home for the funeral together with Mrs. Buckley's husband. A brother and two sisters survive: Wm. Kells, Maple Creek, Sask.; Mrs. H. Spurling, Wilby, Sask.; Mrs. P. Flint, of Pedro River; also six half sisters, viz. Mrs. A. W. Sheldon, Maple Creek; Mrs. W. J. McCallum, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. (Rev.) P. C. Cameron, Orillia; Mrs. A. S. Hendry, B. C.; Mrs. A. Myles; Kimberley; and Miss Edna Kells, Edmonton, Alta.

We learned with regret last week of the death of Miss Anna J. Anderson, who died on October 12th, 1922, at the home of her brother, David, at Sinitaluta, Sask., after a protracted illness. Miss Anderson was the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. Anderson, who lived for a number of years in Orange Valley, and later at Markdale and Flesherton. She was a very highly esteemed young woman, and previous to her illness had been for some time a Y. W. C. A. Secretary in Toronto.

At the funeral of the late Mrs. John Bellamy last week, the family pastor, Rev. J. H. Oke, officiated. Service was held at the house at which a fitting discourse was given, the subject being, "Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life." The pall bearers were two sons and four grandsons of the deceased, viz. Carlton Bellamy, Lindsay; Fred., Collingwood; Frank Patton, Walkerton; George Patton, Owen Sound; Delbert Patton, Toronto; Roy Patton, Flesherton. Other relatives from a distance were: Mrs. C. Phillips and Mrs. Harpell, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Tremp and daughter, Hanover; and Mrs. Mark Wilson, of Durham.

Mount Zion Methodist Church was favored with delightful worship for anniversary services on Sunday, which were well attended. Services were held morning, afternoon, and evening and good sermons were delivered by Rev. W. G. Wakefield, the acting pastor, and Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Eagle, of Holland Centre. Quarterly Communion services were held in the Methodist Church here on Sunday, a week earlier than usual, owing to the Pastor leaving on three weeks' holidays, part of which will be spent on his annual hunting outing in Muskoka. He leaves on Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Oke and Miss Oke to visit in Toronto.

The Methodist Young People's Society held a Halloween Social Monday evening, at which a pleasant time was spent. The costumes represented hard times and many unique outfits were worn. The members of the High Falls Hunt Club leave this week for their annual hunting holiday at Boakley, Parry Sound. The company will consist of Geo. Mitchell, W. H. Thurston; G. B. Wolton, Jim Hales, Sam Pedlar and J. W. McKee, of Flesherton; P. Munshaw, Eugeneis; W. Hill, Markdale; T. Lockhart, Dundalk; Both McWilliams, Gal; and J. S. Hudson, Brookline, Ont. Mrs. DeCudmore gave a birthday party for her little daughter, Helen, on Monday afternoon, at which 18 little tots and their mothers were entertained.

Service in the Methodist Church next Sunday morning will be withdrawn. In the evening lantern slides will be shown. At the Presbyterian church Rev. G. W. Rose, of Corbetton, will preach in the afternoon.

Mr. W. Miller is nursing a badly sprained wrist injured while cranking a car on Sunday evening.

Mr. A. E. Bellamy has rented John Bellamy's residence and will move to it this week, the latter has gone to spend the winter with his son at Lindsay.

For the winter months service at Rock Mills Baptist church will be held in the afternoon in place of the evening when service will be held at Ceylon in place of the afternoon.

The friends here of Rev. L. F. Klipp, a former highly esteemed pastor of the Baptist church, are pleased to learn of his returning from Montreal to Toronto to become editor of the Baptist church paper.

Mr. Henry Down leaves on a hunting holiday up North. Mrs. Down will accompany him to visit at Powassan and Parry Sound.

Mr. A. B. Clark, teller in the Bank of Montreal, has received notice of transfer on Wednesday to the branch at Delta, near Ottawa. He visited his old home at Meaford over the week-end.

Mr. Bert Fawcett has returned from the West where he spent the harvest and threshing season. Mr. Jack Karstedt was home from Owen Sound Collegiate over the week-end.

Messrs. Alf. Down and Wes. Armstrong motored to Detroit on Saturday to make friends a short visit.

Mrs. M. McNally and two boys are visiting her old home at Collingwood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hyland and children, of Weston, are visitors at here; Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Buckley; Mr. and Mrs. S. Marshall; Dr. J. A. Graham; Dr. J. A. Boyd; Gordon McMullen, and Miss Hearst, all of Toronto; T. Eaton Company, of Montreal, N. B., with whom a son of the deceased is employed.

Editor Irwin, of Durham, son, Frank, wife and niece, accompanied by the editor's daughter, Mrs. Kearney, of Bolton, motored on Sunday and among the old friends, gave us a pleasant call.

Mrs. Ern Russell, of Rock Mills, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, at Dungan last week and was accompanied home by her sister, Alice, to visit a few days.

Mrs. Dyer, who visited her sister, Mrs. Jos. Backburn, here, left on Saturday to visit her daughter in Detroit.

Mrs. G. A. McTavish and little son were week-end visitors with friends at Owen Sound.

(Intended, for last week) Mr. W. J. Caswell received word some days ago of the death of his eldest brother, Mr. Samuel Caswell, who died at his home at Cadillac, Sask., on September 30, in his 79th year. His remains were entered at Delorajhe, Man., beside those of his wife who died over twenty years ago. Mr. Caswell was born in Janark County from where he came to Artemesia and lived for about a year at the old home on Toronto Line. He afterwards lived at Orillia from where he moved to the West about 32 years ago. Six sons and one daughter survive him.

Death came suddenly to the home of Mr. John Bellamy here on Sunday morning when his beloved wife passed away in her bed with heart failure. Returning a few days ago from visiting her son and daughters at Lindsay and Toronto, she caught cold which aggravated an old bronchial trouble, but was about her home on Saturday at morning she was given attention by her nephew, but her husband entering a short time after was shocked to find life extinct. Mrs. Bellamy was one of the oldest residents here and was highly respected in the community. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Church. The deceased, who was 77 years of age, was born near Cannington where she was married to Mr. Bellamy 53 years ago last Christmas Day. Three years ago she experienced a severe celebration their golden wedding here. When a bride she came with her husband to Artemesia, but lived nearly all her life in this village. Besides her husband four sons and three daughters survive her namely, George, at Winnipeg; Carlton, at Lindsay; Fred, at Collingwood; Percy, in the West; Mrs. Chas. Phillips and Mrs. Harpell, Toronto; and Mrs. Temp. Hanover, a son and daughter died some years ago.

At the Presbyterian Guild meeting last week Dr. Turnbull gave an interesting address on "Some of the modern methods of treating disease." The instructive address was highly appreciated.

At the Young People's meeting in the Methodist church on Monday evening lantern slides were shown giving splendid scenes of Labrador and Dr. Grondin's work there.

The absence of Rev. H. H. Oke conducting family services at the Ebenezer church, Rev. P. C. Cameron, of Markdale, presided in the absence of Mr. Oke. He was assisted by Rev. J. A. Boyd, of Toronto, and gave an interesting and important discourse on "The Will-o'-the-wisp." He was assisted by Rev. J. A. Boyd, of Toronto, and gave an interesting and important discourse on "The Will-o'-the-wisp."

On Monday a fire broke out in a motor truck, but escaped without much damage. In the attempt to extinguish it from outside positions a fire extinguisher of the village here and the lighter one was dished and badly damaged, but the occupants escaped with a shaking up. A short time after two other local cars bumped together near the same place backing up into the ditch, but a boat tender to one was the only damage done.

Mr. C. M. Richardson and wife returned last week from their honeymoon at Detroit and other points.

Mrs. W. P. Crossley left last week to make an extended visit with her daughter at Glenora, Man.

A good turnout of the ladies here attended the W. M. S. convention at Chatsworth last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Murray and Miss Oke are visiting in Toronto this week. Mrs. Murray and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong are delegates to the W. M. S. annual Convention.

Mr. C. E. Jennett, who was over two years in the Standard Bank here, was transferred to Toronto last week.

Mr. C. W. Hisey, of Toronto has been placed here.

Mr. C. Parks, who has been in the McTavish garage for two years, leaves McTavish to take a position with the General Motors, Oshawa.

Mr. L. A. Whowell, of Luder, B. C. visited at Dr. Otwell's last week and Mrs. Ben Hishop, of Thornbury, was a recent visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Jamieson, of Toronto, were visitors some days ago at Mr. R. McMaster's and Mrs. Chas. Jamieson and babe, of Owen Sound, are visitors this week.

Mrs. W. Moore spent part of last week with friends in Toronto. Mr. Herb Smith and family of Owen Sound, spent Sunday with relatives here motorling with his new car from the McTavish garage.

H. MERCER & SON

LADIES' COATS In the New Burberry Styles, lovat shades, regular $25.00 Coats for $20.00 Ladies' Extra Heavy Cloth Coats, in Black and Brown Colors, almost equal to a Fur Coat for warmth, at $20.00 Ladies' Velour Coats, lined to waist, with Fur Collars at $20.00

LADIES' COAT SWEATERS In the new Tuxedo Style, pure wool for $4.75

HOSIERY THAT WILL GIVE SATISFACTION For Ladies, Misses and Children, in All Wool Worsteds and Cashmere, Black and all shades of Heather.

Remember we guarantee all our Goods To Be Exactly as Represented. You take no chances in buying Goods at

H. Mercer & Son, Markdale

Stoves CANADA'S BEST Stoves

Before buying a Stove this Fall, take a look at our stock. We handle such well-known makes as the Royal and Arctic Jewel, The Harvest Home, made by the Happy Thought Foundry, and the Souvenir Stoves and Ranges. Ranges priced from $30.00 up Heaters from $4.25 up

THE MANN HARDWARE Old Haskett Block, Markdale Phone 43

We Examine Eyes Scientifically.

We have the latest and most approved apparatus for accurate eye testing. J. LUCAS Optometric Optician.

HAPPY NEWS

We are Offering BIG BARGAINS in Coats and Suits

Just for One Week beginning Saturday, November 4th

Also Big Reductions in Sweaters, Boots, Hose and Dresses

$ SAVE MONEY $ Get all your needs for the coming winter at

M. ROSEN'S Markdale Bargain House

25 YEARS AGO